RICE-PLUMMER.

What is undoubtedly the event of the season so far, took place in the Jacksonville Methodist church at high noon on Wednesday, the 24th inst—the celebration of the marriage of Rev. H. C. Rice, B. A., to Miss Blanche Plummer of Jacksonville. The entire countryside seemed to have suspended its usual activities and put on gala attire for the occasion. The seating capacity of the Methodist church was taxed to its utmost by the many friends of the young couple who were gathered from far and near to do them honor. It is safe to say that nearly one hundred of the invited guests met at the home of the bride, after the ceremony, to offer their congratulations and rejoice together, as they partook of the bountiful feast provided by the parents of the bride, Mr and Mrs C W Plummer. At precisely 12 o'clock, the bride, accompanied by her maids of honor, entered the church—Miss Berrie singing, "The Voice that Breathed o'er Eden"—and joined the groom at the altar, who was attended by his brother, Rev J M Rice, B A, of Milltown. Behind the altar stood the officiating clergymen: Rev S H Rice, the father of the groom; Rev John Dyant, Ph. B., his brother-in-law; and Rev George A Ross, the pastor of the Woodstock Methodist church. The ceremony was most impressive and the responses were made in clear tones by both the bride and groom. After the service, the happy couple, with their attendants, retired from the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Berrie, and returned in their carriage to the residence of the bride, where a reception was held and dinner served. Miss Plummer made an ideal picture in her charming gown of white silk crepe de chene, a bridal veil with floral coronet, and carrying before her a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. Miss May Green of Perth Centre, and Miss Harriet Treacartin of Milltown, fittingly adorned the occasion as attendants of the bride. Miss Green was attired in a gown of white silk grenadine over pale blue silk, while Miss Treacartin wore pink silk muslin. Both were crowned with becoming hats of white tulle, and carried carnations. Nothing more clearly indicated the popularity of the young couple than the very large number of wedding gifts of which they were the recipients. The bride was remembered by her husband with a suitable gift. A beautiful neck-chain with pendant was also presented by the groom to each of the bridesmaids.

Mr and Mrs Rice left on the 5:55 train for a short bridal trip; they will return to Jacksonville in a few days for a brief visit before settling down in the Methodist parsonage at Sunnybrae, which will be their home until further orders from the Methodist conference.

A HOME COMING.

At the home of Mr and Mrs Ezra F Tabor, on the east side of the St John river, a number of relatives and friends met on Tuesday to celebrate the home coming of their son, Miles Warder Tabor and bride, who were married in Worcester, Mass., on the 16th June; among the guests present were Dr James V Tabor, Hodgdon, Me; Misses Elsie and Ida Tabor, Worcester, Mass; John H Tabor and Miss Queenie Tabor, Wolfville, N S; Mr and Mrs Ammon F Tabor, Mr and Mrs Stephenson, Mrs John Morrison, Jesse and Miss May Morrison, Mrs Sherwood, Mable Sherwood, Persus Sherwood, Clair Sherwood, Mr and Mrs Abraham Marsten, Miss McIndoe, St Elmo Tabor, Hazel Bender, all of Woodstock; Mr and Mrs Arthur Tabor, Temperance Vale; Mr and Mrs Wm H Clark, Alfred Schriver, Mr Gregg, Southampton; Helen Colpitts, Boston. During the day, Dr Tabor, now over 83 years of age, great-uncle of the groom, expressed his pleasure at being present and meeting so many of the younger generations, congratulated the bride and groom and wished them a pleasant voyage through life. Dr Tabor served in the American army and did good work in the Civil War; after the close, he attended Howel College, taking the degree of M. D. in 1867. After singing Auld Lang Syne the guests returned to their homes well pleased with the day's pleasure.

ALLEGED BANK DEAL.

The following interesting article is taken from the Halifax Chronicle: "Now comes word of another big deal in the banking world. The Chronicle on Saturday announced that application was being made in the House of Commons by John F Stairs, president of the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Co., and others for the incorporation of the Alliance Bank of Canada. This interesting announcement is said to foreshadow one of the most important transactions in the history of Maritime Banks. The Alliance Bank will be capitalized at $5,000,000, and on its directorate will be John F Stairs, of Halifax; Harvey Graham, of New Glasgow, one of the most prominent men in the Nova Scotia Steel Co.; Geoffrey Morrow, of Halifax, and R E Harris, K C, also of this city.

"The promoters of this institution have kept their plans well obscured, but it has transpired that negotiations are afoot to amalgamate a number of the smaller banks in the Maritime Provinces. The Bank of New Brunswick and the People's Bank of Halifax are, it is stated, willing to take up the amalgamation scheme, and the Merchants' Bank of P. E. Island and the People's Bank of New Brunswick are also included in the plans of the promoters.

"According to the last government statement of the chartered banks, the Bank of New Brunswick has a paid-up capital of $500,000 and a reserve of $750,000; People's Bank of Halifax paid-up capital $700,000, reserve $300,000; Merchants' of P. E. Island, paid-up capital $300,000, reserve $205,009; People's of New Brunswick, paid-up capital $180,000, reserve $165,000 which would give a total paid-up capital of $1,650,000 and a total reserve of $1,420,000.

"Just how far the negotiations have proceeded is not known, but the application for the Alliance charter is taken by keen observers of banking affairs to indicate that considerable progress has been made. The close connection of Mr Stairs with the Union Bank of Halifax, the new stock issue of which was under-written by that gentleman and his associates, has associated the name of that institution with the deal, but the Chronicle is informed that there is no likelihood of the Union being included in the merger.

"It is stated that Mr Stavert, the bright young manager of the Bank of New Brunswick, will be manager of the new Alliance Bank."

The Globe talked with Mr Stavert, of the Bank of New Brunswick, on the subject to-day, and learned that the Chronicle's announcement is at least premature. No negotiations with the object described are being carried on, but evidently there has been some talk between interested parties in the matter.

The Globe hears that the Union Bank of Halifax was to be included in the combination named, and that the matter will probably assume a more practical form than it has at present.

Irish Land Bill Trouble Is Patched Up Again.

WYNDHAM MAKES A CONCESSION, AND REDMOND ACCEPTS IT.

London, June 24.—The resumption of the debate in the house of commons to-day on the Irish land bill was marked by the introduction by Mr Wyndham, chief secretary for Ireland, of an amendment designed to remove the difficulty in regard to the retention in clause one of a provision for a minimum price at which tenants may purchase their holdings and permitting bargains to be made outside of the judicial zones.

The amendment is hailed on all sides as being a great concession. John Redmond, the Irish leader, declared Mr Wyndham has saved the bill and the amendment was agreed to amid cheers and general congratulations.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannermann, the Liberal leader, joined in the congratulations on the spirit of conciliation prevailing and the dangerous clause one of the bill was adopted without a division. Later, Mr Wyndham agreed to an extension of the limit of the advances, to be made to purchases of agricultural farms, from $25,000 to $35,000.

The evening was spent in the submission of amendments by the Nationalist members, which were successively debated in an amicable spirit and then withdrawn without division. Mr Wyndham promised to deal with the evicted tenants under clause 48 and said he would double the amount of the advance that the evicted tenants could get. Clause 2, which dealt with advances to tenants, was then passed. In the discussion of clause 3, which provides for advances to owners setting their estates several amendments were offered, and afterwards withdrawn. Clause three was then adopted, and the house rose.

Tableau, 'Holding Trade.'
Dialogue, 'Maids and Bachelors.'

God Save the King.

Much credit is due Miss Perkins, as it was through her efforts that the money was raised to buy a chemical apparatus and set of minerals in the early part of the term.
