Adventist Conference.

The Annual Meeting of the Adventist Christian Conference was held in Woodstock beginning Thursday evening and continuing over the following Sunday.

The ministers present were Dr Taylor, Rockland, Me.; Archer Wyeth, Crouseville, Me.; Corliss, Milltown, Me.; Thornton, Cooper, Me.; King, St. Marys, N. B.; Raymond, Simonds, N. B.; Woodward, N. S.

The Conference was opened Thursday evening by the President and a real earnest and cheering social meeting was enjoyed by all.

Friday morning was a social meeting led by Elder Corliss; Afternoon session, preaching by Elder Archer, followed by a testimony meeting in which there were many warm and earnest testimonies.

Friday evening Dr Taylor preached a sermon on Practical Christianity setting forth clearly the duty of Christian people in their every day life.

Saturday morning, Elder Wyeth led the meeting which was a social one and heartily enjoyed by all, and many expressed their desire to get nearer the Master, and to let the life of Christ be magnified in their bodies. Saturday afternoon was the business session. After receiving reports from secretary and treasurer, the different ministers present reported their work during the past three months, which were very interesting, especially so because of the fact that quite a number of men and women in different parts of the country had come out from the ranks of sin and were living consistent Christian lives as a result of their preaching. Elder Arthur Woodworth was engaged by the Conference to do evangelistic work in the home field for the next quarter, and about $150.00 were raised by the conference to support the work of the next three months.

The following officers were then elected: A. P. Connolly, having served as president for the last three years in succession, was again elected to that office; C. D. Dickinson, vice-president; Mrs. C. D. Dickinson, secretary-treasurer; S. J. Parsons, auditor. In addition to the above named officers two others from the Woodstock church and one from each of the other churches constituted the Executive committee. By vote of the conference the time and place for the next quarterly session was left for the Executive committee to decide, and a motion to adjourn concluded the business session.

Saturday evening, Elder Martin, pastor of the Baptist church, preached a very interesting sermon to a large and attentive audience, and it may be said, that all through these meetings, Bro. Martin showed his interest in the work by his attendance and help in several of the meetings, which was very much appreciated by all.

Sunday morning was a social prayer and praise service, which was very enjoyable and beneficial to those who were present.

By invitation from the other churches in the town Dr. Taylor preached in the Albert St. Baptist pulpit. Elder Wyeth in Reformed Baptist, and Elder Thornton in F. C. Baptist.

Sunday afternoon, Dr. Taylor preached a very able sermon on prophecy and though the house was crowded, there was good attention, as they listened to the words of truth as they fell from the lips of the Dr. as he showed, from the Scriptures and from history our position in the world and what is required of us.

Sunday evening there was preaching by Elder Wyeth, followed by a social meeting, which continued till late in the evening, and there was many expressions of regret that the meetings were at an end, and still more testifying that they had been greatly helped and blessed as a result of our meeting together. And thus ended a very interesting and enjoyable conference, and while there is always sadness in parting with those whom we have been privileged to associate with, yet we look forward with joy to the time when we shall meet to part no more forever; but until then, let us be faithful and do the work the master has left for us to do.—Com.

ST. JOHN LETTER.

They declined to license the Duke of Manchester to run his automobile in New York on the pretext that a license could not be issued to a foreigner, but that was a very flimsy pretext. Their idea of aristocracy is that it is a sort of helpless thing, incapable of lacing its own shoes, much more of running an automobile or keeping astride of a bicycle. To see a duke or a lord engaged in any sensible occupation would be taken as evidence that he was no duke or lord at all. The idea is a very foolish one, but it is grounded on the character of the nobility who go to the United States wife hunting, and so far as they are concerned, it is tolerably correct. But the history of England shows that lords and dukes are able to manage large enterprises, to plan and execute just as well as if they were without titles. Lord Roberts and Lord Kitchener have been pretty busy men in their day and they have gained a good deal of credit for their shrewdness and courage.

Each of the fifty or sixty employees of the Gazette who had ovens were presented with a turkey by Proprietor Bowes on Christmas eve; the others got an equivalent.

The inmates of the almshouse, the asylum and the hospital were generously remembered on Christmas day.

Capt. William E. Dixon of this city, who was wrecked on the sch. Carbolla a short time ago, has been wrecked again. Arriving home last Saturday week he found his wife had eloped with Hedley Barbour, also of this city, a married man. He traced them to Grand Falls where Barbour is now under arrest.

Two men and two women were arrested last Wednesday night for fighting in a house on Brussels street. The stove and every article of furniture in the house, including the lamps, had been demolished.

There have been very few changes in the markets during the last week. The tea markets abroad are firm for good goods while common teas are in large supply and prices are 1 to 1 1/2 cents per pound lower and are in active demand. Staple groceries are quoted to-day as follows:—

Best Manitoba flours, $4.90 @ $5.00	per barrel.
High grade Ontario patents, $3.90 @ $4.00	per barrel.
Oatmeal, $3.50 @ $3.70	25 bbl
Cornmeal, 2.25 @ 2.30
New Clear Pork, 18.50
New Mess Pork, 16.50
Ex. Plate beef, 15.00
Plate beef, 14.50
Hand picked beans, 1.90 @ bu.
Rice, 33 @ bu.
Choice butter, 21
Eggs, 22 @ doz

Two disorderly women were sentenced last Friday to twelve months in jail. The magistrate's fun is rather expensive to the tax payers.

Twenty seven births, twelve marriages and nine deaths were registered in the city last week.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, Dec. 28, 1900.

A citizen of Cape Town, Africa—Mr. Griffith Danary, who is a diamond merchant—now in Washington, presented a new aspect of the outlook in South Africa when he said: "While the British and Boers have been fighting tooth and nail, the world as a spectator has quite forgotten about the thousands of Kaffirs, who live in the disputed region and who form a standing menace to the lives of both conflicting peoples. The Kaffirs, being only partially civilized native Africans, live in the Transvaal in multitudinous numbers, raising sheep and goats. Their life is as free as that of the North American aborigine formerly was, but at the same time their property rights are respected. Now, the conditions in the Transvaal are getting into such shape that sooner or later the fighting armies must resort to the Kaffir flocks for food. Both armies are living on the country, and it is only a question of a short time when the visible food supply will have become exhausted. As soon, therefore, as any inroads are inaugurated upon the Kaffir flocks, war will be to the offending army. The natives will rise in arms and slay indiscriminately right and left. Their hordes will sweep down upon both sides, and the Boers and British will become their common enemy. The confiscation of two or three goats may cause all the trouble. When it comes, look out for some sensational developments. The Boers and British may have their hands full, and may be obliged to discontinue their own war and join forces against the Kaffirs. It may cause the final solution of the Boer-British war."

The Panama lobbyists are circulating a story which belongs to the important-if-true class, alleging that Great Britain, Germany and France had agreed to jointly complete and control the Panama Canal, whatever this government might do about the Nicaraguan Canal. If this story was started to help the Panama crowd, its originators have made a very silly mistake. If true, it would put the Nicaragua Canal through the Senate at once, and, if untrue, it is still calculated to help the Nicaragua Canal by arousing discussion of such possible action on the part of the three European powers. Speaking on the subject, Senator Dolliver said: "I would not like to say what would happen in the event of these three powers taking stock in the Panama scheme, but I can assure you that the action of the Senate would be quickly taken and decisive. There would be no delicacy in the matter and I think the treaty would go by the board." Other Senators were also emphatic in saying that the Senate could be depended upon to act promptly should the story prove to be true, without waiting for Great Britain to act upon the amended Hay-Pauncefote treaty, now on its way to London. It is beginning to be feared that the Nicaragua canal bill will not be acted upon by the Senate at this session, unless Great Britain acts more promptly than is expected upon the amended treaty, owing to the opinion of some Senators that it would be a breach of international courtesy for the Senate, a part of the treaty-making power of this government, to act upon the bill until Great Britain has acted upon the treaty.

Canadian Almanac.

This issue of The Canadian Almanac, which forms the fifty-fourth of the series, is unusually valuable, and is indispensable to every office and library in the Dominion. Many of the lists given are not found elsewhere, and in no other volume can so much information about Canada be found in so small space.

In this year of military activity, special attention has been given to Military Matters in the Dominion. A complete Militia List, War Service of Officers of Canadian Militia, Alphabetical List of Reserve Officers, Officers of Staff and Permanent Corps, Canadian Troops sent to South Africa, List of Killed in Action, Died of Wounds, Fever or otherwise, in South Africa. Also an interesting article on the British Army, giving among other items a complete list of the battles in South Africa, with the number of killed, wounded and missing in each case. Also an article on the British Navy, and an account of the United States Navy, all of which are intensely interesting to those who wish to keep abreast of the times.

The results of the elections both in Canada and Britain are given. A short description is given on the British Government, with a list of the principal officials, and a brief account of the offices. The New Dominion House of Commons will be found in full, with a list of the successful and defeated candidates. The Provincial Governments are also given, with a list of legislatures and principal government officials.

The Customs Tariff is revised to date, and the Post Office Directory Gazetteer.

As a directory The Canadian Almanac is unsurpassed. Full lists are given of the Clergy of all denominations; Societies and Institutions; Schools; Colleges and Universities; Barristers and Solicitors in Ontario; County and Municipal Officers; Townships, Cities, Towns, and Villages; Division Court Clerks, Police Magistrates, etc., etc. Astronomical Information, Tables and Statistics, Tide Tables, and general information of all kinds.

The Historical Diary, which has been showing an interesting feature for the past few years, is continued. Price in Paper Covers, 400 pages, 25 cents. Published by The Copp, Clark Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A Notable Appeal.

To an ordinary mortal it would seem as though the Conservatives would be only too glad to refrain from any reference to the race and religious cry which they raised during the last political campaign, and that their sole anxiety would be to have the unsavory matter drop out of public memory. Whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad, is it political madness then that has prompted Sir Hibbert Tupper to issue the following inflammatory appeal to his Pictou constituents?

Vancouver, B. C., Dec. 10, 1900.

To my supporters in the county of Pictou: Now that the smoke of battle has cleared away, and the Dominion general elections for 1900 are over, I seize the opportunity to send you a message of thanks for the hearty support you have seen fit to accord me in conjunction with my colleague, Mr. Bell. The result of the elections throughout Canada was a surprise and disappointment to all of us, more especially since the complexion of the government's majority leaves it impossible to suppose that any judgment has been passed upon the many sins of omission and commission of the Laurier administration. Quebec has saved the government from the doom the rest of Canada thought it deserved. Notwithstanding the gigantic and unparalleled corruption practiced by the Government throughout the English-speaking people of Canada, Anglo-Saxon opinion in the Dominion has proclaimed emphatically against it. Quebec is French, the leader of the Government is French, and the Government lives. No one would be surprised, still less complain, that natural sympathy existed in Quebec for a French-Canadian leader; but when the French-Canadians have almost to a man rallied around him can we believe that this result has been due to any other cause than the race feeling, so fostered, manipulated and developed by Messrs. Tarte, Bernier, Bourassa, Monet and others, skillfully played upon by the Prime Minister himself? At any rate our French-Canadian friends, who have been swamped in this temporary craze of Quebec, tell us so. There are those who denounce any reference to this condition of affairs. I have been accused of stirring up a war of races. In view of the facts it seems to me only right to give formal notice to the French Ministers of the Crown that we are aware of the machinations they have used. They have succeeded only by the appeal to race feeling, and that if this course is persisted in but one result can follow at the hands of Conservatives and Liberals alike, and that is the government of this country by the most numerous race. I am in every sense averse to such a condition, but it is sure to develop unless we quickly let the majority in Quebec know how we are prepared to treat such a movement as they have inaugurated, though it be not for the present openly avowed.

Yours faithfully,
Charles Hibbert Tupper.

Funeral Services of Mrs. Henry McIntyre

Were conducted by Revs. W. S. Martin and Thomas Todd, at Albert St. Baptist church, Tuesday afternoon at 2.30. Mr. Todd offered a short prayer at the home of the deceased, in the presence of the sons and daughters only. The sermon was preached by Pastor Martin at the church, from the text James 4:14, a text Mrs. McIntyre asked for herself. Mr. Todd made some reminiscent remarks relative to the life of the deceased, and offered the prayer. The choir of the church sang three selections from the gospel hymns. The hymns were the choice of the departed. A very large company came out to pay their last respects to the memory of this good woman.

Mrs. McIntyre was 73 years and seven months old, and for 50 years had been an earnest Christian. She leaves a large family of children to mourn her loss, who have the sympathy of the entire community, for everybody loved and honored Mrs. McIntyre. William McIntyre, one of her sons, who resides in Newton, Mass., has spent the last few weeks with his mother and has been a blessing to her and to the troubled family. Mr. McIntyre will remain in town for some time yet.—Com.

General Buller is giving a new reading of the South African war. He denies that any "disasters" have occurred. A disaster he defines as "a serious loss in which one gained no compensating advantage." He contends that in this sense Spion Kop was not a disaster; it showed him the way to Ladysmith.

The Presque Isle Star-Herald says: "About two weeks ago Mr. John McDougall, book-keeper for M. C. Smith, was attacked with some ailment of one of his eyes, which caused a gradual failure of vision and finally a total loss of sight in the eye affected. Mr. McDougall started Wednesday morning for Boston where he goes for treatment, which it is hoped will prove efficacious in curing the ailment." Louise, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Beaton, had a narrow escape Saturday. She was sliding down the hill in front of Mr. Beaton's residence on South Main Street, and ran into or under a passing team, cutting herself severely about the head. The injuries were thought to be quite serious and Doctors Rankin and Saunders were called, who sewed and dressed the wounds, which fortunately did not prove as serious as first thought. The child is at present doing nicely. The driver of the team did not think it worth while to stop his team to see the extent of the child's injuries.
