A mule never kicks twice in the same place—it doesn't have to.

A Courting Incident.—One Sunday a young man called on his best girl. After they had talked until they could not think of any more to say he declared his intention of kissing her. She was very indignant and said she would tell her father if he did. Remembering the old saying that 'Faint heart never won fair lady,' the young man dared and succeeded in planting a fairly respectable kiss somewhere behind her ear. The young woman arose hastily and walked into the other room. 'Pa,' she said, 'Mr Smith wants to see your new gun.' 'All right!' said the old man, delighted with the chance of showing off his new gun. Taking it from the rack he stepped into the drawing-room. The young man broke four windows in getting out, and when last seen he was still running bareheaded down the road.

An Attack of Pneumonia Warded Off.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly warded off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold towards pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.

Anger is the most impotent passion that influences the mind of man; it effects nothing it undertakes, hurts the man who is possessed by it more than the object against which it is directed.

Sick Headache and Indigestion

Nervous System out of order—Health restored by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Indigestion and dyspepsia, nervous, sick headache and sleeplessness are among the marked symptoms of nervous exhaustion, and on this account are thoroughly and permanently cured by a course of treatment with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. P. BROWN, 19 Queen St., St. Thomas, Ont., and whose husband is a shoemaker, states:—"I suffered a lot with nervous, sick headache, my digestion was not good, and my nervous system generally was quite out of order. I am pleased to say that I found Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the most satisfactory restorer that I have ever tried. I can fully recommend this preparation, knowing it to be very beneficial in my case."

By noting your increase in weight while using this great food cure, you can prove that new firm flesh and tissue is being added to the body. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

Cassidy—"Tis a shame the way people does be talkin' about the Irish; the lies of them." Casey—"Oh, well now, half the lies they tell about us are true."

Brown—"Do those dogs up your way still continue to howl all night?" Jones—"No; the dogs have given up in disgust since our twins arrived on the scene."

Ernie—"There goes that handsome young yachtman. Is he as bashful as they say?" Mabel—"Yes, indeed. Why, he is too bashful to even 'hug the shore.'"

Sympathetic—Toast Master (to chairman of public dinner)—"Would you like to propose your toast now, my lord, or should we let 'em enjoy themselves a bit longer?"

A kiss is a peculiar proposition. Of no use to one, yet absolute bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the young man has to steal it, and the old man has to buy it. The baby's right, the lover's privilege, the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl, faith, to a married woman, hope, and to an old maid, charity.

Harried and Worried all Day.
And the worst of it is you are a little run down and have mighty little chance to catch up. Everything seems like a grindstone wearing down your nerves. You are irritable and get less sleep than is absolutely necessary. Better stop before things get worse. Your best plan is to use Ferrozone for a while and give your nerves and brain a chance to pick up. Ferrozone is the finest tonic a busy man can take. It makes new blood, nourishes the body, strengthens the nerves, improves the appetite and rehabilitates the whole system. Try Ferrozone. Price 50c.

Parent (to Tommy)—"I am sorry that you and your sister quarrelled over that orange, and that James had to interfere. Whose part did he take?" Tommy—"Whose part? He took the whole orange!"

Note Your Weight
By noting your increase in weight while using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you can prove for a certainty that new firm flesh and tissue is being added to the body. This is the severest test you can apply to any treatment and proves the superiority of this great restorative prescription of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous Receipt Book author.

That makes Catarrh such a dreaded disease.
