RIVERSIDE HOUSE.

THIS House situated at the foot of Regent Street, is now open to the public. The proprietor, Colin Campbell, who ran so successfully for thirteen years the Newburg Junction Eating House, also for two years the McAdam Junction House and six years the Havelock Junction Restaurant, is so well and favorably known to the travelling public that further recommendation is not necessary. He guarantees to sustain that reputation in his new quarters.

The Riverside House will be found as good a DOLLAR A DAY HOUSE as can be found in the Province.

No charge for conveying baggage to and from the House to the Station. Open for transient or permanent boarders. COLIN CAMPBELL.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The undersigned having been restored to health by simple means, after suffering for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To those who desire it, he will cheerfully send (free of charge) a copy of the prescription used, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. He hopes all sufferers will try his remedy, as it is invaluable. Those desiring the prescription, which will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing, will please address, 227, EDWARD & WILSON, Brooklyn, New York. 6m-28.

Our Millions of Animals.

Few people have any idea of the immense animal population of Great Britain. According to the last returns of the Board of Trade, there were in the United Kingdom nearly 2,000,000 horses, about 10,000,000 cattle, more than 32,000,000 sheep, and something like 4,000,000 pigs. As regards the first item, this was the number used by agriculturists alone. The number of horses used for carriage purposes in towns, regarding which we have no particulars, must be enormous. The value of this property is estimated at about $1,250,000,000.

Depressed and Discouraged.
It is remarkable how thoroughly the whole system is thrown out of order when the nerves become weak and exhausted. All energy and ambition seems to disappear, the mind wanders, memory fails and despondency reigns supreme. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food puts new vim and energy into the brain, nerves and body, builds up the system and prevents paralysis, prostration and insanity.

Advice to Mothers.

If your little boy or girl comes home with a sore throat, the first thing to do is to rub the throat and chest with Nerville's Nerveine. Don't be afraid to use Nerveine freely—a whole bottle full wouldn't burn or blister the tenderest skin. Rub in until all is taken up by the pores, and just before the child goes to sleep give him a glass of hot water into which 30 drops of Nerveine has previously been stirred. This is a sure, pleasant and speedy cure. Large bottles 25c.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

On motion Council decided to adjourn at 3.30 to meet to-morrow at 9 o'clock.

Coun Faulkner, dealing with the gaol question, said that it was stated positively that the cost of the gaol would not exceed $10,000.

Coun Carvell said that $18,000 was about the price asked by tenderers for the kind of building that was required.

Coun Saunders said that Coun Faulkner was right, but Councillors approached the committee, urging them not to stick at a couple of thousand dollars.

Coun Carvell said the plumbing and heating was included in the $12,000, total cost of the gaol. The architects' commission, 5 per cent. would be extra of this amount.

On motion Coun D Phillips, seconded Coun Tompkins, $200 was voted for poor purposes for parish of Peel, and charged to that parish.

On motion Coun Gallagher, seconded Coun Bohan, $200 was voted for poor purposes for parish of Kent, and charged to that parish.

On motion Coun Faulkner, seconded Coun Hayward, $600 was voted for poor purposes for parish of Brighton, and charged to that parish.

On motion Coun Brown, seconded Coun A C Phillips, $250 was voted for poor purposes for parish of Northampton, and charged to that parish.

On motion Coun Bailey, seconded Coun McDonald, the payment for and the work of the reporters is to be the same as last year.

The Council now adjourned to visit the new jail in a body.

Council met at 9 a. m. Jan 15.

Two hundred dollars was ordered assessed on parish of Wicklow for poor purposes.

The following committees were named by the warden:—

Finance—Couns Bailey, Williams, Brown.

Gaol—Couns Carvell, McDonald, Phillips (Peel), Raymond, Hay.

The revisors were ordered paid the same as last year.

When the parish officers for Richmond were named, there was a difference between the councillors representing that parish. Coun Hay wanted the name of Allan Wilson substituted for Andrew Currie, as road commissioner. He agreed with the other officers as suggested by Coun Merrithew.

In making his motion that the list of parish officers, Richmond, be confirmed, Coun Merrithew said that he lived in the north of the parish, and Coun Hay lived in the south. Allan Wilson was the old road commissioner, and a large number of the ratepayers asked for the change. He promised to make the change and he substituted Andrew Currie for Allan Wilson. His considered Currie was a better man for the position. That man was no relative of his, as had been charged, but he admitted Currie married his wife's cousin. As he and his colleague could not agree he was willing to leave the matter in the hands of the board.

Coun Hay moved an amendment that Allan Wilson's name be substituted for Andrew Currie's.

The amendment carried. Coun Merrithew spoke of the heavy overdraft which recently this Council had at the bank. He thought there should be a restriction beyond which the Council should not go. At one time there was an overdraft of $18,000. He moved that the overdraft be not more than $5,000.

It was pointed out that by the law the county could not overdraw beyond the amount specified by the council.

On motion Coun Carvell, seconded Coun Williams, the list of parish officers for Wilmot was confirmed.

On motion Coun Lamont, seconded Coun Skinner, the list of parish officers for Aberdeen was confirmed.

Five dollars and fifty cents was ordered refunded to Albert Nevers and charged to Brighton, two men having paid the same tax.

On motion Coun Carvell, seconded Coun Williams, the following resolution carried:—

Whereas—No general rule has been observed in reference to the time and manner of paying the road commissioners; and

Whereas—It is desirable that the secretary treasurer should have some general rule to follow in this respect, and that the ratepayers should know the amounts paid to the commissioners; therefore

Resolved—That in future the commissioners' bills and returns be presented to the Council, and after being approved by the councillors for the parish in which the commissioners are appointed, the same be ordered paid by resolution of this Council.

On motion Coun Lamont, seconded Coun Skinner, the following resolution carried: That the uncollected rates, if any, for county and poor purposes, including non-resident road tax, on property assessed in the name of J. W. Loyd, a non-resident of the parish of Aberdeen, be rescinded previous to the year 1899, and that the secretary treasurer instruct the collector of rates to that effect.

Nine hundred dollars was ordered

Wearing Out the Nerves.

Many people wear themselves out needlessly; their conscience is a tyrant. An exaggerated sense of duty leads many a person to anxious ceaseless activity, to be constantly doing something, over punctual, never idle a second of time, scorn to rest; such are in unconscious nerve tension. They say they have no time to rest they have so much to do, not thinking they are rapidly unfitting themselves for probably what would have been their best and greatest work in after years. Self control of nerve force is the great lesson of health and therefore of life itself. To understand how to relax is to understand how to strengthen nerves. Hearty laughter is a source of relaxation as are also all high thoughts, as those of hope, beauty, trust or love. Relaxation is found in diversion.

PAIN OVER THE EYES.

Headache and Catarrh Relieved in 10 Minutes.

That dull, wretched pain in the head just over the eyes is one of the surest signs that the seeds of Catarrh have been sown, and it's your warning to administer the quickest and surest treatment to prevent the seeding of this dreaded malady. Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder will stop all pain in ten minutes, and cure. 50 cents.

Pleasant for the Landlady.

A cook at a certain boarding house played a little game on a grumbling boarder, a newspaper humorist, by serving him a piece of sole leather instead of beefsteak.

'You've changed your butcher, Mrs. Hascher?' said the boarder, looking up at the landlady after saving two or three minutes at the leathery.

'Same butcher as usual,' replied the boarding mistress with a patronizing smile. 'Why?'

'Oh, nothing much,' said the humorist, trying to make an impression on the steak with his knife and fork, 'only this piece of meat is the tenderest breakfast I have had in this house for some weeks.'

WONDERFUL TESTS.

One of the most wonderful and effective tests of the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy ever made was finished when the North German Lloyd racer, Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, steamed into New York from Bremen, Southampton and Cherbourg. For more than one-half of her eastward voyage, or 1,500 miles, the liner was in constant communication with the Canarder Lucania, also bound eastward. More than 100 messages were exchanged between the two vessels. The Kaiser sent messages from the Lucania ashore at The Lizard. The German liner also picked up her sister ship, the Kronprinz Wilhelm, on the Western voyage and officers of the two held converse by wireless for two hours. A dozen messages winged their way to the Nantucket lightship early yesterday morning.

PINCHED AND PUNY

South American Nerve is the Antidote for the ills which are induced by humanity's "mad rush" for an existence. The "eat and run" way of living is accountable for more of the pinched and puny faces than any other cause under the sun.

Dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, sick headache are the prime causes for broken-up nerves. Nature foretold the strain that we would be compelled to live under and has revealed to medical science the famous formula—South American Nerve—and its daily joy is to put back the bloom of perfect health in the faces of millions who do honest toil.

ON TESTIMONIALS.

Why are testimonials always given to the wrong people? They are generally bestowed upon the successful, who do not want them, and the unfortunate, to whom they would be a godsend, are usually left out in the cold. Is it because the majority of people have no common sense, or that they think it advantageous to themselves to be on the committee for testimonialising a celebrity and to derive a little reflected glory from the proceeding? If it is not this, why give a piece of plate to a man who does not want it, and refuse to bestow a guinea on one who really requires it? Why give a dinner to a man who is weary of such entertainments, and decline to help to furnish the hungry with a good square meal? The fact is, the whole thing is the wrong way up. Those who are successful should give dinners and testimonials to those who are not. It is often the custom, when a man is going to be married, for his friends to invite him to a farewell bachelor dinner. Now this is altogether futile. If marriage is the delightful institution that I am told it is, the prospective bridegroom ought to give the dinner. As he is about to bound into bliss he should give his bachelor friends some entertainment to console them for their unfortunate position.—J. Ashby Sterry.

IN AND INTO.

Much confusion characterizes the use of these two prepositions. Storm-month gives the simplest and best rule concerning them which we have come across. He says: "Into comes after a verb denoting motion, and in follows a verb denoting rest." This gives the idea comprehensively, but it must not be taken literally. Thus it is entirely proper to say "He fell in the street." The person referred to may have been walking or standing still when he fell. He was, however, already in the street, and therefore when he fell he did not move into it. If, however, he was in a building or other structure facing the street and he fell, landing in the street, it would then be proper to say "He fell into the street."

It is frequently an adverb, and in such cases it should be used after a verb denoting motion. For example it is correct to say "He came in" of one who had been asked to enter a house. But if a proposition were to be used in this connection the phrase would be "He came into the house."

Those who will commit to memory the rule quoted will soon be sure of their ground when they have occasion to use in or into.

HEARTS "ON STRIKE"

The Heart—that great motor of the human anatomy—never falters in the performance of its lawful function, till through overwork, disease lays hold on it—then it "goes on strike,"—and rightly so.

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is the greatest of agents that medical science has discovered as a heart-helper. No phase of Heart Disease it will not "spy out" and relieve and cure almost like magic. What are your symptoms? Suffocating, fluttering, palpitation, acute pains, thumping, nervousness, restlessness. Try this great treatment—it never fails.

Three hundred persons in London earn a living—and several of them are growing rich—by providing meals for the cats of the metropolis, which they deliver regularly once, twice and thrice a day, as may suit the owners of the pets.

"THE PAIN WAS KILLING"

Rheumatism revels in the writhings of its victims until shorn of its pangs by South American Rheumatic Cure. It relieves in six hours and cures in one to three days.

Mrs. Geo. Smith, of 62 Channon St., Point St. Charles, suffered terribly from Rheumatism in her joints. The pain was killing. Doctors' medicines temporarily deadened the pain, but effected no permanent relief. She began taking South American Rheumatic Cure and when she had used four bottles was absolutely cured.

Christian Endeavor Civic Clubs.

The Christian Endeavor Societies are now making a noteworthy effort for good citizenship. They have established in each community where they are represented a congress of civic clubs. This movement has already interested many young men in the problem of municipal government, and should be a real educative force for the future among the millions of young people in the Endeavor Societies. It can safely be asserted that the problem of the city is now the greatest of all American political problems. Christian citizenship is a religious duty. This is nothing new to the members of the Christian Endeavor Society; but the question among them now is, "How can we qualify ourselves for better citizenship?" They are sacredly bound to be intelligent upon questions connected with the well being of the cities where they reside. The civic clubs will study questions as to the best organization of city governments, as to the care of criminals and paupers, arbitration between capital and labor, tenement house and liquor laws, public baths, parks, schools and streets.—New York Outlook.
