ALL FORETOLD.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Cabling to the American, W. T. Stead says:

I leave the discussion of the political situation to put on record the remarkable fact that the assassination of the king was foreseen by a clairvoyant, who was my guest, as far back as Friday, March 20, of this year. This story, with which all London is ringing to-day, is quite true, and is amply authenticated.

On the day in question I had invited a number of distinguished guests, including Earl Grey, the Serbian minister, and others, to witness some experiments in psychometry. The clairvoyant present was Mrs. Burchill, a simple, unlearned woman, from Halifax, of whose psychometric powers I had heard good reports.

My rooms were crowded, and, whether on that occasion or for some reason, the experiments resulted in the most abject failure I had ever witnessed. As a kind of consolation for my disappointed guests I invited a score of them to dinner at the restaurant of Gatti and Rodsano, in the Strand.

After dinner several of them left, and about ten or twelve remained behind. As the conditions were better, I proposed to give Mrs. Burchill another chance. Various articles were placed in her hands concerning which she made statements more or less surprising, but of no historic interest.

At last a Serbian gentleman present, whose nationality was unknown to the clairvoyant, handed her a sheet of note paper, on which was written the autograph of King Alexander.

Nothing was said as to the person from whom the writing came, and questions were asked, and no information was given.

Mrs. Burchill did not open the paper, but held it folded in her hand. She had hardly grasped it when she exclaimed: "That belongs to royalty."

SAW A SCENE OF ASSASSINATION.

Then, becoming very excited, she fell from her seat, only being saved from striking the floor by her neighbor, who caught her. She exclaimed in great agitation: "Terrible! Terrible!"

Then she collected herself and said: "It is a bloody scene I look on. There is murder being done. I see the interior of a palace. There are a king and a queen. They are together alone. Then men and soldiers burst into the room and attack them."

"They kill the king. He is dead, and the queen, oh, how she cries for mercy and begs for her life! But I fear for her. I cannot see whether she escapes or not. The king is killed. Oh, it is terrible."

Only the Serbian gentleman and myself knew that the sheet of paper bore the King of Serbia's signature. As for the clairvoyant, I doubt very much whether she knows where Serbia is or that such a monarch as Alexander existed.

THE BONUS QUESTION.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:

This week's Press came down heavily on ex-councillor Lindsay because he dared question the advisability of the town granting A. W. Hay a bonus of $5000. The Dispatch says "a very important crisis has arrived" and then goes on to say that Mr. Hay and Mr. Henderson are each willing to establish $20,000 plants here, and that each of them would employ "a number of men", and all they ask in return for employing "a number of men", is $5000 each.

The Dispatch assumes that the taxes of these "number of men" employed by Messrs. Hay and Henderson would amount to $400 a year, which would pay the interest on the $10,000 the town is asked to borrow, and then goes on to say "This being so the town is not a cent out of pocket."

If the town was only asked to grant a bonus of $400 a year this sort of reasoning might pass, but where is the $10,000 coming from when the bonds mature, which the council is to issue to raise this money? Won't the town be out of pocket then?

Does Mr. Hay agree to erect a $20,000 plant? I do not believe he has the least intention of erecting any such plant.

Is it not true that for the purpose of fixing the amount of bonus to which Mr. Hay would be entitled under the act, the council has agreed to consider as worth $10,000 the part of Mr. Hay's present plant, which he would remove to Woodstock? I venture the assertion that the cash value of this "plant", which the council has agreed to say is worth $10,000, is not worth more than one third that amount.

What has Mr. Hay actually agreed to do anyway? And is the agreement in writing? Will he start a retail grocery store in town to supply "the number of men" he will employ?

Perhaps if the Editors, who think so favorably of exemptions from taxation and bonuses had more taxes to pay they would treat a matter of this kind more seriously.

Carleton and Victoria Baptist Quarterly.

The above Quarterly met with the Baptist church of Centerville at 2.45 p. m., June 9, 1908. After a social service of one hour led by the secretary Rev. B. S. Freeman (president) took the chair and reports from the churches were listened to with interest and encouragement. Reports of special committees were then received and adopted. At the evening service, held in the interests of Sunday schools, three addresses were given. (1) "Christian Growth as realized through the study of God's Word," by Rev. B. S. Freeman, B. A. (2) "The teacher and the S. S. by Rev. Jos. Cahill. (3) "The S. S. as an evangelistic force," by Rev. W. H. Smith, B. A. The third session (Wednesday morning) was begun by social service being led by Pastor Fash. Rev. C. N. Barton then read a paper on, "The duty of the church of Christ to the tempted." This paper which was most practical and profitable was followed with a helpful discussion. The fourth session, under the auspices of the W. M. A. S., was conducted by Mrs. A. D. Hartley of East Florenceville. The woman's part in missionary work was made so apparent that at a business session of the Quarterly which followed it was arranged for a committee from the W. M. A. S. to confer with the Executive of the Quarterly in providing for a joint missionary meeting at future Quarters. The executive were then appointed a committee to draw up a system of pulpit exchange. Each pastor to speak on some denominational theme when exchanging. In this way we hope to deepen the interest of our people in our denominational work. At 7.30 a large congregation met to listen to the Quarterly sermon preached by Rev. Z. L. Fash, M. A. The speaker chose as his text Matt. 8:17 and from it gave a grand presentation of the old gospel. A spirit pervaded after meeting brought to its close a most profitable Quarterly. Collections to the amount of $13.80 were gathered for H. and F. Missions.

News from the Country.

Weston.

June 15th, 1908.

Quite a number from this section took in the Pan-American Circus. Mr. Craig reports some interesting side-shows.

Mr. Judson Flemming is back home after a somewhat extended stay on the "Yankee" side.

Messrs. Fred Kidney and Thos. McBride are back from their trip up-river.

They visited all places of interest along the Tobique, and the St. John, as far as Grand Falls, and seemed to have had a "good old time."

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Porter and Master Guy, attended the closing at the Houlton high school on Friday, 12th. Their niece, Miss Alta Hunter, being one of the fifteen who graduated.

Mr. Wm. McClellan is busy repairing and refitting his house, and as usual dame rumor is surmising what is to follow.

The men have been busy on the roads in this, and adjoining districts, and the result is—well; we won't say anything about the result.

Mr. Elbridge and Master Harold Bell, spent Monday with Robt. Bell, Farmestown.

The fires did little or no damage in this section; but everybody was thankful for the rains, which put an end to the danger.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wasson are to be congratulated on the birth of a young son.

Frank Carpenter has a crew in the woods peeling bark.

The fisherman report extra good luck with the fly. Some very good catches have been made for this time of year.

The farmers have their crops all in, and they are looking very well.

Riley Brook.

June 15th, 1908.

We are glad to announce a rain of 24 hours that visited this section, Saturday night and yesterday, and a number of showers to-day the smoke, and dust a thing of the past.

The first fishing sport of the season arrived yesterday; Senator Proctor and his friend, Mr. Parker of Vermont, had dinner to H. G. Howard's. Mr. Parker then continued his journey to the Club House, caught 6 salmon this morning; the Senator was not so fortunate, as he stopped here and fished at Mink Cove and failed in getting any.

Arrivals at Hayden Hotel.—Mrs. G. Dewitt, Mrs. Birmingham and daughter, brother and sister of S. R. Hayden of this place, also Miss C. Shearwood of Woodstock.

Mrs. W. E. Everitt of B. L. Brook, was visiting her stepmother, Mrs. Isaac Gaunce, in this place on Sabbath. Mrs. Gaunce is very low.

B. Doohan has returned to his business again, in this place; he has been replenishing his stock of summer goods.

Miss Annie McDougal is visiting her sister Mrs. W. Miller of Nictau.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jenkins of B. L. Brook, were guests at the Harmony, Friday night.

We are very sorry to see your valuable paper in mourning. For the death of its noble Editor, your correspondent gives her heart felt sympathy to the Bereaved ones.

Salmon at the Harmony to-night; don't think it would be very palatable.

Our day school closes here in two weeks. One young teacher, Mr. A. P. Jewett has proved himself a gentleman and well worthy his calling. We wish him success in whatever business he may take up.

ONE INTERESTED.

Four Falls. June 16.

In common with the many old friends of the late James Watts, we wish to record our esteem for him as a man. He was a good citizen and that is all that need be said.

The welcome rain came last Saturday and Sunday night we had a regular down-pour. Jupiter Pluvius meant business and all nature, animate and inanimate, awoke to new life and energy.

The crop prospects now are good.

The U. T. Co., for some unaccountable reason, thought fit to boycott this place. Any unprejudiced party, acquainted with the locality, would decide against the company's selection.

H. Arnold Mosher, our music teacher, is deservedly popular with the people at large in this locality. Mr. Mosher has a captivating voice of great power expression. He is a young man of exceptional character and makes friends wherever he is known.

We are all waiting for the 11th July, when the water power here will be sold. The Andover & Perth Electric Power company wish to acquire the power for lighting and other purposes.

This is a good locality for sports. Good fishing in near vicinity. Quite an amount of travel this way. H.
