The Fading of the Year. The time of fruitage passeth by, The falling of the year; And nature, decked in gorgeous dyes, RAYMOND & DOHERTY, Proprietors. Betokens winter's near, The days are short, the nights grow chill,

The touch of frost is here; The katydid, with note so shrill, Chirps to the fading year. Queen Street, - Fredericton, N. B. Soon will the snows of winter come, And bleak December days;

But still a prayer of thankfulness Remember that, though seasons change, Or friends may thoughtles be, God changeth not-the God of love-But reigns eternally.
