Death of Mrs. Craig.

Mrs. Edward Craig died of paralysis, at the residence of Robert H. Montgomery, where she boarded, on Saturday evening last. Mrs. Craig, (nee Rachael McIndoe), had not been in good health for some time, but was not confined to her house; on Thursday, 11th inst., she retired for the night in apparently her usual health. Not appearing the next morning, a member of the family went to call her and found her lying on the floor unconscious, evidently having been stricken down by paralysis before retiring. She continued in an unconscious state until shortly before 9 o'clock, Saturday evening, when her soul passed away. The deceased leaves a brother George McIndoe, an aged man residing in Boston, and three nieces, Mrs. W. B. Jewett, Mrs. Henry Sincovec and Miss Hattie Raymond. Deceased was the widow of the late Edward Craig, a gentleman well known as a prominent builder. She had many friends who will learn of her death with regret. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon. Service at the house was conducted by Rev. W. B. Wiggins, after which the body was taken to the parish church, where Archdeacon Neales performed the last sad rites and where interment took place. The pall bearers were George A. White, R. B. Jones, Robt. Montgomery and Charles Clare.

Sudden Death of John Price.

The death of John Price, one of our well known and respected citizens, took place, very suddenly, at his home, Broadway, on Tuesday night. He had been working all day Tuesday, but on returning home at supper time complained of a pain in the side. After tea he bathed his feet in warm water, had a mustard plaster applied to his side and then retired to bed. Shortly after Mrs. Price went to his room and found him resting easily. He asked for a drink of water, saying that after he had taken that he would go to sleep and enjoy a good night's rest. Mrs. Price left him to get the water but when she returned to his bedside, found him in an unconscious condition; she raised his head up and sent at once for doctors, who on arrival found that life was extinct. Deceased was about 57 years of age and leaves, besides a wife, one son and four daughters, to whom the sympathies of the public are extended. Deceased was always a consistent and earnest temperance worker.

B. C. A.

A. G. Boyne who has been leader of the Boys Christian Association here for the past eight months, having accepted a call to become Association Railroad Secretary, at Stellarton, N. S., will leave the first of next week to take up his new work.

The work among the boys here, will not be altogether given up, although it has been found necessary to give up the rooms for the summer at least. The boys meetings will still continue to be held in some of the Churches, and it is thought that by means of these meetings the boys may be kept together during the summer.

It is to be hoped that when the fall comes again, that the parents of the town may realize the benefit it would be to have an organization of some kind for the boys, or young men in fact also. (Why not have a regular Y. M. C. A. ?), and that they will urge that the association shall be reorganized, and by their earnest sympathy and support shall place it on sure and firm foundations.

Sheriff Hayward.

Although not yet gazetted there is no question but what, when the government meets, his recommendation for High Sheriff will be confirmed, and Wm. A. Hayward will be appointed to that office—probably before this is read by our subscribers, the Gazette announcing the appointment will have been issued. The appointment is one which will give very general satisfaction. A native of the county, having been born at Rockland in 1844; having carried on a heavy lumbering business for many years; a large purchaser of sheep and lambs for the American market; and having served for a number of terms as County Councillor, Mr. Hayward has become widely and favorably known. In all the various positions he has occupied he has shown himself to be a square man. He is a liberal in politics, and to that party has ever shown faithful allegiance and valuable aid. He has a wife and large family. He has one brother, Rev. Amos H. Hayward, the highly esteemed Baptist preacher. We have no doubt that Sheriff Hayward will prove himself well fitted for the office, as we are assured he will most conscientiously discharge the duties thereof.

BOARD OF TRADE

The annual meeting of the Board of Trade was held, at the Council chamber, Wednesday evening. The president, Harry Noble, occupied the chair and the secretary, T. C. L. Ketchum, was at his desk.

J. T. A. Dibblee read a personal letter and a circular from Dr. Upham, a Woodstock boy, who is president of the Canadian club of Boston. A similar circular was forwarded to many of the boards of trade in the Dominion and advocates an "old home month," to give an opportunity to the many thousands of Canadians in the United States to visit their old homes. Dr. Upham says, in Massachusetts, there are 217,000 Canadians and in Greater Boston, 12,000; he says special rates could be secured from the different railways, and the movement would increase the volume of trade between the two countries; he did not expect to visit Woodstock this summer unless such a movement was undertaken. He wished the board of trade to talk the matter over and communicate with the Canadian club.

On motion of Mr. Baird, seconded Mr. Sheagreen, the secretary was instructed to inform the Canadian club that the board of trade heartily endorsed the movement, and asked for further information. Mr. Noble, before retiring from the presidency, wished to say that the board was not as active as it might have been during the past year, but of late there had been nothing special to bring before the board. He was satisfied the town was going ahead and the census would prove that he was right in his statement.

The secretary reported $28 collected for the past year, but a number of members were in arrears. On motion of Mr. Baird, seconded Mr. Fisher, the secretary was instructed to collect arrears forthwith.

On motion of Mr. Baird, seconded Mr. A. D. Holyoke, the dues for the coming year were placed at $1, instead of $2.

The following officers were elected: President, A. D. Holyoke; vice-president, I. E. Sheagreen; secretary, T. C. L. Ketchum; council, H. P. Baird, J. T. A. Dibblee, George Balmann, Jas. Carr, J. T. Garden and Williamson Fisher.

Addresses were made by the president, vice-president and several members of the council. On motion of Mr. Baird, seconded Mr. Dibblee, the president and vice president are to wait upon the band, see what arrangements can be made for summer evening concerts, and report at next meeting.

On motion of Mr. Fisher, seconded Mr. Baird, the secretary was instructed to write to Mr. Manchester, manager of the Star Line Steamboat Co., requesting that the hour for the departure of the steamboat be placed at 9 o'clock instead of 7 o'clock, thus giving merchants a better opportunity to load freight; also call his attention to the fact that at present no building for the storage of freight is on the wharf.

Board adjourned till regular meeting.

Seeding conditions in Manitoba are reported as being most favorable, and there will be a large increase in acreage sown.

Missionary Service.

There was a large audience in the lecture room of the Methodist church last evening, when Rev. W. S. Martin of Woodstock, the well known Evangelist, preached an excellent sermon bearing upon Home Mission work of the church. His contention was that every converted man or woman was as truly called to be a disciple of the Master as was the preacher of the gospel. Ye are my witnesses saith the Word, and He would allow no excuse from the most timid believer for not doing some work for uplifting mankind or bringing sinners to Christ. He emphasized this thought with the story of the faint-hearted woman who declared she couldn't speak in meeting, but many other opportunities were neglected. She admitted that although the milkman had called at her door every day for years she had never asked him if he was saved.

Pastor Campbell gave a brief statement of Home Missionary work in this conference, the need of special contributions to assist in enlarging the small stipend of many ministers on poor fields, and appealed for liberal support. In appreciative words on behalf of the large congregation he thanked Mr. Martin for his stirring and eloquent presentation of the gospel message.—Herald.

The new fire bell was hung in its position in the bell tower on Saturday and was rung sufficient to show its tone, which certainly is a clear and musical one. It was not sufficiently fastened to justify its being rung to its loudest capacity, but those who profess to be judges claim that it will be heard at a long distance. The weight of the bell, as given in the SENTINEL, last week, was wrong. It weighs about 1100 lbs. John Price superintended the hanging of the bell.
