FALL WEDDINGS.

PUGSEY-M'CREA.

The residence of James McCrear, St. John, was the scene of a happy event on the 21st inst., the occasion being the marriage of his daughter Ruth to Dr. Herbert J. Pugsey, the well known veterinary surgeon. Rev. C. B. Lewis performed the ceremony in the presence of about eighty guests. Dr. and Mrs. Pugsey will reside in this town.

SAUNDERS-WALSH.

Dr. William E. Saunders who is now building up a fine practice at Lower Southampton, was quietly married on Monday last to Miss Maye E. Walsh. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents in Montreal. The happy couple at once took the train for home, arriving in Woodstock on Tuesday. After spending a few hours here they left for Lower Southampton.

JONES-TRACEY.

A delightfully pleasant wedding occurred at the home of Merrill Tracey, Lakeville, on Wednesday, October 21st, when his eldest daughter, Effie, was united in marriage to R. N. F. Jones, by Rev. A. W. Currie, in the presence of fifty relatives and friends.

The bride was lily-like attired in white muslin and wore natural flowers; she was the recipient of many valuable gifts in silver, cut glass, paintings, linens, etc.

The bride and groom are exceedingly popular young people of Lakeville, and their many friends wish them blessings and happiness in their pretty home.

OBITUARIES.

MISS CLARA M'GIBBON.

At the residence of Mrs. Keizer, Greenville, where deceased has made her home for 12 years, Miss Clara McGibbon, sister of Charles and Arthur McGibbon, the well-known C. P. R. trainmen, after a short illness, passed away on Friday of last week, in the 40th year of her age. On Monday Undertaker Kelly accompanied by the brothers of deceased, had the remains taken to Gibson, York county, and after a short burial service, interment was made on the afternoon of the same day, in the family burial lot at that place.

MRS. WILLIAM BRAGDON.

On Saturday morning, at her residence, Grafton, Mrs. William Bragdon, who had been ailing for some time, died, aged 39 years. The husband and five children survive. The Salvation Army conducted the funeral services on Sunday afternoon, and members of the corps acted as pall bearers. The interment took place in Sharp's burying ground, Grafton; Undertaker Kelly was in attendance.

STEPHEN DEVOUNE.

On Monday, at Upper Woodstock, where he had resided for the past three years, Stephen Devouné died after a short illness, aged about 55 years. The widow and a son survive. The funeral, Undertaker Henderson in charge, took place on Wednesday afternoon, and the interment was made in the Fredericton cemetery.

John Henderson is the owner of ten splendid pigs.

Monticello.

The first snowstorm of the season began here Monday morning about nine o'clock and continued all day. There was about six inches fell. The farmers have harvested an abundant crop this season, and the prices for all their produce are exceptionally good, and nearly all have completed their fall ploughing, consequently they are wearing smiling faces. Threshing and hunting are now the order of the day with the male population while house-cleaning is in order with the women.

G. W. Bull has his fine new store completed and is filling it with a large stock of general merchandise.

A. M. Frazier, who is in the employ of H. B. Sharp, as book keeper and pay master at Portage Lake, expects to move his family there in a few days, for the winter.

Rev. G. A. Potter met with a serious accident a few days ago; while hauling a load of hay the wagon struck a projecting plank on the bridge near his home, throwing him from the load with such force as to break his hip. Dr. H. Hill of this village and Mann of Houlton, were called and rendered the needed assistance and at present writing he is resting quite comfortably.

Mrs. G. L. Curtis who has been very ill for the past three weeks is convalescing.

Mrs. Mary A. Ross is spending a few days with relatives and friends in Littleton.

Mrs. J. C. Lyons, who has been visiting relatives and friends for a few weeks at Nashua, N. B., has returned home.

Charles Stokoe of Bloomfield, N. B., has been spending a few days with relatives in this village.

Mrs. Geo. Sipprell, after an absence of seventeen years in Colorado, arrived a few days ago and expects to remain here for the winter with her mother, Mrs. Margaret Langdon, who is in very feeble health.

A very fine large mouse with a handsome pair of antlers passed through the village Monday enroute to the B. and A. station, shot by Dell Curtis of this town at the dead waters. Rev. Dr. B. W. Russell and Dr. Hill went out last Saturday afternoon and after an absence of three hours returned bringing a fine deer. Game is reported as very plentiful this season.

Johnville.

We had our first snowstorm this season on the 25th inst. About four or five inches of snow fell; it makes us thing winter is coming.

We are glad to hear that Maggie Gallagher, daughter of W. J. Gallagher, who has been sick, is recovering.

Misses Mary A. and Julia Howell are gone to Augusta Me.

Miss Mary Boyd left on the 19th October for Bangor Me.
