PUBLIC WARNING.

The publishers of The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal. warn the public regarding an offer made by certain papers in which another Montreal paper, with a somewhat similar name to The Family Herald, is offered in a clubbing combination. It is reported to the publishers that in some cases the offer has been accepted under the impression it was The Family Herald and Weekly Star that would be received. The paper in question has no connection whatever with The Family Herald and Weekly Star. It is The Family Herald and Weekly Star that is offering the handsome premium pictures and large colored map of the Dominion as premiums. The word "FAMILY" should be used when addressing that paper. This caution should have the effect of putting people on their guard.

The carving on the chair and footstool is a revelation of the possibilities of art. The feet are in the form of lion's paws, and the arms termiuse them nate in lion's heads. The back is in elephants, rampant. The seat is of alabaster, and the chair has a gold and silver tissue drapery around the underskirt of the frame, finished with tassels and richly chased ormolu ornaments. The cushions are of green velvet, embroidered in gold and silver thread. Every outside part of the chair is covered with delicately carved figures of men and animals.
