UNFAIR TREATMENT.

Two members of the town council who spoke at the Agricultural banquet, had the extremely bad taste to make certain statements which everyone present must have known were intended for a slap at this paper. His Worship the Mayor and Councillor Diblee might have chosen some more appropriate subject for their remarks. The fact that no person answered them cannot be construed as a peaceful submission to their efforts. If they really desire a discussion of town affairs, where they may be properly answered, let them hire a hall for the purpose and we will assure them that the SENTINEL will be on hand fully prepared to discuss bank deficit, Paul Jim or any matter whatever touching town politics.

Telephone Improvements.

The N. B. Telephone company seems determined to give its patrons an efficient service. In addition to the all-night system they are now installing the very latest style of Kellogg long distance transmitters. These are the very highest development yet accomplished. Those who have used them speak in very flattering terms of the improvement. It is possible to distinguish even a whisper by the use of this wonderful transmitter, which is also free from the harsh grating qualities common to other makes. Already more than forty new subscribers have signified their intention to become users of the N. B. system. Messrs Carey and Townsend are busily engaged on the work of installation.

The Scottish Paganini.

The public may be interested in what the St. John Sun has to say of the "Scottish Paganini," who will play here on Dec 2nd. Never was a more enthusiastic audience gathered in the Opera House than that of last evening to hear the Scottish concert, which from every standpoint proved a magnificent success. A crowded house greeted the artists in spite of the pouring rain. The striking feature was Mackenzie Murdoch's wonderful violin playing. This artist created a veritable sensation, his reception after the first and second numbers rivalling in enthusiasm that which Jessie MacLachlan aroused when she first sang Rule Britannia in the Opera House. Murdoch played no less than four encores after his second number, and though only on the programme for two he played nine numbers. All over the United Kingdom Murdoch is known as the "Scottish Paganini," and last evening demonstrated how well he deserved that title. No trill or flourish, no rhythmic movement, neither harmonic cords, nor chromatic cadences, but he seems to have mastered, and the stroke of his nervous bow is as straight as a beam of light. St. John has heard in the past many fine violinists, but no such master of the instrument as the artist who last night played upon the feelings of the audience in a manner never before known here.

The Hospital Supper on the 19th Inst.

The Supper in aid of the Carleton County Hospital which is advertised in another column of this paper, is being prepared by over half a hundred ladies who are sure to make it a great success.

At the last meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society held at Mrs W B Belyea's, on last Tuesday afternoon, there was a large attendance, and arrangements concerning the number and management of tables were completed. It was estimated that 120 guests could be accommodated at one sitting. The following ladies have the ten tables in charge:—Mrs Arthur Bailey and Mrs George W Gibson; Mrs Patrick Bradley and Mrs F H J Diblee; Mrs Williamson Fisher and Mrs Frank B Carvell; Mrs W B Belyea and Mrs T F Sprague; Mrs Harry B Smith and Mrs F C Denison; Mrs R B Welsh and Mrs Geo Gable; Mrs W N Hand, Mrs W Hay and Mrs Geo A White; Mrs Albert Brown, Mrs George Phillips and Mrs Albert Connolly; Mrs Chas R Watson and Mrs D McLeod Vince; Mrs B B Manzer and Mrs John McAfee.

The following ladies have in charge the reception of food at the Opera House and its distribution among the tables:—Mrs Charles Diblee, Mrs E V Dimock, Mrs Thomas Neales, Mrs John Baird, Mrs Johnston Emery and Mrs Henry B Ingraham.

A fuller list of committees will be completed on Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m. at Mrs W W Hay's, when the Ladies' Auxiliary are to have another meeting.

Don't forget the date, Thursday, 19th inst. Supper served between the hours 5 and 8 p. m. Price 50cts.

GUY FAWKES' DAY.

Woodstock Lodge, No 35, L. O. A., held a very successful At Home in their lodge room on the evening of Thursday, Nov. 5th. A number of addresses were delivered by prominent members of the Order and a very excellent musical programme, consisting of solos, duets, trios and quartets, was successfully carried out. Miss Porter presided at the organ. One of the most pleasant features of the evening was the presentation of a purse, containing $338, to Past Grand Master David Hipwell of Woodstock, in recognition of the invaluable services that he has rendered to the Loyal Orange Association and as a tribute to his sterling qualities as a citizen. Past Grand Chaplain Rev Mr Flewelling of Canterbury Station, presented Bro. Hipwell to the audience and Past Grand Master A. D. Thomas presented him with the purse on behalf of the members of the Loyal Orange Association. No act has given more satisfaction to the citizens of Woodstock, where Mr. Hipwell is held in high esteem, than this graceful act on the part of his brother Orangemen.

At the conclusion of the programme, coffee, sandwiches and cake were handed around by the ladies of the True Blue Lodge of Woodstock, and the highly enjoyable entertainment closed by the singing of the National Anthem.

Scotland's Greatest Tenor Here on Dec. 2nd.

All well remember the splendid impression created here by Jessie MacLachlan last fall, whose singing has popularized the songs of Scotland among us. This fact lends interest to the fact that on the 2nd of next month we will have with us the greatest of Scottish tenors, Geo. Neil, supported by Mackenzie Murdoch, the greatest living Scottish violinist, Harry Munroe, Scotland's favorite comedian, Flora Melvor Craig, and Alfred Lawrence Murdoch, the noted Scottish pianist. This will be the finest Scottish aggregation ever heard on this side of the water and will doubtless draw a crowded house in Woodstock.

She had two sons and two daughters, the latter Mrs H D Beveridge and Mrs Cassie Stanchfield both living in Pentwater and the sons, Robert and Rupert in Washington. Mrs Grover leaves eleven grandchildren and one great grandson. She was a devoted, loving wife and mother, and a most unselfish and charitable woman. She leaves many friends to mourn her loss. She was a life long member of the Episcopal church.

The funeral services were held from St James church, Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.—Exchange.

"The initial entertainment of the London Bioscope Company brought an overflow audience last night, and all were well repaid for their presence. The moving pictures were undoubtedly the best ever seen here. Mr. Howard Clifton, the inimitable versatile entertainer, delighted the house by his excellent vocal selections, singing the latest illustrated songs, and his exhibition of musical versatility and ventriloquism were nothing less than wonderful. He is the man with a thousand voices."—Bangor Commercial. Graham's Opera House, one night only Saturday Nov 14th.

SECOND ANNUAL BANQUET.

Carleton County Agricultural Society gave its second annual banquet on Tuesday evening in the dining room of the Carlisle Hotel. The principal object of the banquet was to honor four of the oldest members of the society Messrs Hugh Hay, Hamilton Emery, John A Shea and John S Leighton, the two former gentlemen being present. About 70 guests were present, including the principal members of the society and the leading business and professional men of the town. Mr Tabor had prepared an elaborate menu, in his usual excellent style, that would delight the heart of an epicure, while the fleet footed waiters were obliging and attentive to the guests, all endeavoring to make the function a pleasant one, and needless to say they were successful. Advantage was taken of the occasion to present the handsome merchants' cup to the winner of the hauling contest at the recent exhibition, and the presentation of the same to J J Hale was made by Mayor Belyea in a pleasing address, to which Mr Hale briefly responded.

The president of the agricultural society, Judson Briggs, occupied the chair of honor, and seated alongside were the two honored guests of the evening, Messrs Hay and Emery.

The toastmaster, W S Saunders, ably filled the position allotted him. In opening the proceedings he read letters of regret for non-attendance from L P Farris, commissioner of agriculture, Dr Twichell, Messrs Peters, Tilley and others. Mr Saunders said that the success of the first annual banquet had been duplicated in the present meeting. This was an age of progress and in gatherings such as the present when one is brought in contact with another in social intercourse, all profit by the result. He mentioned the fact that by the latest returns the value of the agricultural interests in Canada yearly is estimated at $800,000,000; a fact also to be remembered is that as the agricultural interests are developed, wealth is produced in the land.

Woodstock is noted for its numerous able public speakers and on this occasion many powerful and witty speeches were delivered. The following is the list of toasts, those who proposed them, and the gentlemen who responded:—

WAKEFUL CHILDREN.

For a long time the two year old child of Mr P L McPherson, 59 N Tenth St, Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half of one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by all druggists.
