The ratepayers granted $240 to run the schools for next year. Miss Lena McLeod takes the advanced department and we trust we may have the good fortune to get as good a primary teacher. Many people think any thing will do for that department. It won't; cheap teachers never pay 'the workman is worthy of his hire" and a good teacher knows their value. As you mould your baby's character so you have him as a man. Lessons kindly and lovingly impressed in truth, honor, faithfulness, etc, are more important even than the three "R.'s".

June 25th, 1902. The 'wet weather' has quite as much 'wet' as usual, but the topic now is "smallpox."

Our town is being 'toned up' quite a bit this summer. The new residence of M S Sutton, 'beautiful for situation' and attractive in appearance is nearing completion. D R Bedell is erecting a large general store with 'an eye' for convenience. It stands near the one now used, but which had become too for his growing trade under popular management. J C Manzer the merchant in farm produce, has the cellar wall for a new residence finished and will proceed at once to put up the building. The new County Record Office is in course of construction and according to plans, when completed, will be both convenient and attractive-a thing of beauty, the pride of the County and supply a long felt want.
