Renounces His Citizenship.

The renunciation by a Syracuse millionaire of his American citizenship and his becoming a subject of King Edward, points to the fact that very few Americans are nationalized in England or English in America. Thus experience proves that the citizens of the two nations where the governments are freest have the largest amount of public spirit and love of country. There is a moral in this which other nations of less liberal tendencies may read. Besides the higher brand of patriotism, the fact means also that in these two countries the conditions of life are more satisfactory, with greater opportunities for the individual.—Baltimore American.

THE BOERS WELL TREATED.

At the Concentration Camps.

London, July 24.—A parliamentary paper issued today gives the numbers of persons in the concentration camps in South Africa in June as follows: White, 85,410. Colored, 23,489. There were 777 deaths among the whites in the camps, the list including 673 children. The deaths among the colored persons numbered five. The Bloemfontein Post of July 11 gives the following particulars of these camps, and answers its own question, "Where in the history of nations has any precedent occurred of an enemy not only harboring, but also feeding—and feeding well, too—teaching, and providing for the wants of the families of their foes?" After stating that on June 1 there were 40,820 refugees, of whom 25,336 are white, the Bloemfontein Post continues: The scale of white refugees' rations, viz., 1-2lb. of flour, 1oz. of coffee, 2oz. of sugar, 1oz. of salt and 1-12th part of a tin of condensed milk per head per diem—is more than sufficient to satisfy the requirements of even the most gluttonous. If it be taken into account that a woman with, say, three little children, draws the same amount of rations as four grown-up people would, and that there are very few Boer families indeed who do not exceed that number, it is quite evident that they are more probably overfed than that they have any cause of complaint on that score. The monthly fuel-bill for the different camps must also show a pretty large figure, considering that during the month of May not less than 386 tons of coal alone, at 8s. 6d. a ton free in trucks at Springs (Transvaal) was used, in addition to which large quantities of firewood are also distributed.

The camp has been formed at a pleasantly situated spot about forty minutes' easy walk, southwest from the centre of Bloemfontein. A walk round the camp will soon convince the most biased critic of the extremely good treatment to which the inhabitants of this veritable town are subjected.

Sixty tons of coal and £300 worth of firewood were distributed to the inhabitants during the past month. A most comfortable hospital camp has been constructed. This institution consists of four galvanized-iron structures—namely, a ward for grown-up women, one for men, and one for children, the fourth being a large and well-provided kitchen. The nursing establishment is under the personal supervision of Sister A. Kennedy, a lady of great experience and ability. She is assisted by three nurses and a few Boer women anxious to assist in the noble work. Another large iron building, one of those which were originally inhabited by refugee families, has now been cleared and cleaned out, and will, in a few days' time, be ready for the accommodation of at least 100 sick children. It is an ideal ward, well lighted, well ventilated and abundantly heated. An adjoining special kitchen has also been provided for. A dairy with some 75 cows provides fresh milk for the sick and for the baby occupants of the camp.

Those who wish to purchase any luxuries have ample opportunity of doing so in any of four well-stocked stores, where provisions may be bought at prices as regulated by the provost-marshal, the same as are in force in Bloemfontein. It will be noticed from the above that, although many slanderous and libellous statements have been made in public and in the renegade press as regards the treatment of refugees, they are, after all, as favorably situated as many true and loyal Britishers, whose daily fare, in many cases, would not compare with that of Boer refugees in South Africa.

Train Captured by the Boers.

LONDON, July 21.—The British war office has received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, July 22:

"A train from Cape Town with 113 details and stores was held up, captured and burned at Sheepers, eight miles north of Beaufort West, on the morning of July 24. Our casualties were three killed 18 wounded. An inquiry is proceeding."

London, July 23.—The British war office has received the following despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, July 23:

"French reports that Crabbe, with 300 men, was attacked in the mountains near Cradock by Kritzinger at dawn, July 21. The horses stampeded. An all-day fight followed. Crabbe fell back on Mortimer. Our loss was slight."

Montreal, July 24.—The Star's special cable from London says: Capt McMullen, formerly of Strathcona's Horse, left Cape Town for England on the S. S. Lake Erie July 19 and is due at Southampton Aug. 10.

LITERARY NOTICES.

Scribner's Magazine for August is the annual Fiction Number, and it contains seven complete short stories the beginning of a new serial, and special illustrated articles and poems. The colorprinting is shown at its best in the exquisite work of Maxfield Parrish, who has found a very congenial subject in Quiller-Couch's story of the Cornish coast, which has to do with a classical legend. These drawings are the most remarkable in color which have been yet attempted. There is also a beautiful cover-design by Albert Herter, which it has taken ten printings to reproduce.

The leading fiction is a novelette by Richard Harding Davis, entitled "A Derelict," which depicts the character of a brilliant but erratic newspaper correspondent, who writes the best story of the destruction of the Spanish fleet at Santiago. Another sea story by James B. Connolly, the new writer, is filled with that vigor of description and rapidity of movement which distinguishes all his work.

What women's clubs meant to one woman is told by Octave Thanet in "The Object of the Federation," a story full of humor and sentiment, illustrated with drawings by Christy. "Zack," the popular young English writer, contributes a humorous story of Devonshire, entitled "Benjamin Parrot's Fancy."

An elaborate Breton poem by Florence Wilkinson is illustrated by Henry McCarter.

Evidently no effort has been spared to make the Ladies' Home Journal for August a positive boom to its readers during these warm mid-summer days. Its light, readable articles, bright stories, clever poems, charming music, and numerous beautiful illustrations afford the easiest and pleasantest kind of entertainment for leisure hours. Enchanting views of the lovely scenery in the Engadine Valley and among the Swiss and Italian lakes, as well as such delightful articles as "The Singing Village of Germany" and "What Girl-Life in Italy Means," allure the thoughts to foreign lands, while there are timely suggestions about "The Picnic Basket," "Keeping a House Cool in the Dog-Days," and "Sea-Side Toys and How to Make Them." Other thoroughly interesting contributions are "The First White Baby Born in the Northwest," "My Boarding School for Girls," and the usual serial and department articles. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

New Uses for Sawdust.

Scientific men have long been engaged in the study of methods of utilizing waste products, such as saw, age, garbage and many other things, formerly thrown away as worthless, says the New York Sun. After it is ascertained just what these materials contain that can be utilized, ingenious men set their wits to work to invent machinery and devise processes by which the valuable commodities may be extracted. In this way many millions of dollars' worth of oils, fertilizers and other useful substances are now saved and the world is so much better.

A great deal of sawdust has always gone to waste, though many mills have used it to supplement their fuel supply. Chemical analysts have been at work on the sawdust problem, and it has been shown clearly that it contains very useful elements that are worth saving and now machinery has been invented to extract these materials.

The experiments have proven that 1,000 pounds of sawdust will yield about 160 pounds of charcoal, which is practically the same as charcoal, and equally serviceable; 180 pounds of acids, 160 pounds of tar and a quantity of gases that have been tested for heating and illuminating and found to be excellent for both purposes. While the acids, tar and charcoal are the products particularly desired it is said the gases are of commercial value.

A machine has been invented in Montreal for the purpose of distilling sawdust and obtaining the desired products. Consul General Bittinger writes that the machine treats about 2,000 pounds of wet sawdust an hour. As Canada manufactures enormous quantities of lumber it is expected that the utilization of sawdust in that country will be an important source of valuable commodities.

There are twenty places in Europe where oxalic acid is extracted from sawdust. In Scotland sawdust is used to make a floor cloth, coarse wrapping paper and millboard, which is a kind of pasteboard used by book-makers in the covers of books. Thus sawdust, once thought to be a good deal of a nuisance, is beginning to be considered quite a useful article.

James E. Simmons, of the well known firm of Simmons & Burpee, bridge builders, died at his home, Gibson, last week, and was buried on Sunday.

AUSTRALIAN ELECTIONS.

Parliamentary Contests in the Land of the Kangaroo.

Melbourne witnessed the extremes of expenditure during the contest for seats in the Commonwealth House of Representatives. The candidate who spent most was Sir Malcolm McEacharn, a member of the firm of McEacharn, McEacharn & Co. His election for the city of Melbourne is understood to have cost some £50,000. He is married to the daughter of the late mining king of the Bendigo gold field, and his period of office as mayor of Melbourne was signalized by hospitality on a scale of unprecedented splendor. On the other hand, a commonwealth-adjointing Sir Malcolm's has been won by the nominee of the Labor Party, Frank Tudor, an employee in the Denton hat mills, Melbourne. Mr. Tudor says his expenses will amount to less than £50. As a member of the House of Representatives he will receive a salary of £400 a year.

One candidate for a seat in the Australian Commonwealth Parliament issued on the eve of election the following statement: "I have traveled in the conduct of this contest more than 10,000 miles, a large portion on foot. I have published and circulated, chiefly by my own hands, or by those of members of my own family, 1,700,000 pages of literature in book form. I have published 138,000 copies of speeches delivered in the constituency, and 125,000 copies of four-page circulars. It is utterly impossible that this amount of work and literature can fail to have its effect." Alas! it was only too possible. The candidate who tramped, printed, and published on this colossal scale found himself at the bottom of the poll when the numbers were up.—London Chronicle.

AN INTERESTING FIND.

A Prehistoric City Unearthed

Los Angeles, Cal., July 22.—A prehistoric city of immense proportions is said to have just been unearthed on the Navajo Indian reservation between Durango, Col., and Farmington, N. M., the particulars of the find having been reported to the land department of the Santa Fe system in this city. A palace has been found containing, it is said, about 1,000 separate apartments, some of them in an excellent state of preservation. Another stone castle contained 100 separate apartments. In some of the rooms inspected were found the finest of wood and other relics of a valuable character, specimens of which have been gathered and sent to the Smithsonian Institute.

May Have Important Results.

THE CORONATION CEREMONIES.

London, July 23.—Much interest is aroused by the statement that the gathering at the time of the Coronation may have important results for the Empire.

It is practically certain that the president of the Jubilee demonstration will be followed to the extent that representatives of all the Colonial Governments will be asked to take part in the procession, and the Prime Ministers of the different colonies will likely be invited. There will probably be a conference on a number of questions of general interest, especially concerning the commercial relations between Great Britain and her various dependencies.

A Record Breaker.

St. Petersburg, July 24.—A hail storm in the district of Schlitzk, government of Tamboff, July 23, destroyed the crops over a wide area. Three men were killed, while an entire flock of sheep and two shepherds were carried off by the flood. Some of the hail stones weighed three pounds.

News from the Country.

Benton.

The death of Mrs John Boyd took place on Wednesday 17 inst after a lingering illness with heart disease, she was 52 years of age and leaves a husband, two sons, and a daughter, Mrs Alex O'Donald, of Richmond. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr John Appleby of this place. A funeral sermon was preached in St Mary's Church by Rev J E Flawell on Thursday p m after which the interment took place in the new Episcopal cemetery.

Murchies saw mill has shut down for a time and the crew have been sent down to Deer Lake to saw there until the supply is exhausted, when it is expected they will return and finish this seasons cut here. Several of the employees have taken their families down to the Lake with them.

Thomas Connolly has closed his boarding house here and opened one at Deer Lake for the season. The favorable weather has been well improved by farmers and large quantities of hay is being stored in good condition. All other crops are looking finely, with the exception of potatoes which show destruction of the potato bugs are making, number of fields have been destroyed by them and the pieces plowed up.

Newburg.

The haying season has begun; and the yield will be very good.

Our picnic passed off quietly, and quite successfully, considering the very rainy day.

On July 3rd., a very pretty wedding took place at St. Joseph's Church here, when Agnes Cecilia, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs Michael Burke was joined in wedlock to Peter eldest son of Mr and Mrs John Gallagher. The bride, who was becomingly attired in white muslin, was attended by her sister, May Burke; and Frank Gallagher, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Rev. Father Bradley officiated at the ceremony. After Mass, dinner was served at the home of the bride, and the afternoon and evening were very enjoyably spent there. The esteem in which the young couple are held was shown by the numerous and costly presents received; following is a list of most of them; set china dishes, Mrs John McGuire; money, Mr John McGuire; glass lemonade set, Mrs Wm Gallagher; lamp, Mrs Thos Hourihan; rocking chair, Mr and Mrs Thos McGuire; smoothing irons, Mrs P Montague; towels, May Burke; lamp, Sadie Burke; tablecloth, Mrs J Colter; counterpane, Mrs Hugh Johnston; porridge set, Mamie Johnston; set bread and butter plates, Miss Susie McGuire; tablecloth, Mary Owens; glass pitcher and doiley Mrs Priscilla Hourihan; silver butter knife and sugar shell, Mr T A Dibblee Woodstock; money, Miss Rose Burke Bangor; tumblers, Miss Nan Cunningham; tumblers, Miss Mamie Gallagher; silver butter knife and sugar shell, The Misses McDade; cake plate, Misses Mamie and Alice Gallagher; cruet, Jerry and Eva Gallagher; berry set, Mr Frank Leo Ryan; berry set, Belle Tracey; set dishes, Mrs John Gallagher; tumblers, Miss Stasia Cunningham; dishes, Mrs Geo Gallagher; knives and forks, James McGuire; preserve dish, John McGuire Jr; butter dish, Tommie McGuire; spoons, Murray McGuire; berry set, Hugh Johnston; silver butter dish, Michael Gallagher, Jr; and many others.

Mrs J McGuire and Carrie have been on a visit to Canterbury.

The pie social held on Monday, 15th inst, by Miss Nan Cunningham, was quite a success. Professor Barry rendered the music.

ONLY ME.

Kirkland.

July 22nd, 1901.

The farmers are all busy at their hay. The showery weather last week was not very favorable for hay making.

Mrs Deane, of St John, is at present visiting her sister, Mrs T Slater, Jr.

Mrs Fair Point a la Garde, Quebec, is visiting her daughter, Mrs Fowler. Rev Mr Fowler has not yet returned, but is expected toward the last of the week; we hope in improved health.

There was service in the Episcopal church here last evening, conducted by the rector, Rev Mr Teed. Two babies were baptized, children of Mr and Mrs J Bunting, and Mr and Mrs R Scott.

On Thursday evening of last week Miss Annie Jackson and Mr John Dickson were married at the home of the bride's mother, Rev Mr Archibald, of McKenzie Corner, tied the nuptial knot. The bride was handsomely dressed and looked very beautiful. There was a large number of guests present, and a gifts were many and valuable. A sumptuous repast was served, after which the bride and groom took their departure amidst showers of rice and good wishes.

Rockland.

July 23rd, 1901.

On Tuesday, 16th inst., our valley was visited by a down pour of rain unusual. The heat according to thermometer, showed a full 100 degrees in the shade, which oldest of settlers declare the highest register known here. The commotion in the heavens, the heavy thunder and sharp flashes of lightning, caused timid ones to tremble with fear, while those more staid felt their utter weakness and inability in view of His language in the thunder, rustling winds and electric strokes.

Mrs Samuel W Estabrooks enjoyed a prolonged visit to her daughter at Andover, Mrs Bridges.

Mrs Amos, (Rev) Hayward and niece, Miss Alvaretta Estabrooks, have been visiting relatives and friends in this their early home, where they received glad welcome.

Mr and Mrs Samuel Hill, of St Mary's, passed through here on a visit to relatives in Cloverdale, a suburb of our village.

Williamson Fisher, Esq, of your city, paid us a business visit, not many days since.

D W Brooks having sold his business at Hartland no longer brings us the mail from there. His successor is Willoughby Richardson.

Marvin Hayward, teacher at Grand Falls and wife are spending vacation with relatives here.

Rev Giberson pays occasional visits to the Carlisle circuit.

Rev J D Wetmore is doing a large amount of extra work, and of late has increased his number of preaching stations.

Rev DeWitt deserves mention among the clergy, for faithful and acceptable labor.

Miss Nellie Estabrooks is spending her vacation with her mother and brother, our village trader, Arthur S Estabrooks, whose wife and children are visiting her parents, Rev Barnes, Middle Southampton.

Mrs A Belyea has returned from New Bedford, Mass, where she spent several weeks with her son and wife and one more than when she arrived there.

On Monday a party from your city passed through here on a fishing excursion to head waters of Miramichi, consisting of Rev and Mrs Martin, and Mr and Mrs Rogers, and Miss Robinson of Massachusetts. Said party will be met by Sheriff Hayward, who left earlier in the day; he is familiar with the best fishing dis-

Hair Falls

"I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor to stop my hair from falling. One-half a bottle cured me."
J. C. Baxter, Braidwood, Ill.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is certainly the most economical preparation of its kind on the market. A little of it goes a long way. It doesn't take much of it to stop falling of the hair, make the hair grow, and restore color to gray hair.

tricts and will be a valuable guide; he is an expert in casting the fly and very successful in the past in capturing salmon.

Many are the excursionists to the head of streams, Bekagumick, Nashwaak and Miramichi, and all we interview on return express satisfaction with the trip.

Upon reliable authority we are informed that at the June session of Western Baptist Association, it was resolved to hold the next annual session with the church at Rockland—that means us.

Only a few from this region paid a visit to your city on Circus day, having better use for their money.

Mr Frank, eldest son of Sheriff Hayward, has purchased a farm fronting on the St John near the boundary between Peel and Brighton and anticipates moving his family there in the coming autumn. We shall ever regret losing such valuable and esteemed neighbors.

Through alterations made in the 'School Act' it is discovered that if the trustees fail to give a teacher notice, within a given time of the expiration of his term, that his services will be no longer required, he the teacher can hold the position for the full year following, despite the action of trustees or tax payers. The trustees of this district failed to comprehend this change in the system and gave no notice, and unless the incumbent decides to take no advantage of the situation, trouble and dissatisfaction is likely to be the issue, as several of the heaviest tax payers want a change and without it will not send their children to school.

Andover.

July 24th., 1901.

The Pan-American show arrived here at an early hour yesterday morning and were on the show ground quite early. There was a great amount of disappointment when it was announced that there would be no parade, as lots of people came from a long distance to witness it. A very large percentage of the whole county, as well as some from Carleton county, and a very good presentation from Fort Fairfield attended the show. The verdict rendered by nearly every one attending the show was that it was a complete sell, fooling the people in every way that could be conceived of. A perfect gang of "fakers" and thieves followed the great "Pan-American show." Only for the able lot of special police that were appointed by the Councilors of Andover and Perth there would have been a lot of poorer, but wiser men today. As it was, quite a number lost money; in some cases, the gang was broken up, and money returned. Everybody remember the "Pan-American show;" "its no good."

County Court met yesterday and in the case of the Crown Bradley vs Davenport, a true bill was found. In the case of Wright vs C P Railway, no bill was found and Wright was cleared. The case between Currie vs the Municipality was argued before his honor Judge Stevens last evening and Currie was non suited.

Mr and Mrs Parlova of Toronto, are here, the guests of Senator and Mrs Baird.

Mrs McLaughlin is visiting her mother, Mrs Newcomb.

Mr Nelson Hanson is a guest at Perley's Hotel.

Miss Maggie Porter is visiting Mrs Gregg at the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs Scott is spending a month with her sister, Mrs Harry Beveridge.

Mr Arthur MacKenzie spent Sunday at the Court House.

Mr and Mrs Robt Crawford (policeman) of St John are spending their vacation between Andover, Perth and Red Rapids.

Mr and Mrs Lawson of Calais, who have been visiting Thos Lawson M P P, left last week.

Mrs J C Stewart left on Saturday for York Beach, Me.
