THE HOCKEY SERIES.

On Thursday evening of last week, the third match in the Senior hockey series, between the Algonquins and Mohawks, was keenly contested before a fair audience. The Algonquins won with a score of five to two. Mr. Ingraham of North Sydney, Cape Breton, who is on the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, played with the winners and was a prominent factor in gaining the victory. S. L. Hull and W. Walker were the goal judges; Hallam Drysdale and George E. Balmain time keepers; J. Diblee referee.

The team lined up as follows:—

ALGONQUINS.
Carr
Holyoke
Ingraham
Pickel Mercer Loane Saunders
Stevens Drysdale Connell Dalling
Nicholson
McLean
McKinney
MOHAWKS.

The Algonquins started off with a rush and scored four goals in the first fifteen minutes, and then the Mohawks came to and no more scoring was done till nearly half time when Stevens placed one to the credit of the Mohawks, and half time was called with score 4-1 in favor of the Algonquins.

In the next half the play was fast and furious and the Mohawks got one more from Connell's stick. Ingraham, who was playing a starry, clean game, then got possession of the puck and carried it down past cover and point, scoring goal number five for the Algonquins, and this ended the scoring. The game was fast but clean, Mercer being the only man put off and he got five minutes for tripping.

Carnival at the Roller Rink.

A very good attendance was in evidence at the first carnival of the season, at the Roller Rink, Tuesday evening. While there were not as many fancy costumes as have formerly been on the floor, the original and comical costumes were numerous. The prizes were given at 9 o'clock, and before unmasking, the costumes were photographed, amid a display of "red fire". The manager of the rink, J. K. Aughterton, was assiduous in his efforts to make the carnival a pleasant affair for all present. After 9 o'clock the public had an opportunity to enjoy a skate, and many availed themselves of the chance. The judges were Joseph Donovan, Harry Watt and Eldon Fisher. Following are the prize winners:

Best Original, gentleman, H. Derah, $5.00.
Best Original, lady, Kate McCann, $5.00.
Best Comical, gentleman, A. Rogers, gold chain.
Best Comical, lady, S. Dugan, gold bracelet.
Prettiest Costume, boy, Frank Currie, silver watch.
Prettiest Costume, girl, Pearl Gallagher, silver bracelet.

Bruce Vanwart, O. G.
Thomas Baker, I. G.
G. B. Manzer, R. S. V. G.
D. McL. Vince, L. S. V. G.

OBITUARY.

Jennie M. Redmond, beloved wife of John R. Redmond of Manchester, N. H. and daughter of the late James S. Dyer, Esq. of East Florenceville, N. B., peacefully passed away at her home in Manchester, N. H. Oct. 29th 1901. Besides her husband, John R. Redmond, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. I. N. Boyer of Bristol, N. B. and three sisters, Mrs. B. F. Taber of Lowell, Mass., Mrs. G. M. Ayers of Portsmouth, N. H., Mrs. H. E. Bisteen of Houlton, Me. and a large number of relatives and friends, who extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved husband and family in their sorrow.

We have laid her to rest 'mong the jewels of His.
Folded close in death's embrace;
We have pressed the last kiss, we have dropped the last tear,
On the dead and the beautiful face.
Let her rest, let her sleep, where the lonesome willows weep,
And the blossoms of sweet summer wave;
For we know there is one, who her ashes will keep,
And redeem her fair form from the grave.

Delayed Correspondence.

The correspondence published below in these three columns was intended for last week's issue, but through an unfortunate error, not the fault of this office however, did not arrive until Friday morning.—
ED. SENTINEL.

Hartland.

Rev. J. B. Daggett left on Wednesday for the Tobique on a short furlough. His pulpit is being supplied by Rev. J. T. Parsons.

The new local telephone system is in good working order and affording satisfaction to the patrons. Communication may be had with Woodstock and all joints throughout the county.

Mr. Wm. Long, of Winnipeg, who has been visiting Mrs. Dr. Estey, left for home on Monday afternoon. Mr. Long made many friends during his stay in town who will welcome him back at any time.

Special services are being conducted this week in the Baptist church by Rev. J. D. Wetmore.

The young ladies of the 'Y' gave a reception on Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. Geo. McLaughlin to the young gentlemen of the town. Mrs. Brewer of Woodstock assisted in the programme, at the close of which refreshments were served.

Rev. J. S. Gregg, B. A., of Andover occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church in exchange with Rev. H. C. Rice on Sunday evening.

A number of the friends of Mrs. A. Plummer assembled at her home on Monday evening and gave her a genuine surprise, it being the anniversary of her birthday. Supper was served about eleven o'clock. Mrs. Plummer was presented with a shawl as a slight token of regard.

Hartland enjoys two bridges at present. It is not a case however of "you pay your money and you take your choice." As a result Nature's bridge seems to be the favorite.

Mr. Fred. Long, of Keswick Ridge, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. S. Estey, returned home on Monday.

Miss Louise Baird, Woodstock, is visiting Mrs. S. S. Miller.

Rockland.

Jan. 22, 1902.

When you want to talk to those at a distance, go to the store of A. S. Estabrooks; the telephone instrument is placed in his office.

Mr. Phillips, of the house of Randolph & Sons, and Mr. Caldwell, representing Chestnut & Sons, both of Fredericton, visited our merchants last week.

Miss Nellie Estabrooks is teaching at Bloomfield.

Miss Helen Snow, of your city, is visiting friends in this locality.

Miss Emma Foster is at home on a visit; she is clerking in a store at Temperance Vale.

The Misses Beatrice and Fannie Nevins are visiting relatives and friends here.

Mount Pleasant folk, through their B. S. Circle, remembered their pastor, in a liberal and substantial manner a few days ago. Rev. J. D. Wetmore deserves all such acts of kindness.

The Liberals are well pleased with the result of late elections, while the Conservatives don't care a cent.

Sheriff Hayward spent last Sabbath here.

Frank Hayward is home from the woods for a day or two and reports his operations profitable.

Charles Swim, of our village, is at home, having finished his woods' engagement.

Dr. Curtis was in the village on Saturday evening last.

C. E. Hayward, new County Councillor, pleased with place at the board and reports some amusing incidents.

Note demise of Rev. Jos. Harvey; he had many friends here, among whom he at one time labored.

The sick in village are improving and in line of recovery.

That Coldstream bridge, so often referred to as dangerous, is no joke. A brave teamster, who is not frightened at trifles, says he would rather not risk his team on it. It had some supports under it which, with recent rise of water, were carried away. If not seen to, some damage may occur.

Mrs. Boyer, daughter of Samuel Nevins, is at her former home visiting parents. Mrs. B. lives at Florenceville this winter—during the summer at Cabino, Quebec, where her husband is connected with the Fraser Mill. ANON.

Round About Silverdale.
It is very quiet round about Silver-dale at this time. Our neighbours are at work with wood and logs; considerable hay and other produce has been taken to Hartland and Woodstock for shipment, during the good hauling.

The schools are all running full crews with the Misses Maude McAdam at Silverdale, and Annie J. Palmer at Rosedale, while Miss Bessie Britton, is again engaged with the school at Lower Wakefield or Riverdale. All three are very successful school "Marms" and are giving excellent service, as a more than average attendance indicates.

The little Endeavour Society is getting along nicely, enjoying a good local attendance in addition to occasional visitors from outside. From what I can learn, the promoters of this home institution are deserving of great credit for the commendable manner in which the weekly meetings are conducted. True there are those who condemn this local society on the ground that it is an excuse for the youngsters to meet and raise—well the wind or something or other. Some people are chronic kickers; "were kicking at their birth and have been kicking ever since." Now if these same old fogies would get around some fine Tuesday night and take their places in the evening's religious routine they would soon appreciate the endeavours of this little body and early become convinced that there is something more than devilry about, Amen!

A grand concert and social is right on, preparations are now being pushed as the date set (Jan. 29) makes it necessary to get right down to business. Come along and enjoy Silverdale, talent—culinary and dramatic.

Mrs. Adolphus Boyer met with a very peculiar accident one day recently. The lady had gone into the cellar for dinner potatoes and in picking them up her hand became painfully attached to a rat trap that had been placed among the "murrhies" by Mr. Boyer. Mrs. Boyer was not advised as to the whereabouts of the "infernal machine" and narrowly escaped losing a finger as a consequence.

The Primitive Baptist people dedicated their church here last Sunday. A fairly good attendance was had during the three services. Thorough repairs have been put on this building both inside and out and the work is very creditable indeed.

Frederick W. Shaw, an old and respected citizen is very sick at this time with dropsy of the heart. Mr. Shaw is one of the 'old timers' having lived his whole life in this community. His daughters Mrs. Duran of Massachusetts and Mrs. McCluskey, Woodstock are home with him at present.

The Melvin boys have purchased the Thomas Johnston property and will take possession in the spring, when Mr. Johnston will move his effects to Jacksonville where he owns a small property.

Present indications point to the formation of a literary club in this community. Some interested ones have already taken up the study of Homers "Iliad."

Miss Jennie Hamilton has returned to Presque Isle after spending a few weeks with her parents here.

Eloped! Well yes, I rather guess not. The "Great Unknown" is a shade shy of the mark There. Guess again my dears.

Oh yes, about that mammoth blade of Grass! Did the unknown wish us to infer that the Grass was just the least little bit green? Now that's too bad, and in mid-winter at that. Say, we opine that no more Grass will be found in Silverdale for many, many moons.

"KIT KITE."

Andover.

Jan. 22, 1902.

The week opens with the gathering of the councillors from the different parishes, and the reporters, Mr. Watts and Mr. Malaney of Woodstock; also the Victoria Co. News representative, Mr. Corell, of Grand Falls are all present. The County Councillors were all present and when called to order Mr. John Ryan of Arthurville was chosen warden; after a few remarks the usual work was taken up; a very healthy condition of the finances was shown by Sec-Treasurer Tibbitts, and places the balance on hand at $2,800.00. Victoria Co. is to be indeed congratulated on so healthy a state and remembering the very reverse of this existed only a few years ago.

H. L. Grant, of Woodstock, is at Hotel Perth; he is here in the interests of the Carriage Co.

A MacKenzie spent Sunday at the Court House.

Mr. W. Long was here last Friday,

the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Reid Bedell.

Thos. Bedell of the Postal service spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bedell.

Mrs. Lynch, St. John, is the guest of Mrs. G. T. Baird.

A very pleasant party was given in Beveridge's Hall last Friday evening by the Misses Scott, Peat, Baxter and Tibbitts. The hall was prettily decorated with bunting, painting, etc. Music was furnished by Wade's orchestra, and a pleasant evening was spent in dancing. A dainty lunch was served and all declared it a good time. Among those present were Miss Hopkins, Mr. H. Hopkins and Miss Sherman, Aroostook Jct.; Mr. and Mrs. A. Street, Perth; Mrs. G. T. Baird and son, Mr. and Mrs. Perley, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Waite, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Spike, Dr. and Mrs. Wiley, Sheriff Tibbitts and Mrs. MacKenzie, and the Misses Pearl and Mae Waite, Tibbitts, Perley, MacQuarrie and a great many other ladies and gentlemen whom your correspondent can not take the time to mention.

To-day is the end of the year of mourning for our late sovereign Queen Victoria.

River de Chute.

Jan. 22nd, 1902.

The river closed over here Monday night. People will be glad to get a bridge.

Fraser's mill, which had been undergoing repairs, began sawing Monday.

Miss Annie Baird of Bairdville, is clerking for D. B. Baird this week, while he is away on business.

Joseph Tweedie is home from the woods.

Miss Semple of Clearview spent Sunday at Mrs. John Graham's.

Mr. Albert Graham of Blaine spent Saturday and Sunday at his uncle's Mr. John Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Cheney and son of Lindsay, who have been visiting at Mr. James Graham's, "parents of Mrs. Cheney," returned home Tuesday.

Alice Phillips of Clearview has gone to Florenceville to attend school.

A most enjoyable party was given on Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John Graham for their son Herbert, who had returned home after an absence of some months. Excellent music was furnished by Messrs Benjie Bull and D. B. Baird, violin, and Charlie Gallupe of Tracy's Mills, accompanist. The young people amused themselves immensely with different games till about 11.30 when, after refreshments, all dispersed. It was one of the most pleasant parties of the season.

PATTIE & BENNIE.

Arthurville.

Jan. 20th, 1902.

For the second time this season the ice in the river has jammed in at this place. There was good crossing on the ice about the middle of December, but later a thaw swept out all the ice from Plaster Rock downward, and thus rid the country of their presence. On the part of England this war has been fought in the interest of peace and it has cost too much to be abandoned until a permanent peace is secured. In war, as in everything else, the work that is half done is not done at all. The abandonment of England's colonies in South Africa would mean the loss of British prestige all over the world.

Six P. E. Island boys, between thirteen and fourteen years of age, are in jail for various offences. It is the parents, not the boys, who should be in jail.

Mr. Carnegie is ready to give the city $50,000 for a library, provided the city will guarantee $5,000 a year for its maintenance.

For the first time in several weeks a woman was arrested in this city last Saturday night for drunkenness.

Rev. Mr. Seller, of this city, in a sermon last Sunday, said that the dance, the theatre and the opera, were nurseries of Satan and traps of sin.

The death of the widow of Rev. Edwin Gilpin, at Annapolis, recalls the name of her father, Judge Haliburton, author of "The Clockmaker," and father of Canadian humor, and when we think of him we feel that Windsor should not be without a Haliburton memorial. A big granite boulder, suitably inscribed, would be appropriate.

W. H. Fairall left the city for New York last Monday and the sale of his immense stock of dry goods at half cost continues under the superintendence of Harry Macdonald. Hundreds of mail orders are received and attended to daily.

Riley Brook.

Jan. 20th, 1902.

Mr. James McNair, Mr. T. Hilyard

of P. Rock, arrived here on the 14th, also Mr. P. Kelly, senior, Andover, and a little son of Mr. F. Tweeddale, Arthurville. After a hasty tea at the Harmony, they continued their journey to Mr. Miller's at Nictau, en route for Kelly's and McDonald's camps.

Mr. S. E. Crawford of St. John, reached here on the 14th, his business, showing samples of wall paper and window shades, and taking orders for the same.

Mr. J. Burns, lumber operator of Bathurst, here today.

Rev. Mr. Daggett arrived here the 17th, with the intention of visiting Hale's and McCollum's lumber camps. As the operators are home for a few days, Rev. Daggett will rest at Mr. H. G. Howard's till their return.

Peddlers are taking advantage of good roads and moonlight nights; three in this hamlet last week.

The last of our young men left yesterday for the woods; some one will be lonely now, driving around.

Capt. Perkins and Chas. Love from Depot Camp, called at the Harmony yesterday.

Mrs. J. T. Everett, of Dow Flat, and Mrs. W. E. Everett, of B. L. B., arrived here on Thursday; intend remaining a few days visiting friends and relatives.

Salmon for dinner at the Harmony today.

Some folks here have commenced housecleaning early this year. B. Doohan means to be ahead this time.

New Mash, by the way some young fellow from D. Flat is driving one of our young ladies around.

ONE INTERESTED.

ST. JOHN LETTER.

There is a possibility that the mystery surrounding the destruction of the battleship Maine, in Havana harbor, may be soon cleared up. Capt. Manuel Braza, at one time in the Spanish army in Cuba and now employed on a ranch in Dakota, recently while in his cups, hinted that he could reveal the secret of the blowing up of the ship. Questioned closely he confessed that having had a difficulty with General Weyler, he obtained access to the torpedo station in Havana and touched the button by which the explosive was discharged which sent the ship to the bottom. He said he did this in order that war might become inevitable and Weyler's downfall certain. If this is true the Spanish government is exonerated from blame in the matter and Capt. Braza brands himself as guilty of one of the greatest atrocities of modern times. And it shows that the Spaniards, as a people, are more to be respected than the Boers, who with a Bible in one hand and a Mauser in the other, make a practice of murdering our wounded soldiers in obedience to the orders of their superiors, or of their own volition. There is no way to deal with these people, who for more than a year have been acting as assassins instead of soldiers, but to deport them as fast as captured, and thus rid the country of their presence. On the part of England this war has been fought in the interest of peace and it has cost too much to be abandoned until a permanent peace is secured. In war, as in everything else, the work that is half done is not done at all. The abandonment of England's colonies in South Africa would mean the loss of British prestige all over the world.

In the prices of groceries and provisions there have been few fluctuations during the last two weeks: sugars have declined 10 cents per cwt, and beans 10 cents per bushel, and are quoted as follows:—

Standard Gran. Sugar $3 95 per cwt
Austrian " " 3 85 do
Bright yellow " 3 65 do
No 1 yellow " 3 35 do
Beans 1 65 per bus.

George S. deForest & Sons say that the trade of the year has been exceptionally large, and that collections have been exceptionally good. They anticipate a satisfactory business during the coming year which dates from February 1st. They have secured the agency for the province for Pillsbury's best flour, which all over the continent is regarded as a standard of quality, (the mills are the largest in the world), and are under contract to supply the Allan line steamers for the next 6 months. They are also agents for Buda flour, which ranks high among the best Canadian flours. They are the wholesale distributors of Swiss Breakfast Food, and the very superior smoking tobacco of D. & J. Macdonald, of Glasgow, Scotland. For the latter they have customers all the way from Cape Breton to Manitoba.

DREAMS.

From childhood on we are dreamers all,
And the dreams of each are his alone:—
In his dreams the slave in a mansion sits,
And the dreaming master, on a throne.
Say what the dreams of the king may be,
Where realms extend from shore to shore?
Of the man of millions who never rests—
Who always cries for more and more?
I do not know: but an old man dreams,
Of a nest on the bank of a river wide,
Where all is quiet: the tolling world
Tolling along on the other side. —H. L. S.

Last Wednesday everybody about the city wore violets in memory of the late queen.

Steamer Mineable sailed for South Africa last Wednesday with 600 tons of flour, 557 tons of oats and 3475 tons of hay.

A large flock of robins made things look spring-like on Mount Pleasant last Sunday.

The north end of the city is to have a park, a large tract of land having been secured for the purpose, which overlooks the falls and the harbor. The scheme owes its inception to Mrs. Baisley.

It has been suggested that the city call upon the "Relief and Aid Society" for funds to pay for sand to scatter on the icy sidewalks. The Relief and Aid Society never relieves or aids anybody.

Two elderly ladies, sisters, from Hillsboro, were placed in the lunatic asylum last Wednesday.

Upwards of 300 looms are now in operation in the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills and the pay roll amounts to about $2000 weekly.

Forty two carloads of horses for South Africa have just arrived here from Quebec.

EDWARD EDWARDS.

St. John, January 25.

Mrs. G. Y. Diblee's Death.

Fredericton Daily Herald, Jan. 25.—A telegram received here this morning conveyed the sad intelligence of the death at Milton Mass, last night, of Charlotte, wife of George Y. Diblee, the well known druggist of this city. Mrs. Diblee has not enjoyed good health for some months and in September last went to Milton for treatment. She had a bad turn on Friday of last week, and her condition became so alarming that it was deemed advisable to send for her husband, who left by the afternoon train on that day. A telegram from Mr. Diblee early in the week, stating that his wife's condition was most critical, partly prepared the public for the sad announcement brought by the wires this morning.

The deceased lady was a daughter of the late Joseph Sutherland, at one time a prominent grocery merchant of this city, and was the last surviving member of her family. She was very popular in social circles and enjoyed the esteem of a large circle of friends. Of a generous and sympathetic nature, she was a great friend of the poor of the city and was noted for her deeds of charity. She was a valued member of the Church of England and took an active interest in all that pertained to the welfare of that denomination.

The late Mrs. Diblee is survived by a husband, but no children.

The Dominion Cattle Breeders' Association at their annual meeting in Toronto Thursday decided to begin making arrangements at an early date for an exhibition of live stock at the St. Louis fair. T. W. Peters was chosen vice-president for New Brunswick.
