Free to Inventors The experience of C. A. Snow & Co., in obtaining more than 20,000 patents for inventors has enabled them to helpfully answer many questions relating to the protection of intellectual property. This they have done in a pamphlet treating briefly of United States and foreign patents, with cost of same, and how to procure them: trade marks, designs, caveats, infringements, decisions in leading patent cases, etc. etc.

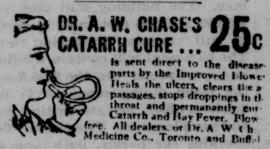

This pamphlet will be sent free to anyone writing to C. A. Snow & Co., Washington,

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper. Kritzinger, one of the Boer commandants, has notified Gen. French that he will shoot all natives in the British employ, armed or unarmed, who fall into his hands. He has shot some already.

One of the strangest attempts ever chronicled to defraud a life insurance company of a large sum has just been brought to light in one of the courts of Western United States. The culprit, a couple of months after he had his policies, went on a travelling expedition, and in a sparsely settled country he pretended to be ill. An accomplice, a physician, sent for to see him, declared the disease to be smallpox, and after a couple of days the patient died. He was prepared for burial, put into a coffin, taken to the cemetery, and actually put into the grave in the presence of witnesses. While earth was being thrown on the coffin, the supposed corpse crawled out of the end of the coffin into a pile of brush placed conveniently in the grave, and after everybody had gone away he escaped, while his accomplice sent in the necessary papers to obtain the
