News From The Country.

Newburg.

Harvesting is about over and the boys are preparing for the "bush." Miss Rosella McGuire, Bangor, Me spent last week at her home here, and will stay a few days with her sister, Mrs. P. R. Donovan, Canterbury, before returning to Bangor.

The basket social at Mr. George Gallagher's held by the Catholic congregation of this place was well attended and financially successful; also the one at Mr. Wm. Martin's of the Union church congregation.

The Exhibition in Woodstock this year was one of the "finest," attracting large crowds from every section of the country; among the visitors who came from Johnville were Messrs. Tom and Frank McElroy and Chas. McGinley and Miss Emma McElroy, also Miss Katie Owens, Lynn, Mass., who has been on an extended visit in Johnville during the past season. After viewing the "exhibits" and making the satisfied stay in town, the party together with Mr. John McGuire, Sr., Miss Rosella McGuire and Thos. McGuire, Jr., on Thursday evening, drove out through our vicinity spending the night at the hospitable and pleasant home of Mr. John Mc-Guire; in the early morning they drove on a little farther, calling at the homes of Messrs. Thos. McGuire, Frank L. Ryan, and Hugh Johnston, they all looked cheerful and happy and expressed themselves pleased while it was yet morning they re- wards church repairs. turned to Woodstock and thence to Miss Georgia McKinney is visiting

The marriage took place on Wednesday 24th inst. in Woodstock, of Mrs. Barbara McCarron and Mr. James Keegan, both of this place.

Miss Rossella McGuire entertained a number of her young friends on Friday evening 26th, an enjoyable ter stew was delicious.

The sad death of Miss Jennie Mills occurred on Sunday afternoon at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Deakin. Deceased was the eldest daughter of the late Albion Mills; for a number of years she has been in Lowell, Mass but came home about a year ago, in failing health from lung trouble. The best medical help available was employed, and her family were quite hopeful of her recovery up to a week ago. She is survived by four brothers, Leslie, Harry, Archie and Norman Mills, and two sisters, Mrs Arthur Deakin and Miss Hatty Mills, and a large number of relatives and friends. The burial will take place this afternoon in the family lot in Benton Cemetery, Rev Mr. Barton officating.

On Thursday, 25th inst at the residence of the bride's parents, the marriage of Frederic Blair and Miss Louise Deakin was solemnized by Rev J E Flewelling in the presence of a number of relatives and a few intimate friends. They took the evening express enroute to St Mary's, where they will visit Mr Blair's parents, thence to St. John and Boston. Mr. Blair is very popular here as CP Station agent, and on their return will reside here. The bride received many very fine gifts, one being a handsome chair presented by the members of the Episcopal church, as she holds the position of organist for them.
