Suicided Rather Than Wed.

St. Louis, Mo., May 6.—William D. Bender committed suicide while a carriage was waiting at the door to take him to his wedding. He was found a few minutes later by the friends who went to his room to summon him.

He was to have been married at the church at 2 o'clock to Miss Annie Kienle. Miss Kienle was at Bender's home this morning, but shortly after noon left for her own home to prepare for the wedding. She and Bender appeared in the best of spirits.

After she left Bender went to his room, supposedly to dress for the ceremony. He had not been absent more than ten minutes when the carriage drove up to the door, gayly decorated with white satin ribbons. His friends went to his room and found him lying upon the bed beside his wedding clothes. He had shot himself and was unconscious. He died soon after he was discovered.

A little later Miss Kienle arrived at the home of her intended husband. She was dressed in bridal robes, ready for the wedding. She found a policeman standing over Bender's dead body, and fainted. His friends can give no reason for his act.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 6.—An estimate on the total loss by the fire as given out by a former tax collector this afternoon is as follows: Public buildings, $1,088,000; stores, north side of Bay street, $495,000; stores, south side of Bay street, $880,000; stores, Forsyth street, $405,000; stores, Main street, $309,800; residences, prominent, $118,000; residences, 1,500 small, $2,000,000; residences, effects, $2,300,000; stocks of goods in stores, $1,620,000; stocks in 200 small stores, $550,000; street railway, $80,000; pavements, $100,000. Total, $10,565,000.

An Enthusiastic Reception.

MELBOURNE, May 6.—There was a picturesque scene at Parliament House when the procession of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, accompanied by Lord Hopton, the governor general, the state and federal ministers and the officers of the visiting warships, arrived here at 3.15 this afternoon. The procession, the representatives of the colonies, including William Mulock, the Canadian postmaster general, the American and other consuls, the officers of the visiting warships, a host of other prominent persons, the royal party reached Government House at 4 o'clock. Here there was the scene of the greatest enthusiasm. A salute was fired and the royal standard was hoisted.

It is believed that a crowd numbering 300,000 persons witnessed the procession. Tonight, the city and harbor are ablaze with illuminations of a most elaborate description.

News from the Country.

Benton.

May 8th, 1901.

The sad accident, which occurred on Tuesday of last week by the breaking away of part of the dam at Murchie's mill, and resulting in the death of Robert Elliott, east a heavy gloom over the place. If he had not been recovered on Thursday about four miles down the river. There were bruises about the head as though he had been struck by some of the timber in the fall; he was a good swimmer and in all probability would have escaped if he had not been injured at the time. As soon as the accident occurred, a rescue party began at once the sad search and continued, untiringly, for two days before they were rewarded by finding his remains. At seven o'clock on Saturday morning a funeral service was held in the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Ross officiating, after which the casket, on which rested a beautiful display of flowers, some having been sent from friends in Boston, was taken to St. Andrews by train, where the internment took place. Deceased was a native of St. Andrews, aged 52 years, and had been in the employ of James Murchie and Son for seventeen years. He was highly respected, was a member of the Methodist church here, and a kind, genial neighbor. He leaves a widow and ten children, four by his first marriage, two daughters and a son reside in Boston, and one son in St. Andrews, while the widow and six children live here all of whom were present at the funeral service.

The home of Robt. Saunders has been brightened by the arrival of a young daughter. Congratulations on a similar event are being received by Mr. and Mrs. A. McPherson.

Mrs. Wm. Sharp, and Mrs. Wm. Speer, have each opened a fine stock of millinery goods.

The fine weather of late is being improved by the farmers, who are busily engaged in sowing their grain.

Mr. John Graham is erecting a barn.

Mr. Stokoe is very successful in his sale of waggons. A very pleasant sign, is it not girls?

REPORTER.

Williamstown.

Wheels are all right. It is not one bit of harm for a boy to have a wheel providing he uses and does not abuse the privilege of riding it. There are two points upon which I should be determined, first that I owned it, second that I kept it in good company.

Miss Cora Emery was last week united in marriage to Mr. Ernest McLeary by Rev. Mr. Deware. Both the young people have many friends who wish them much happiness.

The monthly meeting of the W. F. M. S. of the M. Church was held on Wednesday afternoon in the church. Two new members, Mrs. E. Savage and Mrs. W. McWade. Hour changed to 2 p. m. Roll call to be answered by a text of scripture. Two delegates, the R. Sec'y and Cor. Sec'y, appointed to attend Debec convention. Cor. Sec'y ordered to send an invitation to every young lady in the church. Five members signed for the "Outlook" three more are required to secure club rates, 25 cts per year.

Master George Stothart has gone to Maine, where he enters the employ of his uncle in a store. We wish him well.

Mrs. James Emery, we are glad to say, has bought the homestead of her father and will remain with us. Mrs. Emery received the $3,000 from the insurance on her late husband's life.

Mr. H. Stothart is better and out again.

There was a pleased expression on every one's countenance Sunday to see "Enoch" at home. The organist misses him sure.

Mrs. John Pryor, who was quite ill with pleurisy, is getting better.

Glassville.

May 8th, 1901.

The farmers had a good market for their produce in the lumber woods last winter, at fair prices, which means good times this spring.

Seeding is well advanced, a much larger acreage than usual being sown in wheat. The excellent flour made at Britton's mill, Bristol, has much to do with this.

The Agricultural Society recently purchased in Ontario 3 pure bred short horn, year old Bulls, all fine animals, which were sold at auction. The purchasers were George B. Reid, Fred D. Skinner, and Lindsay Robinson; they are to be kept within the bonds of the parish for three seasons.

Ninety three dollars ($93.00) has been forwarded from the Glassville congregation to the Century Fund of the Presbyterian Church.

250 bushels of timothy seed, 2½ tons of clover seeds, 150 bushels of wheat, besides a considerable quantity of other seeds, has been brought into the parish this spring from Ontario and Quebec, costing about $1300.00 and still not enough.

The Sunday School was organized last Sunday with David H. Lamont superintendent, Mr. La Forest, of Windsor, assistant superintendent, James Love, secretary treasurer.

It is understood that the Agricultural Society will not hold an Exhibition this year, many hope that the directors will take hold and help to make the Woodstock exhibition a success.

Lakeville.

Mrs. Annet and Miss Cassie leave this week for Sussex, where they will spend the summer at the old home of the former. Few of our neighbors would be more missed.

Master Willie Armstrong has gone back to his uncle, Mr. Watt of Richmond. The little lad won his way into many hearts while with us.

Mr. William Gillis has renovated his house and it certainly is greatly improved.

Rev. D. M. McLeod goes to his new charge with many wishes for a successful future. It will be difficult to find one to fill his place.

Mr. J. Waters has a nice row of maples set out along the front of his house. Ten years from now they will add much to the appearance of his home.

Mr. Charlie Cross spent Sunday in the village. Charlie seldom drives alone.

A little "deep thinking" on the part of our supt would have enabled him to grasp the fact that the word undenominational was but a slip of either the correspondent or typewriter; the word of course intended was denominational.

Mr. McKelvie, the agent for the Bible Society, will address a meeting in the F. B. Church on Sunday at 11 a. m.

Inspector Meagher made his semi-annual visit to the schools. Our two teachers did not appear to feel very badly over the examination, although some of the pupils seemed to have been somewhat rattled. The children in both departments are doing good work.

The farmers have their wheat in the ground. It is at least out of the way. If there is anything to sympathize with to my mind, it is the Carleton Co. small boy. He does more work than hosts of men; it is a wonder he grows at all, the growing properties of his make up must be all sapped out of him. Is it wise to put on young children so much care and work?

Mr. Charlie Tracey, who is employed at Monticello, spent Sunday at home.

Few country stores can produce such a variety of prints as Collicie can show his patrons. They are worth examining.
