The Carleton Sentinel.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1901.

Published by THE CARLETON SENTINEL PUBLISHING CO., at their Office, 10 VANWART'S BUILDING, King Street, Woodstock, up stairs.

THE Duke and Duchess of York and Cornwall reached London in safety, and received a most hearty and brilliant reception.

AN Ottawa despatch says that at a Cabinet meeting on Saturday it was agreed to call Parliament together for January 30th or February 6th; the earlier date will probably be decided upon.

HON. MR. BLAIR is using his influence to have the Canadian horses for South Africa, shipped via St. John, and not Portland, Me., as it appears was arranged for by the Imperial war office through one of its officers.

AN Ottawa despatch to the Globe says: The census returns will show a big increase of French Canadians in the Maritime Provinces. By the 1891 census there were 103,000; by the present census they will show nearly 150,000.

THE contract for the steel superstructure of the highway bridge across the St. John, at Andover, has been awarded the Dominion Bridge company of Montreal. The bridge will consist of five through pin-connected truss spans, each 188 feet 10 inches from centre to centre. Operations will begin as soon as possible, for which a large working crew will be sent from Montreal.

CONFIRMATORY of the statement made by the SENTINEL last week with reference to the Woodstock & Centreville Railway, the St. John Globe, of the 5th inst., has the following: The directors of the Woodstock & Centreville Railway, at a meeting here last week, decided to sign a contract for the construction of the road with Henry Crane, of New York, on his producing satisfactory evidence of his ability to carry on the work. The idea is to have the work commenced in April next and completed in eighteen months.

THE result of the Municipal elections in Greater New York, is one of more than ordinary importance. The question at issue was not one of politics; as to whether the Republicans or Democrats should be victorious, but a direct trial of strength between the forces of right and wrong; between clean, honest government, and government by the worst elements in society. The result has been a grand moral triumph. Mr. Low has no easy task before him, but to remedy the evils inflicted by the four years' rule of Tammany will require the exercise of his best, well-known ability, backed up by the hearty support of all who desire to see a better and purer administration of civic government. The tiger's claws are now clipped and should not be allowed to grow again.

A Good Train Service Now.

THE SENTINEL is glad to be in a position to state that owing to the representations made in the issue of the 18th ult., and also to a personal interview with Mr. Osborne, the general superintendent of the N. B. Division of the C. P. Railway, by a member of the SENTINEL Co., the Railway is now carrying passengers on the Presque Isle freight. This makes the present arrangement by far the most convenient to the travelling public of any which has heretofore existed.

We are also pleased to find that the N. B. Division of our great national highway is under the control of an official who not only is not offended by friendly criticism, but who actually courts it. Mr. Osborne stated, when the matter was broached, that he was here, among other reasons, for the express purpose of listening to grievances and, so far as lay in his power, of redressing them. If our great Railway Corporation had more officials of the stamp of Mr. Osborne, there would not be such a condition of distrust on the part of the public, as now unhappily exists in many parts of Canada.

Frank E. Smith, who has been C. A. Lindow's able assistant in the C. P. R. office here during the past four years, has accepted a similar position with the same company at Woodstock and will leave for that town next week. Mr. Smith has made a host of friends in business and social circles here whose best wishes will accompany him—Courier. Mr. Smith referred to in the above paragraph is the son of Mr. T. E. Smith, of the C. P. R. here.

The Same Old Story.

BENSON—CONNELL.

On Thursday morning of last week, a marriage took place in St. Luke's Church, Chatham, one of the principals being a well known and popular young lady of this town. Rev. W. C. Matthews performed the ceremony which united for life Miss Mary Connell, daughter of the late G. H. Connell, of Woodstock, and Mr. John J. Benson, of Montreal. On the entrance of the bridal party to the church, the choir sang The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden, Miss Susie Nicol presiding at the organ. The bride was becomingly arrayed in a dress of navy blue Venetian cloth, and wore a blue and white hat; she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Marion Colter, of St. John, was dressed in fawn cloth with fawn hat and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The maids of honor, Miss Alice and Miss Lillian Fisher, wore red dresses and hats and carried bouquets of red and white roses. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Stewart Benson. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Benson left by train for a bridal trip to Boston. They will reside in Montreal.

THE SENTINEL casts its editorial slippers with a bountiful supply of rice after the happy couple, accompanied by sincere wishes that Mr. and Mrs. Benson may enjoy a honeymoon which shall continue during their lifetime.

ESTEY—MC CAIN.

At the residence of the bride's father, Florenceville, Wednesday of last week, Helen, daughter of Ferguson McCain, and Hollon M. Estey, were united in marriage by Rev. A. H. Hayward. Miss Mary McCain was bridesmaid, and S. R. Estey, of New York, supported his brother, the groom. A rich wedding dinner was served, after which the newly married couple drove to their home. The bridal presents comprised many valuable gifts.

WILEY—TWEEDIE.

Rev. J. K. Beairto, of Glassville, assisted by Rev. G. D. Ireland, Woodstock, performed the pleasant rite, on Wednesday afternoon, last week, at the residence of Mrs. Rankin McLardy, of uniting in the bonds of wedlock, her sister, Katherine B. Tweedie and John H. Wiley, of Monticello, Me. Only the near relatives of the contracting parties were present. After the marriage ceremony a dainty lunch was served, and then Mr. and Mrs. Wiley left for their home at Monticello.

Death of a Nonagenarian.

Mrs. Fanny N. Coy died at the residence of her son, Woodstock, on Sunday morning, 3rd inst., of paralysis of the brain, at the ripe old age of ninety years. Deceased was the widow of the late W. T. Coy and daughter of Zonos and Sarah Lincoln, who came from the United States with the Loyalists. She leaves one brother, Charles Lincoln, in his ninety-third year, who resides in Boston; four sons, Zenos L. of Sacramento, Cal., Edward B. and Frederick W. of Boston, and Rev. J. H. Coy of Woodstock, with whom she has made her home since her husband's death, forty-three years ago; but one daughter survives her, Mrs. W. B. Howett of Tyron, P. E. I. Besides those mentioned, a large number of relatives and friends mourn her death. She was a member of the Fredericton Baptist church, lived a consistent Christian life and died in the triumph of faith.

Coun. Carr's Charge Against the Chief.

On the occasion of a fire in town, Oct. 7th, an altercation took place between Coun. Carr on one side, and Chief Tattersall and several of his brother firemen on the other side, the chief claiming that the firemen are in his charge, during a fire, from the time they leave the engine room until their return.

At the next meeting of the Council Coun. Carr claimed he had been grossly insulted by the chief and other firemen, and asked for an investigation to be held by the fire committee and he would prove his charge against the chief.

A preliminary meeting of the fire committee was held last week, at which both the gentlemen were present, and it was adjourned until Wednesday evening of this week when it was held in the Council chamber, Coun. Balmmain in the chair, Coun. Lindsay acting as clerk, and Coun. A. E. Jones presiding. The jury, A. B. Connell, K. C., was the counsel for Mr. Tattersall, who was also present. Coun. Carr gave evidence to prove his charges. Mr. Connell had sixteen witnesses in rebuttal, but they were not heard, the committee deciding to refer the matter to the Council at next meeting.

Wm Churchill, of Jacksonville, has purchased for $7,500 the well known and valuable Pillsbury farm, near Fort Fairfield.

JOTTINGS.

Saturday, 9th inst., is the King's birthday, and will be observed as a public holiday.

If you want bargains in cylinder stoves go to Dibblee & Son. They have them in all sizes.

Don't forget the Thanksgiving Supper and Sale by the ladies of the F. B. Church, on Nov. 28.

New Valencia Raisins, new Crop Currants, Pure Spices and extra strong Essences at R. E. Holyoke's.

Jacksonville social circles are excited over an interesting event, in which two popular young people are to be the principals, to take place on the 20th inst.

The corporation drive passed Woodstock on Monday and is making its slow way to the boom, which it is now hoped it may reach before being caught in the ice.

For anything in the line of furniture go to Carr's, Hartland. He has been in the business longer than anyone there, knows where and how to buy, and his prices are reasonable.

A large congregation was present at St. Luke's church on Monday evening, when his Lordship, Bishop Kindon, administered the rite of confirmation to a class of seventeen candidates.

A public temperance meeting, under the auspices of the Royal Templars of Temperance, will be held in the Methodist Church, Sunday evening, after the regular service. Everybody is invited.

Shaw & Dibblee, Hartland, are now selling goods for strictly pay down, and devote their whole attention to hardware and groceries. If you want high quality goods at a fair price call on them.

Vinal B. Wilson, a member of the well known legal firm of Wilson & Archibald, Houlton, died suddenly of heart failure, at Bangor, on the 4th inst. He was 49 years of age and leaves a wife and one daughter.

The Woodstock Manufacturing Co., (formerly the Drysdale Co.,) are prepared to finish on quick notice and at reasonable prices outside doors and windows. No time for delay; get fitted up with these at once.—81-45.

Among the Enumerators of Fisheries for the Dominion Census for New Brunswick are: Carleton Co., Geo. H. Saunders, Woodstock; Victoria Co., Hector Nadeau, Edmundston; Madawaska Co., Hector Nadeau, Edmundston.

You are probably beginning to think of purchasing your fall clothing. Whether it be a suit for a gentleman or a dress for a lady, go to Carr's, Hartland. He keeps the largest stock in the village and prices are right.

Miss Cassie, daughter of W. W. Hay, while playing with some children on the premises of Police Magistrate Dibblee, the other day, stepped into a post hole and broke the bones of her leg. Drs. Hand and Rankin set the bone.

Write for a free sample copy of the Canadian Horticulturist, the leading garden magazine in America, treating fully of the cultivation of fruits and flowers; numerous illustrations, practical and professional contributors. Address L. Woolverton, M. A., Gormaby.

Among those presenting themselves for examination as students-at-law this week at Fredericton, are Frank A. Good, Mark C. Gillen, Harry P. Saunders, Woodstock; John Barnett, Jr., Hartland. For attorneys: T. C. L. Ketchum, J. R. H. Simms, Woodstock.

As will be noticed by an advertisement in another column, a Business College is to be established at Woodstock, opening on the 12th inst. The institution is an important one, and should receive a generous patronage. Those desirous of consulting Prof. Clark on the subject, will find him at the Carlie.

The Revival services being conducted by Evangelist Lyons, in the Advent Church, are being largely attended, and much interest is being evidenced by those who attend them. Mr. Lyons is a pleasing and forcible speaker, and appears to possess the power of at once reaching the heart and mind of his hearers.

Dibblee & Son have just received 1000 feet wire rope made especially to work in the woods, cheaper and better than manilla rope.

One of the earliest settlers at Good Corner, Mrs. Solomon Good, passed away on the 23rd ult., leaving to mourn a husband, four sons, one daughter, one sister, and two brothers. She was in her seventieth year and had lived at Good Corner 49 years. At her funeral, by her own wish, her four sons acted as pall-bearers.

Noble & Trafton invite inspection of as fine a line of fruits, put up in syrup, in handsome bottles, as was ever shown in Woodstock or any other place. The list comprises Strawberries, Red Raspberries, Red Cherries, Lombard Plums, Green Gages, Peaches, Raspberry Jam and something delicious in the way of Golden Syrups, put up in quart cans.

Rev. Z. L. Fash, lately of Nova Scotia, has accepted the call extended him by the Albert St. Baptist church, and will enter upon his duties next Sunday.

Cold weather is coming and you will need Storm Doors and Windows. Place your orders early with the Woodstock Woodworking Co., Ltd., who will attend to orders promptly and take measurements and fit them if desired.

A very promising Young People's Society of Loyal Workers has been organized by Evangelist Chas. A. Lyons, in connection with the Advent Church. The meetings are well attended, and the members exhibit a great deal of interest. The following comprise the officers of the society: Miss R. Webber, pres; Miss Myrtle Harmon, vice pres; Mrs. S. J. Parsons, treas; Miss Leora Harmon, sec; Mrs. Woodbury Raymond, cor sec.

The world is looking for more light. So are we. Of late, we have been buying our kerosene of a peddling concern, resulting in a shower of complaints of the oil, from our customers. We sincerely regret having had this poor quality of oil, which we were disappointed in. But we are pleased to state that we have 20 bbls. very best Pennsylvania Oil due to arrive, from the Sun Oil Refining Co., Limited, St. John. We had the same oil last year and it gave universal satisfaction. C. M. Sherwood.

The members of the W. M. S. of the Methodist church enjoyed a very pleasant 'Missionary at Home' on the evening of Thursday of last week, at the residence of Mrs. Geo. A. White, Chapel street. The following programme was presented: chorus; Lord's Prayer; solo, Mrs. Kirkpatrick; reading, Mrs. S. J. Baker; missionary address, Mrs. W. S. Corbett; solo, Mrs. R. E. Holyoke; piano solo, Miss Johnston; reading, Mrs. Sprague. Refreshments were enjoyed and a generous collection taken for the funds of the society.

Rice Watson, son of C. R. Watson, met with a painful accident on Tuesday, while working at a lathe in Connell Bros. foundry, where he is an employee. In some way his fingers were caught in the cogs of the machine and two of them were severely injured; the end of the first finger was torn and bruised so that a small portion of the bone had to be removed. The second finger was so severely injured that Dr. Hand had to amputate it just below the first joint. The patient suffered a great deal for the first 24 hours, but is now feeling much easier.

Winter is coming; yes, so is Christmas, and those who are looking for bargains in Xmas dishes are invited to call and inspect C. B. Snow's new stock. Everything from a first-class dinner set to a pin tray. He also keeps in stock everything for the Xmas cooking, such as seeded raisins, prepared currants, citron, spices of all kinds and a new lot of that Porto Rico molasses which is giving such satisfaction. He has just received another lot of McCormac's Fancy Biscuits, with several new varieties. Call early and avoid the rush.

ACADIENSIS.

Our readers will be pleased to learn that Acadiensis, the new quarterly, which was started a year ago, is to be continued indefinitely. The growth of the subscription list, we are informed, has been slow but steady, and there is every indication that the enterprise will be successful from every standpoint. The fourth number which has just appeared, completes the first volume, and in addition to sixty-four pages of reading matter and a full index, it contains ten full page illustrations, in addition to numerous others which appear in the text. The principal contributors to the current number are Mr. Charles Campbell and Mr. W. P. Dole, both writers of excellent verse; Rev. C. W. Vernon, of North Sydney, C. B.; Mr. Clarence Ward, Secretary of the New Brunswick Historical Society; Mr. W. C. Milner, of Sackville; Mrs. Isabella A. Owen, of Annapolis Royal, and the editor. Quite a new feature of the present number of the Magazine, is two full page colored portraits of two well-known Acadian Musicians, which illustrate an article on that subject. Subscription price, $1.00 per annum, D. R. Jack, Editor and Publisher, St. John, N. B.

Births.

At Kintore, P. O., at 9.40 p. m., on Oct. 29th, Jane Nevill, widow of the late Thomas Watt, Esq., druggist and postmaster, leaving four daughters and five sons, three at Kintore, John H. Watt of Woodstock, and Thomas, at Wellesley, Mass.; thirteen grand children and one great grand child, besides many friends and relations on both sides of the ocean to mourn their loss. Mrs. Watt had been for years in feeble health. The following verse was suitably suggested by a friend:

He touched the feeble spark of life,
And set the spirit free,
To meet the God that gave it birth,
In the great eternity.
The funeral took place on Saturday morning at 9 a. m., having been postponed to allow her daughter, Mrs. Leslie J. Montgomery, to be present. Rev. G. Pringle paid a beautiful tribute to the dead, and spoke tenderly and consolingly to the heart-broken family.
At Lower Greenfield, on the 1st October, after a long and distressing illness, Andrew Kilpatrick, aged 77 years, leaving a widow, five sons and six daughters to mourn their loss. An honest man, a good citizen, a tenderly affectionate husband and father; the last of the older Kilpatrick brothers has thus passed away.
