THE GOVERNMENT CANDIDATES:

WENDELL P. JONES
WILLIAM C. GOOD.

ONWARD TO VICTORY!

GOVERNMENT MEETINGS.

Public meetings in the interest of the Government candidates will be held as follows:—

Monday evening, Feb. 23rd, Victoria Corner.
" " " Debec.
Tuesday evening, Feb. 24th Benton.
" " " Clearview.
Wednesday " Feb. 25th Centerville.
" " " Mt Pleasant.
Thursday evening Feb. 26th Lakeville.
" " " Simonds.

THE Press this week displays two Union Jacks, and under them puts "Vote for J. K. Flemming, B. Frank Smith, and J. Chipman Hartley." Which one of these gentlemen helped to carry the grand old flag to victory in South Africa, or even offered to do so?

If there was any danger of bullets, you would not find them as close to the flag as they are in the Press.

THE Press says that the Government won in this county in 1896 (evidently intended for 1899) with the assistance of M. Welch, which is quite true and with his assistance they will win in 1903.

The Opposition could only come within about 100 votes of winning in 1899 with the assistance of W. S. Saunders and J. J. Hale. Where will they be this year without the assistance of either of these gentlemen?

THE Government Candidates are meeting with most flattering receptions wherever they have gone in different parts of this county. Large and enthusiastic meetings have already been held at Bath, Glassville and Hartland. Owing to the desperate condition of the roads, it is almost impossible to visit very many of the electors at their homes, but they will see all in their power and as many meetings will be held during the coming week as possible, of which due notice will be given.

We sincerely trust that the Conservative managers will not repeat their tactics of the last Dominion election, by procuring the assistance of several hundreds of hoodlums for the purpose of preventing the Government candidates receiving a hearing at the Court House on nomination day. Such conduct does not get any votes, neither does it help to uplift the politics of the county from the rut into which they have been placed by means of Tory corruption funds.

If our opponents could, for once, be manly, they will find that it will pay in the end.

On the 18th of February, 1899, the Opposition was snowed under, electing only five members out of a House of 46.

Just previous to the election the Tory Press assured their readers of a sweeping victory, and even had their cabinet all picked out.

Something very similar appears in the Press this week, such as: "The winners speak, Flemming, Smith and Hartley open the campaign," "York is sure to send a solid four in opposition to the Tweedie administration," "Victory in the air." If the Opposition candidates in this county could be elected with air, or even mud, they would doubtless get there—but it cannot be done.

Miss Rye Anderson returned home to Fredericton on Saturday, Feb. 14, after making a very pleasant visit in town.

ROUSING ORGANIZING MEETING.

A government organization meeting held at the old stamping ground, Payson's Hall, Woodstock, on Monday evening, was largely attended, the speakers meant business, and their remarks were enthusiastically received. James S. McManus was elected chairman of the town committee, and James H. Wilbur, secretary; N. F. Thorne was secretary of the meeting. The old familiar faces could be seen at the meeting, and several gentlemen were present who have not, in recent years, been prominently identified with the government party.

The following committee was appointed, for Woodstock, with power to add to its number:—

James S. McManus, George H. Saunders, Alfred Fields, C. D. Johnston, James H. Wilbur, James W. Gallagher, Albert Fields, H. N. Payson, Joseph Fewer, Marcellus Ryan, John H. Bagley, Mered Brewer, Coles W. Dugan.

Rousing addresses were made by C. L. Smith, N. F. Thorne, John S. Leighton, Jr., George H. Saunders, G. W. Slipp, John P. Malaney, J. R. Murphy, John McCormac, James W. Gallagher.

Arrangements were made to hold several meetings in the lower parishes, and the meeting adjourned.

Letter from G. W. Vanwart.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:

DEAR SIR—I notice in the last issue of the Woodstock Press a scurrilous article headed "Old Liberalism vs. New Liberalism in Carleton county," in which it is stated that "I with others have been turned down or pushed aside," by some of the active Liberals of the present time, therein termed as "New Liberals," and in reply I wish to publicly state that so far as I am concerned, it is absolutely false and without the slightest foundation whatever.

For some years, as is well known, owing to physical infirmities, I have been unable to take an active part in politics, and, under these circumstances, I feel that the insult offered me and the Liberal party, in the article referred to, was entirely without justification, and I am somewhat surprised that the managers of the Press would allow my name to be used in the manner in which they have done.

I need hardly say that I am in hearty accord with the Liberal party in this county, and will do all in my power to secure the election of the Government candidates in the present election.

G. W. VANWART.

J. J. Hale Replies.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:—
DEAR SIR—I observe by the last issue of the Press that my name was published as one of the Opposition Committee for the Parish of Northampton in the present election contest.

This was done without my knowledge or consent and I have asked to have my name struck off the said committee.

I have decided that in the future I will give my support to the Liberal Party as I am in full sympathy with their present progressive policy.

Yours etc,
J. J. HALE.

Successful Meeting at Hartland.

At a large and enthusiastic meeting at Hartland on Wednesday evening of this week, the speakers were T. M. Jones, F. R. Shaw and F. B. Carvell, and perhaps the most important statement made was the announcement of the determination of the Government to reduce the tolls, on the Hartland Bridge, one third, and to allow funerals to pass over free and also foot passengers free use of the Bridge on Sundays. This is not only the proper course to pursue, but is also in line with the expressed policy of the Government from the beginning, viz, to gradually reduce the tolls, and to make the bridge free to the public in the course of 6 or 7 years from the passing of the Act of Incorporation in 1900. This course meets with the hearty approval of the people of Hartland and vicinity.

THE WOODSTOCK ARMOURY ASSURED.

The following letter speaks for itself:—
Ottawa, 16th Feb., 1903.
DEAR MR. CARVELL:

With reference to your letter of the 10th instant, asking for an appropriation for an Armoury at Woodstock, I have spoken to Hon. Mr. Sutherland, and he is quite willing to ask for a vote for this purpose. Accordingly the chief engineer of my department is now asking the Public Works department to take the necessary steps towards this end.

F. W. BORDEN.

F. B. Carvell, Esq., barrister, Woodstock, N. B.

DR PUGSLEY EXPLAINS.

The Sun, and other lesser lights among the Tory papers, is trying to make capital out of what it terms the "Pugsley's Scheme," of damming the St John River. Mr Pugsley being interviewed said, he had nothing whatever to do with the originating of the company; that he had been asked by a friend in Edmundston, who was interested in the enterprise, to take some stock in the proposed company which he had done, and paid his money for the amount of it, exactly on the same basis as the other stockholders. This was several months ago, and before he was aware of any possible objection existing to the undertaking.

He was given clearly to understand that no legislation would be asked from the New Brunswick legislature, and also that the most ample provision would be made for the free passage of logs through the dam.

In view of the statements recently made by those interested in the lumber business on the St John River, he thought that it would be necessary to be exceedingly careful, if the proposed charter was granted to see that no injury would be done to the lumbering interests. No doubt parliament would require that all proper safeguards were provided, if it should be decided that it was advisable to grant the charter.

THE PROPOSED NEW GOVERNMENT.

The Press says it would not be surprising to find J. K. Flemming a few months hence occupying the position of Provincial Secretary. Just think of it Flemming in charge of the finances of the Province of New Brunswick "in the interest of honest government," as the opposition claim.

Then there is Jim Pinder doubtless expecting to be Commissioner of Public Works "in the interest of honest government" of course many a man in New Brunswick knows Pinder well enough to appreciate that.

Then we would probably have Fred Sproule of Kings county for Commissioner of Agriculture "in the interest of honest government" and probably Fred La Forest, Surveyor General "in the interest of honest government."

Fortunately the defeat of all these gentlemen on the 28th will prevent the formation of such a cabinet.

Abandoning the Sinking Ship.

George Allen, K. C., who sat in the last house in support of the government as one of the members for York and who gave respectability and standing to the ticket, has declined renomination. Mr. Allen, like Hon. G. F. Hill, who is also a veteran of the old Liberal guard, finds himself unable to support the Tweedie-Pugsley combination.—Press.

As Mr. Allen has not "found himself unable to support the 'Tweedie-Pugsley combination'" as claimed by the Press, but is one of the Government candidates, it will be observed that the Government ticket has both respectability and standing. That is more than can be claimed for the Opposition ticket in York, headed, as it is, by the notorious Pinder.

Opposition Has No Use for Farmers.

The Opposition have not honored the farmers of our Province with many places on their tickets in the fine farming counties from Madawaska to St. John. We only find two, one in Queens county and one in Kings; and in the whole Province they have only nominated three or four farmers, while about one-third of the Government candidates are farmers. It looks as if the Opposition had little use for the farmers, apart from a desire for their votes, or is it because the farmers are so well satisfied with the Government that few farmers of any standing can be found willing to oppose the Government.

Our Farmers are Benefitted.

Four years ago the Opposition ridiculed what they called the Wheat Policy of the government. Last year about half a million bushels of wheat were grown in this Province as a direct result of that policy, thus saving to the Province about $500,000, which otherwise would have gone to Ontario to pay for flour.

Who Can Answer?

How many boys under 14 years of age in this county can give the correct answer to this question.
If a dishonest buyer fixes his scales so that a 200 lb bag will only weigh 190 lbs, what is the value at 7c per lb. of the pork he will steal in buying 25000 lbs, providing the farmers do not weigh their pork at home?

THE Liberal Committee have made arrangements with the C. P. Railway by which one fare tickets will be sold at all stations between Bath and Woodstock, good for all regular trains on Saturday, to return by special leaving here at 7 p. m. This will give everybody a chance to attend the nomination proceedings and return home the same evening.

Carpet Knight vs. True Soldier.

The two counties which are our nearest neighbors are Carleton and Sunbury, and as Carleton was once a portion of the County of York and York a portion of the County of Sunbury, we have a strong fellow feeling with the people of both counties, and look with a kindly eye on their efforts in the political field. We observe that among the candidates for the county of Carleton on the government ticket is Major Good, while Mr. J. Douglas Hazen, the leader of the opposition, is endeavoring to be elected in the county of Sunbury. The mention of these two names naturally recalls some incidents in their lives which are worthy of being remembered. Both Major Good and Mr. Hazen are military men, or at all events Mr. Hazen was a military man up to the time of the Riel rebellion in the North West, holding a commission as one of the officers of the 71st battalion, a corps of which the people of York are justly proud. At the time of the Riel rebellion there was a loud call for the services of our country's brave sons to defend the honor of the flag in the North West and a list in putting down the rebellion. Good men all over the land heard this call and obeyed it with alacrity. A provisional battalion was ordered to be formed out of the 62nd, 71st and other battalions, for service in the North West. Mr. J. Douglas Hazen was one of the men on whom the government counted to answer this call. Every one noticed what an excellent appearance he made in his uniform, and it was thought that a young man who looked so well on parade would just be the person to send to the front; but alas for the weakness of human nature.

When Mr. Hazen learned that his services were required he did not rush into the field and proclaim himself ready for the fray. He hired a horse and drove through the mud and rain to Stanley to beg Major Howe to go to the Northwest in his place. Thus Mr. Hazen escaped the unpleasant prospect of being shot by a half-breed on the prairie; and Major Howe hid himself off to Sussex where the battalion was to be mustered. There were other military gentlemen who about the same time developed sudden sicknesses which unfitted them for active service, amongst others Mr. Hazen's particular friend, Major Cropley, who stood so nobly by Mr. Hazen's side at the opposition convention on Saturday last. Mr. Hazen and Major Cropley are great warriors with their lips, but when it comes to deeds they are found wanting. If any one had believed Capt. Bobadill's talk he would have thought him a greater soldier than Alexander, but he ate the leak all the same.

How different from all this was the conduct of Major Good during the South African war. Here the call to duty was not loud nor urgent, for the seat of war was not in Canada, but in another colony seven thousand miles away. But Major Good was a soldier. He wore the Queen's uniform, and he felt that his duty called him to South Africa. He went and took an active part in those operations which assisted in bringing the war to a close. Major Good is no carpet knight; he is no dress parade soldier; he was and is ready to obey the call of duty and the county in which he lives and which he will represent feels honored by his conduct in going to South Africa to fight for the British flag.

It is needless to say that Major Good as a brave soldier is not favorable to Mr. Hazen. He could not support a skeddaddler under any circumstances. No doubt the same reason influenced Major Howe in refusing to run on the opposition ticket in York. Mr. Howe is the son of a soldier and could hardly be expected to follow a leader who had proved himself insensible to his country's call. Certainly Major Cropley is entitled to a place on the ticket as a person who holds the same views as those of Mr. Hazen with regard to military duty and the claims of the country upon their services.—Fredericton Gleaner.

SKATING AND HOCKEY.

The Century ice rink is a popular resort for our young people. The management have been very successful in catering to the patrons. The race between John Brown, Jr. and Allie Reardon, on Saturday evening, was witnessed by a fair crowd and proved interesting; Allie Reardon was the winner by a half lap.

The great hockey match between two teams of married men, slated for this week, has been postponed until early in March, when an exciting match will be played; the coming few weeks will be devoted to diligent practice, so that the two teams will have the game down fine when the whistle blows for them to face the puck.

On Wednesday morning the Ramblers Hockey team went to St. John to play the Trinity Church seven, on the evening of that day. Wilfred C. Lister is captain of the team which with the spare men, is constituted as follows: M. Munro, goal; W. Dalling, point; F. McRae, cover point; Geo. Mercer, W. Lister, D. Stevens, D. Connell, forwards; Arthur Smith, Josh Corkory, Jr., spare men.

A CORRECTION.

In the Town Council proceedings, in last week's SENTINEL, Coun. Burt was reported as saying: "If the Council knew as much about the cost of law suits as he did, it would avoid a law suit over the bill of $200." What Coun. Burt did say was "Town business should be done the same as private business. If it was his case, he would pay the extra $100, because, if the case went to court, it would cost the extra $100, and he claimed Mr. Colpitts was asking no more than he (Colpitts) had received the former year, and it was not an exorbitant salary."
