The Carleton Sentinel.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1901.

Published by THE CARLETON SENTINEL PUBLISHING CO., at their Office, in VANWART'S BRICK BUILDING, King Street, Woodstock, N. B.

MR. JUSTICE GREGORY has been assigned to try election petitions, under the Dominion Controverted Election Act, for the electoral districts of the counties of Carleton and Victoria, and Mr. Justice Barker to try election cases under chapter 5 of the consolidated statutes, in Carleton county.

The government appears to be pushing matters through parliament with commendable haste, while at the same time giving the opposition the fullest time for consideration and criticism. The discussion on the Address in reply was very brief, but this only enabled the government to show that they were fully prepared to submit their reports, and bring down their estimates, without in the least delaying the business of parliament. Already quite a number of the items of the estimates have passed, and the first supplementary estimate has been brought down.

NOMINATION proceedings, Tuesday, were of the tame kind. Very few of the electors were present; the speeches were few and brief. The address of Mr. Appleby was just such a straightforward, frank and manly announcement, as one might reasonably expect from a gentleman of his good sense and judgment; while not for a moment leaving any doubt upon the minds of his hearers but that he was a Liberal and a supporter of the government, there was nothing offensive in his matter or manner, and the position taken by him is one which, we believe, commends itself to the fair-minded men of both political parties.

Toryism Gone Mad.

The Town Council, on Friday evening, February 8th, in the practical dismissal of Night Watch Thomas McCarron, have carried their political party hatred to an extent which must cause the fair minded element of the Conservative party to blush whenever the matter is mentioned. It seems that on the previous Monday evening, Mr. McCarron asked for a raise in salary of ten cents per night, as he has for ten years past effectually guarded the town through all sorts of storms and dangers, for the mere pittance of $1.25 per night and threatened to resign if his request was not granted. Owing however to the solicitations of numerous merchants and property holders, he decided to remain at the old rate, if he could not get the advance asked for, and so notified the Council in writing, but when the matter came up the four Tory members of the Council refused to entertain his proposal and appointed a good Tory in his place; and this, after Councilor Carr, so we are credibly informed, not three hours before, had agreed with at least two influential property holders, one of them a prominent Conservative at that, that if Mr. McCarron would agree to continue at the old rate he would vote for him, which would have ensured his continuance in office, but evidently when the party whip was applied his promises went for nothing and Mr. McCarron was not only thrown out of employment but was placed in a very humiliating position besides. Mr. McCarron has always been a faithful night watch, one who was never found asleep during his hours of duty, and one who, by his faithful attention to duty, has protected our property from evil disposed persons and prevented many a conflagration; and while we have nothing to say against his successor we have no hesitation in saying that no reasonable person could possibly have aught against Mr. McCarron as a public official, and we feel that the great majority of fair minded ratepayers of the town will not fail when the proper time comes, to condemn this contemptible piece of Tory partyism.

The above was written for last issue of SENTINEL, but was crowded out.

Golf.

At the annual meeting of the Woodstock Golf Club, last week, the following officers were elected: President, H. Paxton Baird; vice-president, Mrs. R. V. Dimock; secretary-treasurer, B. M. McLeod; general committee, J. S. Creighton, Dr. Rankin, T. C. L. Ketchum, D. W. Newcomb, William Dibblee, Misses Blanche Dibblee and Gussie Connell; greens committee, F. C. Denison, Rev. G. D. Ireland, Dr. Hand; membership committee, Miss Rankin, G. H. Williams, A. H. Hay; by-laws committee, Wm. Dibblee, Dr. Hand, B. M. McLeod.

The Club decided upon the erection of a club house and A. D. Holyoke, W. N. Hand, M. D., Rev. G. D. Ireland, and B. M. McLeod were appointed a committee to have charge of the scheme.

NOMINATION DAY.

On Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, Sheriff Balloch, at the Court House, was prepared to receive nominations for a representative to the Local Legislature to take the seat resigned by Frank B. Carvell. William Dibblee acted as the sheriff's clerk. Wendell P. Jones presented the nomination papers of Stephen B. Appleby as the government candidate, signed by the following ratepayers representing the different parishes in the county:—

John Harper	James Good
Hamilton Emery	John McCormac
John J. Speer	A. H. Traffon
Frank B. Carvell	Albert Simonson
Williamson Fisher	John A. Carpenter
J. W. Cheney	Robert Brown
M. Welch	Newman Estey
Fred Moore	W. Wallace Hay
Enoch D. Phillips	R. Wilmet Balloch
James McManus	William C. Good
John McLauchlan	W. N. Hand
H. Paxton Baird	W. B. Nicholson
A. E. Jones	Joseph Fewer
Geo. H. Saunders	A. C. Phillips
Allen W. Shaw	Wendell P. Jones
William S. Speer	G. H. Corbett
George F. Burpee

The sheriff at 2 o'clock, having received no other nomination, declared Mr. Stephen B. Appleby the member-elect for the unexpired term.

Mr. Appleby, who was received with great applause, said he was surprised at holding the honorable position he occupied that afternoon, as a member of the Legislature. He did not expect the honor which was now conferred upon him, neither did he seek it. He was not unmindful, nevertheless, of the honor he had received, and he wished to heartily thank his friends for the same. He was not new to parliamentary work. In the year 1873 he was elected by the Liberal party in the county to a seat in the Dominion Parliament; that was a short session, for he had to appeal to the electors the next year, and was again returned by acclamation as this noble county's representative, and held his seat until 1878, when he was defeated. Since then he had never sought the suffrages of the electors, and he had made up his mind never again to enter political life. There was a divinity, however, which shapes our ends, rough hew them as we may. A few weeks ago, there was a movement inaugurated having for its object the returning by acclamation of a gentleman who would satisfy both parties. A short time ago, the county had a fierce by-election and, later, a fierce Dominion election, and it was thought these two were sufficient for the present. Leading Conservatives said that if he would accept the nomination from the government supporters, they would not put up a man and he could be returned by acclamation. The nomination was tendered to him, and he declined the honor at first, but finally consented. The Conservatives were true to their promise and did not nominate a candidate. He wished to thank his Conservative friends for the kind manner they had treated him since his name had been mentioned as the government candidate; he would always have kindly feelings for them. This is the occasion and this is the place where promises are made. If the promises made here the last 40 years had been realized, Carleton County would be Utopia. Governments and Parliaments do not make people rich. They may assist in many ways, but each man has to hew out his own fortune. The promises he would make were to give his best energies to promote wise legislation for this county in particular and the province in general. He thought his conduct would amply justify their action in electing him. They all knew him—he was a staunch Liberal and a supporter of the present local administration.

H. H. McCain, M. P. P., was called upon and loudly cheered. He felt too good to talk politics. He feared at one time that they would have to run an election, although he was satisfied that the government candidate would be elected. The local government was all right; it has spoken for itself. Sending a man like Mr. Appleby, by acclamation, was a good thing for the county to do.

Frank R. Shaw was cheered when he answered to his name. He wished to congratulate his friend Appleby for his election by acclamation; the government is to be congratulated also in having such a supporter as Mr. Appleby; he would go further and congratulate the people of the county on the choice they had made.

There was a large crowd present at the roller rink on Saturday evening of last week, to witness two races. The first was an apple race, between Allie Roirdon, Pearl Smith and Walter Searle, and it finished in the order named. The other a two mile race between Irving Cameron of Bangor and Johnnie Brown of Woodstock, was won very easily by Brown. He was a lap and a half ahead at the close.

As his name had been mentioned in that connection, he wished to say that he would have no objection to being in Mr. Appleby's place. The electors did the next very best thing that could have been done (Laughter). He would elucidate matters by a story. Sandy had been very sick and the doctor had forbidden him to drink any liquor. He (Sandy) was now getting better and he thought he had kept the pledge long enough. The doctor, in his reply to Sandy's request to be allowed to take a "wee drap" told him it would kill him if he drank any liquor. Then Sandy asked the doctor to come a little closer, that he might get a "drap" from the doctor's breath. If the electors did not get the real thing, they got the next thing to it. (Laughter).

Hockey.

On Monday evening the Century team of this town crossed sticks with the Fredericton seven, in the Century Ice Rink. A strong team from the celestial city, with Thomas C. Doherty as spare man, and accompanied by several Fredericton sports arrived on the Gibson train shortly after noon. A large attendance of spectators watched the game and the teams lined up as follows:

Woodstock.	Position.	Fredericton.
G. Williams.	Goal.	H. Murray.
J. Long.	Point.	S. Sterling.
J. Dibblee.	Coverpoint.	S. Staples.
P. McLean.	Forwards.	J. Trites.
J. Pickel.		W. Babbitt.
H. Drysdale.		C. Coleman.
G. Connell.		W. Parker.

The first half ended badly for the local boys, and the visitors scored three goals. More vim was put into the game by the home team in the second half, and they made two goals to one, consequently the visitors won, 4 to 2. Mr. Moore, of Montreal, acted as referee. Supper was given the visitors after the game at Monahan's.

The fourth game of hockey in the local league series, advertised for Wednesday evening, was not played as a few of the boys are sick, and they wished to be in good shape to meet the St. Stephen boys at their home rink this (Friday) evening. The team that will leave for the border city, this morning, will likely consist of Claud Aughterton, goal; James Long, point; Jack Dibblee, coverpoint; Gordon Connell, Stanley Pickel, Fred McLean and Hallam Drysdale, forwards. Will this be the time we crow—or eat crow?

Marriages.

A large number of friends gathered in St. Gertrude's church, at 7.30 Tuesday morning, to witness the marriage of Miss Alice L. Thibadeau and Herbert E. Hassall, two of our popular young people. Rev. Fr. Chapman was the officiating clergyman. The bride looked extremely well, attired in blue, with hat to match, and had as bridesmaid her cousin, Miss Lizzie Day. J. Lewis Milmore assisted the groom through the trying ordeal. After the ceremony the bridal party breakfasted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hassall, and later took the afternoon express for their new home at Fryberg, Me., a number of lady friends accompanying them as far as Debec. The presents were numerous and serviceable. The young couple have the heartiest wishes of the SENTINEL for their future happiness.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Estabrooks, in Hodgdon, Me., Feb. 12th, 1901, when their youngest daughter, Nellie M., was joined in happy wedlock to Edgar L., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carr of Richmond, N. B. The nuptial knot was tied by Elder G. W. Wheeler of Hodgdon. The groom entered the parlor unsupported, the bride leaning on the arm of her brother. Only the immediate relatives and a few personal friends of the bride and bridegroom were present. After the ceremony the happy couple and friends entered the dining room where they all partook of a sumptuous repast. The presents were costly and useful. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Carr a pleasant voyage together through life.

There was a large crowd present at the roller rink on Saturday evening of last week, to witness two races. The first was an apple race, between Allie Roirdon, Pearl Smith and Walter Searle, and it finished in the order named. The other a two mile race between Irving Cameron of Bangor and Johnnie Brown of Woodstock, was won very easily by Brown. He was a lap and a half ahead at the close.

JOTTINGS.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Al Chapman, aged four months, died Saturday.

J. T. G. Carr Hartland, is prepared to pay top prices for FARM PRODUCE—Hay, Oats, Butter, Cheese, Pork, Beans, etc.

There will be an interesting race in the Roller Bink, Saturday evening, between George Greer and Denny Glew, both of this town.

Everybody is delighted with Malory's sugar cured hams. R. E. Holyoke has just received a second lot, which are in every respect equal to the first one. Remember every ham is guaranteed.

Every one interested in temperance will be glad to learn that the new Emerald Council is now running in good shape. New members are being added each night of meeting. The Council meets every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, in the B. C. A. rooms. All persons interested in the temperance cause are invited to join.

I am selling out at very low prices my stock of Groceries and crockery-ware. Great bargains in dinner and tea sets, butter jars, lamps, glass-ware and all kinds of crockery. A special bargain in finest Porto Rico molasses. Mark C. Gillen, King Street.

A temperance meeting was held in the F. B. Church on Sunday evening at the close of the evening services in the several churches of the town. Mrs. Jordan presided and addresses were delivered by the chairman and Revs. Wiggins, Martin and Mr. C. R. Watson. There was a good attendance and the occasion was one of interest.

The Y. P. S. C. E., of the Free Baptist Church intend holding a parlor concert, at the residence of Mr. Charles Titus, Union Street, Monday evening, February 25th. An interesting programme will be provided; also home made candy. Admission only 15 cents. All are cordially invited to attend.

The proprietor of the popular Victoria Hotel, Thomas Boyer, was agreeably reminded that on Friday last was the anniversary of his birthday, by the waiting upon him of a number of his friends and presenting him, through their spokesman, J. R. Murphy, with a handsome gold headed cane. Mr. Boyer greatly appreciated the kindly act, and made his friends sit down to an elegant supper.

This is the season of the year, when fresh vegetables and fruits are out of the question, and so the good housewife has to seek a substitute. Well, Noble and Trafton, with their large and varied stock of canned vegetables and fruits, can meet and fill their household wants. Inspect their stock and learn prices.

"Odds and Ends." Having closed out his store at Woodstock, C. M. Sherwood has a quantity of odd plates, pitchers, and other dishes, which he is running off at about half price. In some patterns he can supply several dozens in breakfast and dinner sizes, while in others breakfast and tea sizes only. These, like his bulk teas in 5 and 10 lb. lots at wholesale prices, will go out very quickly.

The Sock Social, held in the basement of the Methodist Church, on the evening of Monday last, under the conduct of the Elizabeth Chapman Circle, Miss Maggie Baird, president, was a highly enjoyable affair and the net financial result was $20.00. The following programme was presented: Chorus, by Circle; Reading, Mrs. Sprague; Duet, Ralph and Addie McAdam; Recitations by Jennie Tattersall, Addie McAdam and Bessie Tattersall; Solo and Chorus, Walter Townsend; Solo, Harry Dunbar; Duet, the Misses Winslow; God save the King.

Word was received by wire, Friday of last week of the death that day of Mrs. V. A. Mayer, at Denver Col. Mrs. Mayer was well known in this town where she lived previous to her marriage. She was a daughter of Mrs. Boulter of Florenceville and sister to Mrs. S. J. McIntosh, Mrs. Maurice Ryan and Mrs. Lisle Faulkner of Woodstock and Miss Maggie Boulter of Bangor, Me. Mr. Charlie Boulter of Houlton, Me., Joe of Bridgewater, Me., and Dave of St. Leonard are brothers of Mrs. Mayer. She was buried in Cincinnati, Ohio Wednesday.

The Valentine tea and concert in the Opera House, last Thursday evening, for the benefit of the B. C. Association, drew quite a large crowd and proved a pleasant occasion. A fine supper was served in the rooms below the opera house, and the following programme was interestingly presented:—Piano duett, Mrs. Geo. Mitchell and Miss Dennison; violin solo, G. H. Williams; vocal solo, Mrs. (Dr.) Rankin; vocal solo, G. H. Williams; reading, B. M. McLean; vocal solo, Miss Jennie Hay; banjo trio, Frank Jones, Geo. Baker and Robt. Dow; piano duett, Misses Johnston and Porter; vocal duett, Mrs. Frank Good and Mrs. H. H. Lockwood; xylophone solo, Frank Jones; God save the King. The proceeds amounted to about $30.

An enjoyable dance and luncheon was held in the A. O. H. rooms, Monday evening. A large number of invited guests was present. It was a satisfactory ending to the dancing season, for the lovers of the terpsichorean art, for the Wednesday following was the first day of Lent. The musicians, who rendered good music during the evening, were Misses Sadie Brown and Daisie Hughes, organ; James Kennedy, harmonica; Frank Jones, George Baker and Robert Dow, banjos; James Brown acted as prompter in his usual capable manner.

The grocery business, formerly run by Sherwood Bros., here, and which was stated, two weeks ago, had been purchased by Frank Shea, has undergone another change of proprietorship, C. B. Snow having bought out the stock and good will of the business. Mr. Snow was for many years engaged in the grocery line and has a thorough understanding of all the details of that branch of trade. He will keep a first-class stock, give undivided attention, and will in every way try to meet the wants of his patrons. He ought to command a liberal share of trade.

Indications!

If Candlemas Day is cold and clear, we'll have two winters in one year. Who can dispute this? Is not the raging wind and the fast piling snow a true indorsement of this saying? If the poor little Ground Hog had not been fooled by the clear day on the second February and left his den and seen his own shadow, he would never have learned that snow and blow of the chilly winter was still at hand.
