

A Cure For Rose Cold Hay Fever and ASTHMA

A prominent New York lawyer in an unsolicited testimonial says: "HIMROD'S ASTHMA CURE cured me when all other remedies failed. Physicians prescribed that I should not even breathe. For years I have been a sufferer of Rose Cold with all of its annoying symptoms, such as constant sneezing and itching watery eyes. Himrod's Asthma Cure is the only remedy I have ever used. It cured me of all my troubles. No words can express my appreciation of its effectiveness."

The late (Dr.) Oliver Wendell Holmes in his book "One Hundred Days in Europe" says: "I have used all remedies—Himrod's Cure is the best. It never failed."

Farmer's Wife—Please, sir, I want one of them things as regglylates the 'eat of a room.

Chemist—Thermometer you mean, ma'am, I suppose.

Farmer's Wife (eagerly)—Yes, sir; that's it, sir. And if you'll be so kind, sir, to set it to sixty five I shall be much obliged; 'cause that's what the doctor says I'm to keep the room at.

Friend—Do you still quarrel with your neighbour about that troublesome hen which would persist in getting into your garden?

Suburbanite—No; we've got over that now.

Fiend—Buried the hatchet, eh?

Suburbanite—No; buried the hen.

Grandfather (at the "Zoo")—Don't get frightened Willie; the tiger is about to be fed, and that's what makes him roar so.

Willie (composedly)—Oh, I ain't afraid of him; father goes on just like that when his meals ain't ready.

The Wife—You remind me so much of my poor first man.

The Husband—You remind me a great deal too much of him, my dear.

Many a young man might be rich enough to marry were it not for the fact that he has to spend all he gets in order to get the girl.

Mother—Johnnie, did the doctor call while I was out?

Johnny—Yes, mother. He felt my pulse and looked at my tongue, and he shook his head and said it was a very serious case, and he left this paper and said he'll call again before night.

Mother—Gracious me! It wasn't you I sent him to see; it was Bobbie.

Twenty Years of Bronchitis.

Captain Dunlop of Kingston, commander of the steamer "Bohemian," of the R & O fleet, suffered unceasingly for twenty years, and although he took treatment all that time permanent relief was not obtained until he used "Catarrhzone" which cured him quickly and permanently.

The Captain says "Catarrhzone is the best cure for Bronchitis on the face of the globe, pleasant to use, quick to relieve and sure to cure." Catarrhzone is a wonderful treatment for all diseases of the Throat, Lungs and Bronchial Tubes. Two months' treatment, price $1, small size 25 cts. Druggists or Poison & Co, Kingston, Ont.

She—When are you going to see papa?

He—I don't know. Every time I have called at his office he has been in.

News Too Good To Keep.

Persons who have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are usually so well pleased with the benefits derived that they tell the good news to their neighbors. There is no medicine which so promptly awakens the action of the liver, invigorates the kidneys and regulates the bowels as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and for this reason they are unapproached as a family medicine. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers.

In thinking of what you might have been you will find a good deal more comfort in looking down than up.

Excited Wife—Wake up, Henry. The house is on fire!

Sleepy Husband—Great Heavens! Now we'll have to move again.

Lifebuoy Soap—disinfectant—is strongly recommended by the medical profession as a safeguard against infectious diseases.

The Father—Have our daughter and that young man made up their minds to get married yet?

The Mother—I think not. I saw them last night, and they were still in the dark.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc

A little girl, aged nine, called her father to her bedside the other evening.

"Papa," said the little diplomat, "I want to ask your advice."

"Well, my dear, what is it about?"

"What do you think it would be best to give me on my birthday?"

Diminished Vitality.

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality.

They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life—that it is that little understood something on which every function of their bodies depends.

Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and endurance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitality.

Mattie gives it as her experience that when fortune turns a man down his friends turn their noses up.

1840. 1903.

During this period

Painkiller

(PERRY DAVIS')

has cured more cases of sickness than any other medicine. It's the best remedy in the world for

Croup, Colic, Diarrhoea, Etc.

A household remedy.

'Yes, I still have the first dollar I ever made,' said the grey haired passenger.

'The idea!' exclaimed the traveling acquaintance, and how did you keep it so long?

'It was very imperfect, being my first, and I'd have had trouble in passing it.'

The Cause of Dyspeptic Pains.

They arise from the formation of gas owing to improper digestion. A very prompt and efficient remedy is Poison's Nervine. It relieves the distention instantly, and by its stimulating action on the stomach, aids digestion. Nervine cures dyspeptic pains by removing the cause.

Nervine is also highly recommended for cramps, colic, summer complaint and inflammation. Sold in large 25c. bottles everywhere.

The Summer Girl—She (just after he has been introduced)—I'm sure I've seen you before, somewhere?

He—Probably; in fact, I'm one of the men you were engaged to last summer.

Teacher (Natural History Class)—You will remember, will you, Tommy that wasps lie in a torpid state in the winter?

Tommy (with an air of retrospection)—Yes'm, but they make up for it in the summer.

'What is a synonym?' asked a teacher.

'Please, sir,' said a lad, 'it's a word you can use in place of another if you don't know how to spell it.'

She—Do you suppose a man ever spoke the truth when he told a woman she was the only girl he had ever kissed.

He—Well, I don't think Adam deceived Eve on that point.

When some people are building up a reputation they are inclined to use an inferior material in places where they think it won't show.

Mistress—Did you manage to find the basket of eggs that was on the pantry floor, Kate?

Servant—Oh, yes, mum, aisily. I shteped in it.

A swell, who conversed the other evening with two ladies to whom nature had denied the gift of speech, called it "a little exercise with the dumb belles."

THE MASTER MECHANIC'S PURE TAR SOAP for hair and softens the skin, while promptly cleansing it of grease, oil, rust, etc. Invaluable for mechanics, farmers, sportsmen. Free sample on receipt of 2c for postage. Albert Toilet Soap Co, Mfrs. Montreal.

Bobbie—Father, how many does it take to make a pair?

Father—Three, my son, counting the clergyman.

WANTED—FAITHFUL PERSONS TO TRAVEL for well established house in a few counties, calling on retail merchants and agents. Local territory. Salary $1024 a year and expenses, payable $30.74 a week in cash and expenses advanced. Position permanent. Business successful and rushing. Enclose self-addressed envelope. Standard House, 35 Caxton Bldg., Chicago.—161-18.

Miss De Style—He's a man after my own heart.

Miss Gunbust—He was after mine, too, but I jilted him.

Live Stock Quotations.

Giraffes—High; good demand.

Monkeys—Lively.

Tigers—Uncertain.

Hippopotamuses—Opened well; closed with a slump.

Kangaroos—Went up and down all day.

Snakes—No re-tail market at all.

Leopards—Some spots report good buying.

Tortoises—Quiet; some snaps offered.

Crocodiles—Opened nicely; some traders bitten at the close.

Camels—Quiet; stock carries too much water.

Lions—Roaring trade all day.

Snails—Sluggish.

Amused the Queen.

Among the stories that most amused the late Queen, who had a keen sense of humor, was one told her by the late Duchess of Athole of the comical advertisement regarding the Dunkeld and Blairgowrie coach which was posted in the village of Dunkeld. The coach was named the Duchess of Athole, and the inn from which it started was the Duke's Arms. The notice ran as follows: "The Duchess of Athole leaves the Duke's Arms every lawful morning at six o'clock."

Jacobite Evasion.

During the '45 Oliphant of Gask, who was a staunch Jacobite, but who was not "out," adopted an ingenious mode of keeping on terms with the powers that were. Gask had a son named Charles. The boy sat next his father every day at dinner, and after the cloth was removed the old gentleman filled a bumper, and turning to his son cried out, with a tap on the shoulder—"Charles, the king's health!"

Culloden Hospitality.

A hoghead of wine was constantly on tap near the hall door of Culloden House for the use of all comers; and it appears in the account books of President Forbes that for nine months' housekeeping in his family the wine alone cost a sum which, at the present price of that article, would amount to upwards of £2000 sterling.

Crim-Full of Health and Energy.

Life is worth living when one can awake after a good night's sleep—ready for anything the day may bring. Eye clear; tongue clean; liver active; stomach right; hand steady and every nerve vibrating with that splendid sense of the power of perfect health. Take few enjoy this enviable morning awakening. An English Notion of Highlanders.

In "Marchant's History of the Rebellion," published in London in 1746, we find him thus expressing his astonishment at the conduct of the Highlanders at Derby—"To see these savages, from the officer to the commonest man, at their several meals, first stand up and pull off their bonnets, and then lift up their eyes in a most solemn and devout manner, and mutter something in their own gibberish, by way, I suppose, of saying grace, as if they had been so many Christians!"

John's Excuse.

The Rev Mr W—, clergyman (to a member of his church who is a hawker of crockery ware and horse-dealer, and who had become a backslider)—"Why, John, I've not observed you at church lately. You used to be a regular attendant at Sacrament." Member—"Well, sorr, I'll just tell ye the truth. The thing is this—it disna suit oor way o' dain'."

Lumbago and Pains in the Back

Totally disabled this Merchant-Physician failed, but Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cured.

MR. THOMAS A. EMBREE, general merchant, Springhill, N.S., writes—

"As the result of a severe cold settling on the kidneys, I contracted kidney disease, which lingered for years, causing me much suffering from terrible pains in the back. For some time I was entirely unable to work, and though I tried several physicians I could only obtain slight temporary relief."

"Having heard of the merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in many similar cases, I began to use them, and after using seven boxes was completely cured. The cure is due entirely to the use of this grand medicine, which has since cured several persons to whom I recommended them."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Rates and Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box of his remedies.
