the Matter of the state of Albert L. Stickney.

L. Stickney, of the Parish of Peel, in the County of Carleton and Province of New Brunswick, Merchant, having on the ninth day of January, A. D. 1902, in pursuance of the provisions of 28 Victoria, Chapter 6, and amending acts, made a general assignment to me for the benefit of his creditors, I do hereby call a meeting of the creditors of the said Albert L. Stickney, to be held at the office of Stephen B. Appleby, in the Town of Woodstock, in the County of Carleton, on Thursday the twenty-third day of January, 1902, at two o'clock in the afternoon for the appointment of Inspectors and the giving of directions with reference to the disposal of his estate.

All creditors are required to file their claims, duly proven, with the Assignee within three months of the date of this notice, unless further time be allowed by a Judge of the Supreme or County Court, and all claims not filed within the time limited, or such further time, if any, as may be allowed by such Judge, shall be wholly barred of any right to share in the proceeds of the Estate, and the Assignee shall be at liberty to distribute the proceeds of the Estate as if any claim not filed as aforesaid did not exist, but without prejudice to the liability of the debtor thereon.

Dated at Woodstock, in the County of Carleton, the 9th day of January, A. D. 1902.
W. W. A. B. D.
2nd-2 Sheriff of the County of Carleton.

ARE YOU IN DOUBT

What to give your friends for a XMAS PRESENT? Then let me suggest that you give them a PHOTOGRAPH OF YOURSELF.

There is nothing under the sun that one appreciates more than a Photograph of one's friend.

We are now showing some of the very latest styles. We have never been in a position to give better satisfaction than at present.

If you are interested, we would ask you to call at the Studio on Main Street and examine our latest work.

Soliciting a liberal share of your patronage. Respectfully yours,

Coughing

"I was given up to die with quick consumption. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I improved at once, and am now in perfect health."—Chas. E. Hartman, Gibbstown, N. Y.

It's too risky, playing with your cough. The first thing you know it will be down deep in your lungs and the play will be over. Begin early with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop the cough.

Three sizes: 2c, enough for an ordinary cold; 5c, just right for bronchitis, hoarseness, hard cold, etc.; 25c, most economical for chronic cases and to keep on hand. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

JOTTINGS.

The town schools re-opened on Monday.

Cholera is raging in the Java Islands. During November, 7,000 persons died.

For an extra nice article of Porto Rico Molasses, or anything in the line of Staple Groceries, fresh and pure, try Noble & Trafton.

A. D. Thomas, Esq., Grand Master of the Orange Association will visit Woodstock officially, Jan. 15, 1902, at 8 p. m. All members invited.

New Raisins, Currants, Citron, Lemon and Orange Peel, Essences, Nuts, Spices, and everything else useful for Xmas or any other time. A specially fine line of Table Raisins, Fruits and Confectionery.

The union prayer services held during the week, in which the pastors of the Baptist, Free Baptist, Methodist and Advent churches joined, have been largely attended and of a highly interesting character. To-night the prayer service is in the Methodist church.

Shaw & Dibblee, Hartland, are showing a nice assortment of Lamps, Carpet Sweepers, Silver Goods, Fancy Dishes, Carvers, Skates, Hand-saws and other goods suitable for Christmas Presents. They respectfully solicit a share of your trade. They want some Turkeys.

Outside papers affirm that some unpleasantness, with reference to business, has arisen between F. H. Hale and his partner, Geo. A. Murdoch. It was said that Mr. Hale had begun a suit for winding up the partnership. Late reports state that a settlement of the difference between the partners has been so mutually agreed upon as to render law proceedings unnecessary.

John Kennedy, a well known and highly respected farmer of Richmond Corner, died at his home on Tuesday night. He had been in declining health for some time, but confined to the house only since Christmas last. When death came it was sudden, and a great shock to his family. He was a member of the Orange Society and was buried by the members of the local L. O. L. on Thursday.

The present season has no comparison in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. It has been pleasant, yet many people are dissatisfied. Lumbermen want more snow, farmers are fretting about so much ice on the grass ground, and its effect on the next years crop. Humanity seems to be afflicted with a chronic desire to kick.

Parties are the order of the day now. Hardly an evening passes but one is held in some of the houses of the community.

Rev. L. A. Fenwick preached in the F. B. Church last evening. It is said that the reverend gentleman is going to give a monthly week-night service. It will be duly appreciated.

The Sabbath School is vigorous this winter, and the day school is again under charge of Mr. E. D. Jewett.

Miss Annie Tweeddale started yesterday for Fredericton, where she is attending the Business College.
