LA GRIPPE'S RAVAGES.

ITS AFTER EFFECTS.

She Was Left Weak and Run Down, and Unable to Regain Her Strength Until She Used
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

In the village of Campden, Ont., and throughout the surrounding country, there are few people better known or more highly esteemed than Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Albright. Mr.
Albright has for many years filled the position of village postmaster, in addition to conducting a boot and shoe business. But it is with the post-master's estimable wife that this article has chiefly to do, as it gives, practically in her own words, the particulars of her recovery from a severe illness through the use of Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills. To a reporter who asked Mrs. Albright if she would consent to give the particulars of her illness and cure for publication, she said: "If you think my experience will help some other sufferer I am quite willing to give it, for I may tell you that I am a very enthusiastic admirer of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. For some years prior to the winter of 1898 I suffered with a lame back, which frequently prevented me from doing my household work.
Later exposure to cold developed sciatica, and every movement of the body caused intense pain. In this way passed gloomy days and restless nights, until the winter of 1898, when my trouble was aggravated by an attack of la grippe. The first and most severe symptoms of this trouble passed away, but it left me in a weak and depressed condition. I did not appear to be able to recover my strength; my appetite was very flake; I was extremely nervous, and my heart would palpitate painfully at the least exertion. I had been under a doctor's care, but did not recover my strength, and as a consequence I was much depressed in spirits. At this juncture a friend who called upon me advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to follow the advice and procure a supply.
To my gratification I felt an improvement in my condition almost from the outset, and after using the pills for a little over a month I was once more enjoying the best of health, every trace of the trouble that had afflicted me having disappeared. It is nearly three years since I used the pills and I have been well and strong ever since, and I have the best of reason for ascribing my present good health to the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic and not a purgative medicine. They enrich the blood from the first dose to the last and thus bring health and strength to every organ in the body.
The genuine pills are sold only in boxes with the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," printed on the wrapper. If your dealer cannot supply you send direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and the pills will be mailed post paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

A FAR-AWAY VOICE

PROCLAIMS THE EXCELLENCE OF

Morin's Wine "Creso-Phates."

MR. N. BABIN, SALESMAN,

Of St Bonaventure, Bay des Chaleurs, Cured from a Severe Cold by that Remarkable Preparation.

What Mr. N. Babin, salesman, of St.
Bonaventure, Bay des Chaleurs, states:—

I had caught a severe cold for which I could find no cure. I was exhausted with coughing, being unable to sleep and hardly able to eat.

I had tried many remedies which had brought me no relief worth speaking of. I thought I was becoming consumptive and I felt myself daily growing weaker. My friends no longer hid their tears from me and urged me to take some rest.

I had often read the advertisement of MORIN'S WINE CRESO-PHATES, sometimes in the pamphlet which Morin Firm (Dr. Ed. Morin's Pharmacy) distributes every year, and sometimes in the French and English papers of the country. I believed in the wonderful cures related by so many people, but I had never had the idea to try for myself. At last I decided to make another effort to cure myself by taking some of that wonderful WINE, the great fame of which extends far and wide. A few days of its use were enough to convince me of its unquestionable superiority. My cough ceased, I regained my sleep, with my appetite of former times, my thought became brighter, I was cured.

A thousand thanks for this matchless remedy.

MR. N. BABIN.
