The Carleton Sentinel.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1902.

Published by THE CARLETON SENTINEL PUBLISHING CO., at their Office, in VANWART'S BRICK BUILDING, King Street, Woodstock, upstairs.

Hon. J. B. Snowball was sworn in Lieutenant Governor of the Province in the Assembly chamber, Fredericton on Wednesday.

PREMIER TWEEDIE has received and accepted an invitation to be present and represent New Brunswick at the coronation ceremonies of King Edward.

THE Conservative portion of the Town Council, on Monday evening of this week, removed Mr. James H. Harvey from his position as Town Marshal, without any excuse whatever being offered, so far as we have heard, excepting that he votes Liberal at Dominion elections. This, of course, is sufficient excuse in the eyes of the majority of our present Town Council to justify any action or conduct on their part and we presume they are thoroughly satisfied with the course they have pursued, whether the electors of the town are of not. Mr. Harvey was the last Liberal officeholder in the town, with the exception of Mr. Colpitts, and they would have removed him, no doubt, could they have secured the two-third vote which the law requires. As it is, they have cut his salary down to $100 in order to try to freeze him out and give the Conservative liquor dealers a chance to have free run again. The SENTINEL is sorry to be compelled to make these comments, but we think the situation sufficiently grave to demand them and unless we very much misjudge the spirit of the Liberal party in the town of Woodstock, we feel that this will be resented when the proper time comes. If the Conservatives of this town and county wish to inaugurate the policy of "to the victor belongs the spoils," then we feel that the Liberals are in a position to meet them at their own game, although it is, in our mind, pretty small business when it is carried to the extent which it has been during the past week. We hope, however, that, in the end, our Tory friends will be satisfied with their workmanship.

DEATH OF CHAS. NUGENT.

A well known and highly respected citizen, Charles Nugent, passed away at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Vincent Kelly, Thursday of last week, aged 79 years. He was for many years an enterprising farmer, in the suburbs of the town, but a few years ago he removed here. Two years ago he had an attack of paralysis. For two months he has been dangerously ill. He leaves two sons, Patrick and Charles of Denver, Col.; three daughters, Mrs. Ernest Jordan of Berlin Falls, N. H., Mrs. James Gallagher and Mrs. Vincent Kelly of this town.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, and the interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery. The requiem prayers were offered, by Rev. Wm. F. Chapman, at St. Gertrude's Church. The following gentlemen carried the pall: John Connor, J. C. Milmore, K. Brophy and D. Sullivan.

A BARK SHED BURNED.

What might have proved a disastrous fire occurred Wednesday morning at 1.30. Flames were discovered bursting out of the bark shed of Dickinson's tannery. This shed is connected with the main building and the bark used at the tannery is ground there; it contained a small quantity of bark. One of the hydrants proved to be frozen, and a short time elapsed before water could be turned on the building. Both houses companies were present and they confined the fire to where it started, but that building was destroyed; it is insured. One of the firemen, Robert Welch, was on a ladder resting on the side of the building and, when the roof fell, he was precipitated among the ruins, but he succeeded in escaping with but little injury.

A BIG BLOW. FIRE.

On Sunday night last this section of country was visited by one of the heaviest wind storms, or rather blizzards, ever experienced in its history. The storm was something perfectly terrific, the wind reaching at times, so it is said, a velocity of 84 miles an hour. Many of our townspeople were afraid to go to bed; fires were almost extinguished in furnaces and hall stoves, lights were kept burning all night, and a general state of uneasiness prevailed, especially among the ladies. While in town not much damage was done, in the country districts, as will be seen by our correspondence, many disasters resulted. The wind was accompanied by snow which was tossed about in every direction, leaving many places utterly bare of the beautiful, while in other places it was piled up to a height of six feet or more. In some sections they have had to tunnel a roadway through the drifts, and shovel out places here and there to enable teams to pass each other.

During the height of the storm, shortly before 10 o'clock, when the wind was blowing with a velocity anywhere between 50 and 75 miles an hour, Hose Co. No. 1 was called out to combat with a fire which developed on Connell street, in the residence owned and occupied by Robert B. Welch. For a time it was a desperate struggle between the firemen and water on one side, and the tempest and flames on the other. But invincible pluck and good management prevailed, and against such strong odds, and under such unfavorable circumstances the fire heroes subdued the flames, preventing the destruction of the neighboring buildings. No 2 Hose Company came up from the lower corner in the blinding storm to render assistance. A part of the furniture was saved, but in a greatly demoralized condition. Building insured for $800; furniture, $400.

The firemen greatly appreciated the warm coffee and refreshments furnished them by Mrs. Porter after the fire had been got under control.

It is a Touching Story.

JOTTINGS.

Miss Denison, daughter of the United States Consul here, while coming from the Presbyterian church on the evening of Thursday of last week, slipped on the icy street and falling struck her head on a stone. She was picked up unconscious and carried to her home where Dr. Rankine rendered the needed aid. The result has not proved as serious as at first feared, and Miss Denison is now able to be around the house.

In the debate in the A. O. H. series the decision was given this week in favor of the affirmative of the question: Resolved that it was good diplomacy on the part of President Roosevelt to invite Booker Washington, a colored divine, to dinner. The question now on is: Resolved that the city of St. John is justified in accepting the gift of a free public library from Andrew Carnegie? Affirmative leader, James S. McManus; negative leader, R. F. Waddleton.

During the heavy wind of Sunday night much damage was done by the blowing down of barns and injury to other property. Our correspondents mention some of the disasters.—Sheriff Hayward informs us that at Hartland and between there and Woodstock, he saw five barns that were blown down, and an intelligent resident of the County gave it as his opinion that it would be found that at least one hundred buildings in the County had been more or less damaged by the storm.

Tim Fields and his assistant artists are greatly improving the appearance of the Post Office, by a fresh tinting of the walls, and ceilings, and the painting of the wood work.
