THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION

Education in Temperance principles is making progress. It is not advancing as rapidly as we should like, but it is advancing, and for this we are thankful. Persons have been monkeying with the question for mere partizan ends; but this will not pay. Of course fiery devotees of parties will not share anything that may be supposed to serve their turn. Our hope is that the fearless, con-It took 16 years to build the first sistent, out-and-out prohibitionist, 94,428; West Indian conference, 46,will not lower his flag, and will continue to urge his demands on all suitable occasions until the cause won.
