POLITICAL RUMORS.

The atmosphere is heavily charged with rumored political changes. There are those who profess to believe that a general election is imminent, indeed some opposition papers claim the date has already been set. Those who expect a contest this autumn are in all probability doomed to disappointment. The lists are not ready and could not be made so far at least three months. Parliament has run only three of the allotted five years, so for various reasons we may be safe in thinking that all reports of an early dissolution are at least premature.

The vacancy in the cabinet is generally regarded as being within the grasp of Hon. Henry R. Emmerson. The popular member for Westmorland would make a capable minister. He is an unflinching liberal, one who has been with the party both in opposition and in power.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier could do nothing more popular with the rank and file of the party in this country than to at once elevate Hon. Mr. Emmerson to the Cabinet. He is well known as personally favoring the St. John Valley route for the Grand Trunk Pacific and would prove to be a tower of strength to those advocating such a course of construction.

The St. John Valley Route.

At the risk of discussing an already well threshed out question, we feel it necessary to say a few words in favor of the claims of the St. John Valley. The best portion of the province lies along the St. John river. The river is of service for communication for not longer than five months of the year, and then less than one third of the valley receives any value from water transportation owing to difficulties in the way of navigation. It is highly necessary that a railway traverse the garden of the province. We cannot think that when the claims of the valley are made apparent to the parties connected with the new railway we shall not obtain justice. Of course upper province people have not the knowledge of local conditions requisite for the undertaking. When proper surveys are instituted we feel assured that the company will gladly avail itself of the valley route.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Not having anything upon which to base an argument, The Press tried to be sarcastic in its wonderful effort on Monday. Nobody minds such feeble attacks considering the source from which they come.

The author of the famous "Old and New Guard" article seems to have once more invaded The Press sanctum, judging by the tone of that paper's editorial. It will probably do about as much good as the famous document they felt so much like kicking themselves for printing.

A large section of the tory party in Ontario continue to exploit Gamey and trot him out on every possible occasion. It is noteworthy that both Robert L. Borden and Sir Mackenzie Bowell found excuses for absents themselves from the Toronto pow-wow at which "the man from Manitoulin" was the star actor.

Now that the Quebec Tories have secured a couple of organizers the other three or four faithful in that province will be securely kept in line.

The Toronto World (opposition) figures that the liberals stand to gain at least fifteen seats in Ontario at the next federal election. This will send a cold chill down the backs of the already famished seekers for plunder.

Since Mr. Jeffries has disposed of Mr. Corbett's contentions in the roped arena, we presume the latter gentleman will transfer the scene of action to the typewriter.

Our advice are that a large number of the conservatives in parliament are heartily in accord with the Grand Trunk Pacific bill, and that the party whip is being vigorously cracked in order to keep up a show of at least outward opposition to the measure.

"Big Bill" Devery, of the Tenderloin district, New York, gave a free picnic the other day. Some of the articles provided by the genial William comprised 25,000 gallons of ice cream, two hundred thousand sandwiches, twenty tons of candy, one thousand baskets of champagne and forty thousand gallons of lager. Campaigning comes high in some quarters, yet is no doubt relished by the masses.

Senator Cochrane, of Quebec, is dead. He was a well known stock-breeder. The government majority will once more go up a couple of notches in the red chamber.

Francis Carter-Cotton, at one time provincial secretary of British Columbia, and now the ablest conservative journalist in the west, has come out flat-footed in favor of the Grand Trunk Pacific bill.

The St. John Star moralises on the fact that the Globe is now reading Hon. Mr. Blair out of the party. The Star claims the ex-minister performed a similar act to the Globe a few months ago. It forgets to mention its own sudden change of front regarding the honorable gentleman.

Picnic and Presentation at Lower Woodstock.

The annual picnic of the Sabbath School at Lower Woodstock was held yesterday, on the grounds of Mr. A. W. Hay at that place. The picnic was a success and was very largely attended. A feature of especial interest in connection with the occasion was the presentation to Mrs. Hay (who in a short time will be moving to Woodstock) of a beautiful silver ice pitcher. The presentation was made on behalf of the community, by Mr. Robt. Ferguson. As the picnicers were about to seat themselves at the liberal repast provided, Mr. Ferguson stepped forward and read to Mrs. Hay the following address. At the close of the address Mrs. Hay made a very feeling reply, controlling herself with difficulty. Many in the company were also visibly affected.

ADDRESS.

Dear Mrs. Hay:

With as little formality as possible I wish to take advantage of the present occasion to address to you a few words on behalf of the members of our little community, especially on behalf of those who have been associated with you in the worship and service of our church and Sabbath school. Being reminded that you will soon be leaving us to take up your residence in the neighboring town, your friends and neighbors were anxious ere you took your departure to say how much they have appreciated you and how much they will miss you. On their behalf therefore I beg to say that we feel that in your removal we are losing one to whom we have ever looked as a leader in all our social and religious activities, one upon whose initiative and good judgment we have ever greatly depended. Personally you have endeavored yourself to us all by your unflinching courtesy, and by the warm interest you have always shown in anything which was of concern to us. Your self-sacrificing and efficient ministrations in the homes into which sickness and sorrow have come, have endeared you especially to those whose beds of trouble. Your place in the church and Sabbath school we do not expect to be able to fill. We submit to your departure as to the inevitable, taking what comfort we can from the thought that you are but passing naturally into the wider fields and more influential circles you are so well fitted to occupy. We express the hope that to you and to us may come the wisdom and strength necessary to the proper fulfillment of our allotted tasks, that though here our paths diverge, they will meet again at the final goal—the door of the Father's house.

It affords me much pleasure to present to you this token of our regard. We trust it may serve to remind you constantly of your friends at Lower Woodstock and of the sentiments to which they have to-day given sincere expression.

THE METHODIST PICNIC.

After a postponement of a day on account of threatening weather the young people of the Methodist Sabbath School held their annual picnic at Clowes' Island on Wednesday afternoon. Backboards and other conveyances carried load after load of young enthusiasts who were bent each and all, upon having an enjoyable outing, and none was disappointed.

The chief feature of the day was the great ball game between a nine selected from R. E. Holyoke's class and the all comers.

The playing was very snappy, some great work being done for the All-Comers by Rev. G. A. Ross, who proved to be a regular slugger. R. E. Holyoke was the star actor for the other team. The way he covered third was worth travelling miles to witness. The game lasted five innings and the score was 12 to 10 in favor of Holyoke's class. Batteries, Lister and Corbett; Sprague, McLaughlan and Clarke; Umpire, Don Payson. Several races were contested later on in the day. Don Payson and Arthur Fisher secured a large number of the prizes.

Better Light! The Sun Oil Co., Limited, St. John, have confined the sale of their high-grade American Kerosene, for the village of Centreville, to C. M. Sherwood. He handles only their best quality, known as the "Electric Light" brand.

A GOOD MOVEMENT.

There is an agitation in favor of starting an athletic club in Woodstock. There are numbers of muscular young fellows who would make excellent athletes and in a very short time would probably be able to hold their own in field and track events with any in the province. Some persons feel that organization should be made at once, and affiliation with the M. P. A. A. secured. At any rate there will be an opportunity to discuss the matter this evening at the office of Wendell P. Jones, M. P., who has kindly consented to give the use of his office for the occasion. All who are in any way interested would do well to drop around about nine o'clock.

DRIVING ACCIDENT.

Miss Ivy Hale of Grafton and Mrs. D. A. Grant of this town were driving near Victoria Corner on Tuesday when the horse became frightened and pitched the occupants from the carriage.

Mrs. Grant escaped injury but Miss Hale had the misfortune to have both bones of the right leg broken near the ankle. Dr. Hand rendered surgical assistance and the patient is resting as comfortably as possible considering the extent of the injury.

NOTICES.

Money to loan on good security. Call at SENTINEL office and learn particulars.

A large number of the members of the Presbyterian church Sabbath school went to St. Andrews by special excursion on Thursday.

John Murphy, a well known farmer of Johnville, was taken to the Provincial Lunatic Asylum on Friday by Deputy Sheriff Foster.

One of the great attractions at the exhibition will be the hauling contest for the handsome trophy contributed by the business men of Woodstock.

Don't forget the big slaughter sale going on daily in the Tracey store, Hartland; also the auction every Saturday evening. A little money goes a long way there.

Woodstock Aug. 20. From this date until September 5th there will be a private sale of household goods at the residence of John McFarland, Corner of Queen and Centre Sts. 21-24.

At the SENTINEL office you may procure deeds, mortgages, bills of sale, tax notices, district assessment lists, county court forms and all ordinary legal blank forms at low prices. Mail orders carefully filled.

The schools will re-open on Wednesday. Messrs. Perry and Loggie will assume charge of the seventh and eighth grades. The Sloyd school will not likely be in operation for a few weeks yet.

The lady champion golfer, Miss Thompson of St. John, was pleasantly entertained on Monday evening by the members of Woodstock Golf Club at the residence of His Worship Mayor Belyea. Whist was the principal amusement.

J. T. Garden, George E. Balmain and H. Paxton Baird are in Montreal attending the Chamber of Commerce gathering from all parts of the Empire. Lord Brassey is presiding officer. Lord Strathcona is in attendance. This is one of the most important meetings ever held in Canada.

The secretary of the Woodstock Golf Club has received an invitation from the St. John club asking for a team to compete against the winter port golfers on Labor Day. It has been decided to accept the challenge and the flower of the local enthusiasts will endeavor to repeat the good work of the last meeting.

DIVE GRACEFULLY.

KING AND QUEEN APPEAR TO ENJOY THEIR WORK AT THE LAKE.

The diving horses, King and Queen, which are at the lake for the week, gave their first performance yesterday afternoon at 5.15, and if anything it was beyond the expectations of the big gathering that waited patiently for nearly 45 minutes, after the performance at the theatre was over, in order to witness the dives.

The animals, King and Queen are almost snow white, are singularly intelligent, and seem to enjoy the plunge from the high tower into the lake, and the swim back to the landing built for them.

When the apparatus was ready, the horses were brought out. Their beauty won for them the greatest admiration from the audience. King was led to the landing stage, where his mate Queen could see him. The mare then went up the long chute composedly and with an air of ease that led the people to understand that she enjoyed the work.

When Queen arrived at the top of the chute, 40 feet above the water, she looked around for a moment, and, seeing King below, gave a delighted little neigh, to which King answered, then slowly placed her forefeet on the little shelf below the platform, and, lowering her head, launched out into the space far enough to clear the platform. She struck the water head first and disappeared below the surface.

In a moment she arose and began swimming toward the landing stage where King was standing. Queen ran over to him and began to caress him with an almost human affection. She was quickly rubbed dry, and then took her mate's former place on the stage while King ascended the incline and went through the same performance that the mare had done.

King's dive was, if anything, even prettier than Queen's. King dived almost straight out into the air, and when descending, inclines his head. His feet are all spread out and as he strikes he sends up a mountain of water. Then, like Queen, he swims back to the stage, where he is then rubbed and sent to the stables.—Worcester, Mass., Telegram, July 21st, 1903.

King and Queen will appear twice daily at the Fredericton exhibition, September 21st to 26th, 1903, Fredericton, N. B.
