The Carleton Sentinel.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1902.

Published by THE CARLETON SENTINEL PUBLISHING CO., at their Office, in VANWART'S BRICK BUILDING, King Street, Woodstock, upstairs.

CORRECTION—The writer of "Appeal to farmers" wishes to promptly correct his statement in your last issue referring to sixteen cents for butter fat in June should have been seventeen. I wish to make no false statements.

We have on hand a reply of the Carleton Creamery Co., to the "Appeal to Farmers", in our last issue. From its length and the late hour of its receipt, we are reluctantly compelled to hold it over till next week.

WILL FIRE THE SALUTE.

On Wednesday afternoon, Major Good with fifteen officers and men of the Woodstock Field Battery went to Fredericton, by the Gibson train, to fire the salute on the opening of the Legislature on Thursday; they will return home on Friday. Major Good took neither horses nor guns with him. The men had several special drills in the roller rink before leaving. This is the second time that artillery has been used in firing the salute. Last year the Newcastle Field Battery was chosen for the honor, and, this year the district officer in command, Col. Dunbar, ordered the Woodstock Field Battery to attend. The following members of the Battery were selected: Major Good, Lieut. Fields, Sergts. William Drysdale, Thomas McCafferty, Homer Kimball, Corps. Charles Britton, Henry Derrah, M. Ryan, Gunners Robert Hughes, Henry York, John Ketch, George Searle, Guy Bagley, Robert Lindsay, Arthur Glew.

A Popular Young Man's Death.

Norris Cadman, aged 33 years and unmarried, died in Quebec Tuesday afternoon. The deceased was born at Upper Woodstock and was the eldest son of the late James Cadman. He was a civil engineer by profession and had many friends in this town, where he visited quite often since he made his home in Quebec. He leaves a sister Mrs. T. C. L. Ketchum, and a brother Fred Cadman, both of this town. Mr. Ketchum went to Quebec, on receipt of the sad news, on Tuesday, and will accompany the remains to Woodstock, which will reach here to-day, (Friday.) The funeral will take place from St. Luke's Church at 2.30 p. m.; interment will be made in the Episcopal cemetery.

Chapman Festival Concert.

Rev. Mr. Melville, Houlton, was in town Tuesday evening last, and drilled the local chorus. He thinks the music is coming along all right, and with a little more practice the chorus will be ready for the concert. Arrangements are being made for special rates on the C. P. R. from all nearby towns, so that a large crowd may be looked for. This will certainly be the biggest musical event of the season and everybody should take advantage of this opportunity of hearing the professional musicians which Prof. Chapman will bring with him.

Supper and Presentation.

The young friends of Herb Smith, to the number of 50, gathered at Monahan new restaurant, Wednesday night, to do honor to that gentleman, who leaves for Boston to make his future home, on Monday. N. Foster Thorne make a capable presiding officer and toast master. After justice had been done to the many good things provided by the genial host, a round of speeches was made, in response to the usual toasts, and two solos were rendered by Harry Dunbar. The chairman made the presentation speech, accompanied by a handsome traveling case, and read a flattering address. A list of toasts and happy responses were given.

After the toast list had been exhausted a vote of thanks was given to N. F. Thorne for the capable way in which he had presided over the gathering and the meeting dispersed, all present wishing the guest the best of luck in his future home.

Robert Donovan, for two years foreman of the Press office, will sever his connection with that paper Saturday of this week to assume a position as foreman of one of the departments in the Sussex Record office. He was a valued member of the Woodstock Cornet Band and that body tendered him a complimentary supper, at Troy's restaurant, on Monday evening, but the meeting had to adjourn till Thursday evening of this week, to allow the restaurant to be used for a supper for the firemen.

About 8 or 10 inches of snow fell Wednesday night.

Centreville Weddings.

GREEN-RAY.

On Wednesday, Feb. 26th, Mr. Geo. Green of Summerfield, and Mrs. Nellie Ray of Lakeville, were united in marriage. The immediate friends of the respective parties met at Perkins' Hotel, Centreville, on the morning of that day, where the ceremony was performed. Rev. E. W. Simonson, rector of Wilnot and Wicklow, officiated. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her esteemed friend, Mr. Merrill Tracy. She wore a pretty suit of bluish-grey Henrietta. After the ceremony the party sat down to a beautifully prepared dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside in Summerfield.

PEPPERS-MERRITT.

The event of the past few weeks was the marriage on Wednesday 26th inst., of our genial young physician, H. W. Peppers, to Miss Lydia Merritt. The ceremony was performed at Lower Simonds at the home of William Mills the uncle of the bride's mother. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to their home in Centreville where a reception awaited them on the part of over a hundred of their friends. Presentations were made and good wishes extended which if half realized, insure to the young couple an exceedingly happy and prosperous life. Centreville was the home of the bride for a number of years and the doctor has worked up an extensive and lucrative practice after a few years residence. Both parties are very popular with old and young.

JOTTINGS.

New Smoked Herrings, best quality, only 8c. per box, or two for 15c. at Carr's, Hartland.

The election in King's county, last week, resulted in a victory for the local government.

Evangelist Chas. A. Lyons preached a fine sermon, in the Methodist church, Sunday evening.

How delicious! That light colored, finely flavored molasses at Noble & Traftons, where everything in the grocery line pure and fresh, may be found. Call and see them and inspect the in goods.

On Tuesday the news reached here of the death of Mrs. Todd, wife of Rev. F. S. Todd, Brunswick, Me., which took place at her home, after a lengthened illness, on Monday night. The remains are expected here as we go to press, Thursday, for interment. Mr. Todd will be the recipient of much sympathy.

The new jail was delivered over to the County officials on Saturday; the building is a thoroughly satisfactory one. The electric lights were turned on Tuesday evening and gave the jail a fine appearance. Sheriff Hayward will take possession of the residence portion early next week. The SENTINEL welcomes, in advance, our worthy sheriff and family to the citizenship of the town.

"Messrs A. F. Randolph & Sons have a large and well assorted stock of Timothy and Clover Seeds for sale at their Woodstock warehouse. They will be pleased to show same, and quote prices to wholesale buyers."

All those interested in the matter are hereby informed that the Annual S. S. Convention of the parish of Woodstock will be held in the Methodist church at Lower Woodstock on Monday afternoon and evening the 17th inst. As this is the convention at which the parish officers are elected and a special programme is being prepared it is hoped that both sessions of the convention will be well attended.

A good place to buy is at C. R. Watson's music store. Fine pianos and organs, prices right. The Williams and Raymond sewing machines from $30.00 to $38.00 up-wards. Pianos from $225.00 up-wards. Organs from $40.00 to $130.00. The finest lot of violins ever on sale here.—3m-50.

If the old adage be true, then look out for leonine weather the last of this month. So far March has been decidedly spring like, the snow has almost entirely disappeared, runners have given place to wheels, the robins are carolling in the trees, and altogether the appearance is rather that of April weather than of March.

The early break-up will prove damaging to lumbermen as well as farmers, who have much hauling yet to do. And, too, take the winter throughout, the indications are that next summer's grass crop will be greatly injured.

Ladies Costumes, or Tailor Made Suits, in a full variety of colors, sizes and prices, due to arrive at C. M. Sherwood's. Also separate Skirts, in great variety. Blouse Waists in Silks, Mercerized Cotton, etc., etc. He is stocking better goods in these lines than heretofore, as well as the ordinary. His range of general Dry Goods will be the best and largest he ever had. His carload of Furniture of over 14,000 lbs., has arrived from Western Ontario, and is opening up most beautifully.

Coarse Salt, clean and dry, 75c. per sack at Carr's, Hartland.

L. A. Vanwart offers for sale his store and dwelling on Main Street.

Rev. F. Allison Currier, pastor of the Free Baptist Church, will administer the ordinance of Baptism to eight or more candidates at the close of the Sunday evening service.

A concert will be held in the school house at Rosedale, on Monday evening, March 10th, the proceeds of which go towards getting a flag for the school building. Admission 15c.

A full line of Fresh Groceries at R. E. Holyoke's; some extra good values in Teas and Coffee. A nice line of G. B. Chocolates always on hand. Fresh Cream received daily.

Judson Shea, while working in the Grafton mill, the other day, was struck by a chain, a heavy blow in the forehead. He was brought over to Dr. Sprague, who attended to the wound.

The quarterly meeting of the Primitive Baptists will be held with the church at Little Marwick Caribou, Me., on the last Saturday in March, the 29th, inst. By order of committee. D. E. Brooks.

Shaw & Dibblee, Hartland, are selling Horse Blankets at cost. They keep on hand, a good assortment of up-to-date Cook Stoves, and solicit the inspection and trade of all careful buyers.

At St. Gertrude's church, last Sunday, Rev. Father Chapman made a strong plea for the support of the proposed hospital, and announced that, on next Sunday a collection would be taken up for that worthy object.

All are invited to attend the special meetings to be held in the Salvation Army barracks this Saturday and Sunday March 8th, and 9th. All these services will (D. V.) be led by Ensign Williams of Fredericton. Subject—Saturday night, will be a message without a message bearer. Bring your friends with you.

The Aberdeen hotel is undergoing a general remodelling. Tim Fields and two assistants doing the work. The office is nearly completed, the prevailing colour being green. The dining room will be finished with oak, and the general proprietors, Wilbur & Stephenson, will be better able to cater to their large number of patrons.

The Globe:—The will of the late Wm. Gibson, of Benton, was proved in York Probate Court to-day, and letters testamentary were granted to his sons, John and Wallace Gibson. The personal estate was sworn at $35,000 and real at $350. It is to be divided equally among the testator's eight children. J. R. Murphy's of Woodstock, is proctor.

As a result of the special services now being held in the Albert street Baptist Church, three candidates were baptized by the pastor, Rev. Z. L. Fash, on Sunday evening. There will be more baptisms in the same church on Sunday evening next.

About 7.30 Monday evening fire was discovered in a portion of the Woolen Mills, which, had it got fairly under way, would have had disastrous consequences. As it was the prompt arrival of the firemen and their skilful and strenuous exertions the flames were extinguished with comparatively little damage. The cause of the fire is a mystery. The loss is covered by insurance. The manager, Mr. Myles, in order to show his appreciation of the successful efforts of the firemen, entertained the members at an oyster supper at Troy's restaurant about 10 p. m. the same evening.

The Evangelistic Services in the Methodist church are growing in interest, the Rev. Chas. A. Lyons will preach on Sunday next, and the services will be continued each evening of the week except Saturday. There will be meetings in the afternoon, of some days, of which notice will be given. All are welcome. There are no tests put to the people, but those who desire are asked to retire to the inquiry room, or hand their names, or call on their pastors and make known their purposes to amend their lives according to the word of God.

What is more attractive to the eye upon entering a house, than a handsome stair. The Woodstock Woodworking Co. is introducing something strictly new in this line for 1902. They employ the best turner in the Province and their work is guaranteed, and it will pay you to give them a call before purchasing elsewhere. Corner Green and Elm Streets, near Small & Fisher's Foundry.

A Debating Society, under promising conditions, was organized in the rooms of the Woodstock Business College, on Thursday evening of last week. A. D. Holyoke was called to the chair and A. W. Hay appointed secretary. After discussing the question it was resolved to organize a debating society, and the following officers were duly elected: A. D. Holyoke, president; A. W. Young, vice-president; Frank Fisher, sec.-treasurer. Messrs. Holyoke, Thorne, Appleby, Fisher and Young, executive committee. It was determined to have a debate on the following Thursday evening. A well conducted debating society is a valuable acquisition to any community, and it is to be hoped that such encouragement will be given the present society as shall insure its successful continuance.

March, 4th, 1902.

On Friday evening of last week the friends of Rev. H. C. Archer gave him an agreeable surprise in the way of a donation party. He was presented with twenty-two dollars in cash, seven dollars in groceries and a large quantity of firewood. A sumptuous lunch was provided by the ladies.

G. P. Olts returned from Newcastle last week, Mrs. Olts will arrive today.

Miss Lizzie Dickinson went to Houlton on Friday.

E. C. Olts has purchased the residence of his brother, G. P. Olts. "Bide" intends opening a meat market.

Samples of the Whartman fence are on exhibition on Main Street, opposite the hotel. It would be a good plan to enclose a part of the sidewalk.

Real estate here is on the boom. Several parties are trying to buy the Farnham property.

W. E. Dickinson is receiving congratulations—it is a girl.

Ashland.

March 3rd, 1902.

This wonderful bit of warm weather has made the ladies begin to talk house cleaning. The men have out their carriages and, altogether, it seems more like the first of May than the first of March.

We are glad to have Miss Emma McAuley's genial face amongst us again. She has been absent from us for a few weeks, visiting friends at Windsor.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Israel Seeley is in very poor health, we hope she will soon recover.

Mr. Harden Smith of Menominee Mich., is visiting relatives here and in adjoining communities.

Mr. McCollom, who is in the lumbering business, has lost a couple of his men on account of sickness.

Miss Mamie Brown is stopping with Mrs. Guy McCollom Jr., and going to school.

The day school is well attended and the children seem to be taking an interest in their studies.

We are glad to see Harry Brown out again after his recent illness.
