A VERY IMPORTANT MATTER.

A MENACE TO THE LIVE STOCK TRADE.

The attention of live stock exporters, breeders and the press, is called to the case of H. F. Page, of Mission City, B. C., who was compelled to pay $1000 duty on ten Percheron horses exported to the United States through the port of Sumas, Washington, in October 1901. There horses were all accompanied by the proper registration papers of the American Percheron Horse Breeders Association, as required by the laws of the U. S. The contention of Collector Huestis was that, inasmuch as the animals were imported to be offered for sale they were subject to the duty. Mr. Page appealed the case, and the testimony was heard by Judge DeVries of the Board of Appraisers, whose headquarters are in New York. This board have the case under consideration, and will render their decision some time in August.

The action of Collector Huestis has been rather severely criticised by "The Ranch," a well known agricultural paper of Seattle, Wash., to which journal he contributed the following defence of his action: "H. F. Page, the importer you mention is an alien stock breeder residing in British Columbia. On October 18th, 1901, he imported at Sumas four stallions and six mares, making entry for same as pure bred stock, and claiming that they were entitled to free entry under the provision of article No. 475 of the existing tariff, which provides that any animals pure bred of a recognized breed, duly registered and certified as required by the regulations of the Hon. Secretary of the Treasury, shall be admitted free when imported specially for breeding purposes. Pedigree certificates were presented with the entry, but as the animals were evidently imported for sale, the importer was required to deposit the amount of duty that would accrue in case the animals were found not to be entitled to free entry, and was given an opportunity to produce satisfactory evidence that was lacking on entry. Neither the deputy collector at Sumas nor this office questioned the genuineness of the registration papers as introduced in your editorial, and Mr. Page well knows that was not the reason he was required to deposit the duty. (Note:—Mr. Page says "He never was so informed"). It was purely a question of evidence on the point of the purpose for which the animals were imported. As you are aware, Percherons are valuable for draft horses, and when imported for that purpose are subject to duty, and a proper enforcement of the tariff, as well as regard for the protection of American stock raisers alike demand a full investigation of the facts."

It therefore appears that the whole matter depends on the official interpretation of the clause, "when imported for breeding purposes." According to Judge DeVries the question has never before been raised, although it is a well known fact that large numbers of pure bred cattle have been sent to the United States by Canadian breeders for sale at public auction and always as far as I have known, free of duty. If the contention of collector Huestis is sustained, the decision will generally be regarded as a decided injustice, and contrary to the spirit of the law. It will cause a complete cessation of the trade in pure bred stock between this country and the United States; in fact it has already had that result, as far as the trade between B. C. and Washington Territory is concerned. This is a matter of vital importance, not only to the Canadian breeders who have stock for sale, but to the Americans who have need of such stock for the improvement of their studs, herds and flocks. Immediate action should be taken by our Live Stock Associations, and a strong protest entered against such unfair ruling. As the "Ranch" very pertinently says "It is well known that many firms make a business of importing from Canada and from the Old World pure bred stock of all kinds; and that such stock is permitted to pass in free, provided it is accompanied by the proper certificates of registration. The Government does not follow such stock after it leaves the custom office, and the importer is free to dispose of this stock to any one he likes, and at whatever price he can get. If Collector Huestis is upheld in this contention that pure bred stock must be imported for breeding purposes only, and cannot be sold or worked, it will paralyze the whole business of importing horses and injure the trade in other lines. We think that the various Breeders' Associations should act on this case, in order to bring properly before the board of appraisers the wide spread injury an adverse decision in the Page case would have on the whole breeding industry."

No wonder the feast of the slums in London is declared to have been a grand success. There were 90 miles of tables, half a million diners, 40,000 waiters, and the cost of the food was $150,000. 'Twas indeed a 'big feed.'

What Coronation Means.

Coronation means, literally, nothing other than the placing of a crown upon the head; but as we have come to understand the word, it implies very much more. The ceremony comprises the assumption, in solemn pomp, of sovereignty by a new monarch; the recognition of his right to rule by his subjects; his undertaking to sway the sceptre constitutionally; and the devout invocation of the Divine blessing upon the compact between King and people, as ratified by the performance of certain complex rites, all of them replete with interest, and many of them of antique religious origination. Holy Writ familiarises us with the manner in which the old Jewish sovereigns were crowned sacerdotally as well as anointed; and from the impressive custom thus derived Christian nations down to our day have carried on the solemnity with fluctuating magnificence and—one is glad to know—a reverent sincerity that has survived the vicissitudes of many successive centuries. Thus the coronation is at once a splendid spectacle, and an event of sacred significance.

HOSPITAL TREATMENT

Failed to Benefit Mrs. John Potter of Wellandport.

BUT DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS CURED HER, AND SHE IS NOW ENJOYING THE BEST OF HEALTH.

It is no uncommon occurrence for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to restore sufferers to health after doctors, and even the best of hospital treatment, have failed to benefit them. Among those who have been benefited in this way is Mrs. John Potter, a lady well known in Wellandport, Ont. Speaking about her illness to a reporter, Mrs. Potter said:—

"About three years ago I was greatly run down. My appetite was poor; I suffered from severe headaches and palpitation of the heart; I was very weak and had a constant feeling of weariness which no amount of sleep could overcome. At night I perspired freely and would wake up in the morning in a very enfeebled condition. To make matters worse my trouble became aggravated with those ailments so common to my sex. I was afflicted with ulcers, and so bad were they that although at different times I had treatment from five doctors they failed to cure me. I then went to the hospital in Hamilton, and although I received the best treatment that could be given there, I was not benefited. I returned home very much discouraged, and it was then that I decided that I would try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I got a supply and began taking them, and to my great gratification they soon began to help me, and under their continued use my appetite returned, the headaches and violent palpitation of the heart disappeared, my weight increased, and all the troubles that had made my life so miserable vanished. It will give me great pleasure if my experience will lead some other sufferer to try these pills, as I am sure they will be benefited."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are equally valuable to both men and women. They cure rheumatism, sciatica, kidney trouble, neuralgia, consumption, heart ailments, female weakness, and restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks. There are many imitations of this great medicine and the purchaser should always see that the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" is on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail postpaid at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50, by writing direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BRITAIN AND GERMANY.

As the war in South Africa has not ended in the way which would have best pleased the people of Germany it was expected that the Press there would sooner or later show some ill feeling towards Great Britain—the more especially as its former attacks on her army were proven to be false and uncalled for. To say the least of it, however, the German Press showed exceedingly bad taste and judgment when it seized upon King Edward's illness for that display. When the Press of all other nations was expressing sincere sympathy for him, his family and people, the comic journals of Germany caricatured and outrageously attacked the King, attributing to him personally the German dislike of British policy. This, however, is a common blunder on the part of the German Press. There certainly is no love lost between the Germans and British, but we doubt if these attacks of the German Press upon the British are more directed against the latter than the Kaiser. Though an indirect, it is a safe way of attacking and wounding him. The Press in Germany is not quite so free as it is in Britain, or in this country, and any open attack upon the Kaiser soon receives condign punishment; but it thinks it can with impunity attack his uncle, King Edward, and at same time make him (the Kaiser) feel just as keenly as if it was himself, if not more so. It is mean and contemptible conduct, but all who have had any dealings with them must have observed that the Germans are not burdened with over-fine feelings. Since the death of his grandmother, the good Queen Victoria, the Kaiser has been rather popular with the British, and has a strong desire to get on well with them. His own people do not like that, and we believe that often when their Press is ostensibly attacking the British it is really making a covert onslaught on the Kaiser. A recent article in the North German Gazette deprecating these attacks upon King Edward is believed to have been directly inspired by the Kaiser. It was a sensible and timely protest, but, as is well known, the Kaiser has no power to stop the Press from attacking the British Sovereign. There was also a timely article in The National Review recently with the same object, and pointing out that Britain had no cause to be in the slightest degree afraid of Germany. These attacks upon King Edward, however, help to make the papers sell, particularly among the lower classes, and so they are continued, despite the Kaiser.—S. J. Journal.

Colonial Premiers Banqueted.

A banquet in honor of the colonial premiers was given at the National Liberal Club on Wednesday evening. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Edmund Barton and Hon. Mr. Seddon were present. Sir Wilfrid, responding to the toast Our Guests, said no reform in the colonies had been so prolific of results as that of self-government. Touching the question of free trade within the Empire, Sir Wilfrid declared that policy impossible, local interests not being the same everywhere. It would be a great blessing if the Empire united on a commercial policy, yet he doubted the accomplishment of such a policy, the interests being too diversified. Mr. Barton, for Australia, declared that the time for parchment bonds politically uniting the Empire had not yet arrived. He was unable to see how such bonds could be made. He did not believe there could be any result from the conference. Mr. Seddon, New Zealand, did not agree with the Australian premier. He thought their kinsfolk in Britain should be helped. Preferential trade, Mr. Seddon believed, could be carefully discussed, and manufactures throughout the Empire might be favored.
