HYMENEAL.

MARSTEN—JAMIESON.

Wedding of a Woodstock, N. B. school teacher at Island Falls, Me. An event of unusual importance in Island Falls social circles, was the handsome church wedding, which occurred at the Whittier Congregational church, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 7th, when Hamilton Lee Marsten of Northampton, N. B., and Theresa Jamieson of this place were joined in the sacred bonds of matrimony, by Rev. F. S. Dollif, pastor of the church. The bridal party, consisting of the bride and groom, with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel R. Crabtree as best man and bridesmaid, entered the church at 5 o'clock and were escorted to the altar by Misses Winnifred Truworthy and Leah Crabtree as flower girls, bearing bouquets of assorted pinks, as the Lohengrin bridal march was rendered by Miss Damaris Merriman. The ushers were Misses Emma and Beatrice Truworthy, nieces of the bride, and Miss Sadie Curtis. The bride was becomingly attired in white silk, trimmed with white chiffon and white silk medallions, wearing a bridal veil and carrying a bunch of brides roses. The full ring service was used according to the Methodist Episcopal ritual. The church was appropriately decorated with palms and evergreens, the ceremony being witnessed by a large gathering of invited friends. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harry E. Truworthy, on Main st., where those holding invitations gathered to extend their congratulations and view the large number of beautiful presents. Ice cream sherbert, several kinds of cake and fruit were served during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Marsten took the evening train east for their home at Northampton, N. B., where they will be at home Feb. 1st. The best wishes of a large circle of friends follow them.

HARPER—YOUNG.

At Southampton on the 17th inst., at the residence of her sister, Mrs. John Akerley, by Rev. J. A. Cahill, Mrs. Mary A. Young and John N. Harper of Jacksonville, were united in marriage. The bride was led to the altar by her brother, Frank Brooks, while the wedding march was being played by Miss Maggie Akerley. Only the immediate relatives were present. A rich supper was served. The bride was neatly attired, and the wedding presents were numerous and handsome.

Another Educational Show.

DRAFT HORSE MEN IN LINE.

For a number of years Canadian horses met with a ready sale at good prices, and then came a period during which even the best were scarcely saleable, and inferior stock could hardly be given away. The importation of high class stallions almost ceased and the trade became generally demoralized. During the last two or three years business has been gradually reviving and the past year has seen a large number of importations of pure bred stallions for breeding purposes. The draft horse is undoubtedly the most satisfactory type for the average farmer to breed. Good heavy horses weighing from 1,500 lbs. upwards and of good quality are likely to meet with a ready sale for some time to come. Such horses are tractable and easily broken and while awaiting sale can be readily used for any sort of farm work, thus paying for their keep which the fancy horses rarely do.

To produce horses at a profit it is highly desirable that only the best class of registered stallions be used. In order to facilitate the selection of such stallions arrangements have been made to hold at Grand's Repository, Toronto, on the 4th, 5th, and 6th, of February, a Show of Heavy Draft Stallions with a prize list amounting to some $1,500, at which an interesting programme of educational addresses will be provided by expert horsemen. The breeders of heavy horses have for some time complained that the Toronto Horse Show usually held in the latter part of April or the beginning of May, was so late as to be inconvenient for both buyers and sellers. Therefore it has been thought advisable to hold a show in February so that private breeders, as well as stallion syndicates and other associations may have ample time to make their selection for the coming season. The dates have been fixed thus early in order to meet the wishes not only of exhibitors, but of buyers from all parts of the Dominion, and it is hoped that the Show will be liberally patronised both by exhibitors and visitors.

F. W. HODSON,
Live Stock Commissioner.

Wilmot S. S. Convention.

Centreville, Jan. 14th, 1903.

The parish of Wilmot Sabbath School convention met at the Baptist Church, Good's corner on the 13th inst. Despite the heavy fall of snow and the bad condition of the roads a large number of delegates and superintendents were present at the afternoon session. A very profitable session was held. 7 schools were reported all evergreen other schools are kept open but not reported. Revs Freeman and Cahill being present added much to the interest of the afternoon session. The report showed that the interest in the Parish along this line of christian work was good. The evening session like the afternoon was full of life and showed much preparation. A normal lesson was given by Mrs G R Smith of Lakeville, which showed that this sister had made a careful study of her subject, and was much appreciated by all. Rev J Cahill gave an address on Temperance, he took up the subject of the great "Deceive r", and showed in a masterly way, who was being deceived by this great evil. This address was powerfully delivered and heartily received by the convention, the house being full. We wished many more could have heard this address it might have helped more. It is time that a greater interest was taken along this line and this evil of evils should be driven from our land. R B F Freeman put himself on record and endorsed the address of Rev Cahill, and hoped that it would be productive of much good. Other business was carried through and the evening session was a powerful good one, and we hope that the good work done will have a lasting effect. The convention was invited to hold its next session in the Methodist church at Centreville, this was carried unanimously. Excellent music was furnished for the convention by noted singers from Upper Bloomfield and Good's Corner, Mrs Herbert London presiding at the organ. Convention closed by singing God be with you and prayer by Rev Freeman.

E. L. WEST,
Secretary.

New Brunswick Dairying.

Everything promises that next year will see a great increase in our cheese and butter production. To make dairying profitable the most up-to-date methods and greatest skill are necessary and it is therefore well that our dairymen should frequently confer with each other and with the best experts in this line.

To afford such an opportunity the Farmers' and Dairymen's Association meetings at Woodstock and Sussex will devote considerable time to the subject of dairy work. Prof. J. H. Grisdale of Ottawa will talk on "The Selection, Breeding and Feeding of Profitable Dairy Cows." Mr. J. F. Tilley will speak of "The lessons and results of Co-operative Dairy Effort in New Brunswick." Mr. C. F. Alward will discuss "Up-to-date Dairying from the Farmers Standpoint," and Mr. Harvey Mitchell will talk of "The Farmers part in Cheese and Butter Making." Ample time will be allowed for discussion and it is hoped that a large number of farmers will attend the meetings and carry their practical experience to enrich the discussions on the addresses outlined above.

OUR APPLE CROP.

New Brunswick is a province well adapted to the growth of apples and there is no reason why our people should not be producing large quantities for export. With the object of encouraging apple growing it has been arranged that the program of the Meetings of the Farmers' and Dairymen's Association at Woodstock on the 26th, 27th, and 28th insts, and at Sussex on the 29th and 30th insts, shall include a discussion upon apple growing led by some of the best Canadian experts. Prof. W. T. Macoun, Horticulturist of the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, who has had a very extended experience with different varieties in a climate quite similar to our own; Mr. W. S. Blair, Horticulturist of the Maritime Experiment Farm, Napan, N. S. who knows our conditions thoroughly and Mr. Harold Jones one of the most successful practical fruit growers in the St. Lawrence Valley, will be the speakers on apple growing. Mr. Blair will show a number of samples of apples suited to New Brunswick conditions and there will also be an exhibit of apples grown in the various parts of the Province. Everyone interested in apple growing should visit at least one of these meetings and take part in the discussion.

A Handsome Calendar.

The Intercolonial Railway calendar for 1903 is a beautiful specimen of art. The lithograph is the company's trade mark, a Moose's head, which is in admirable harmony with its surroundings, which is an imitation of burnt wood work. Of the trade mark the Montreal Star remarks:—

"The moose head is used by the Intercolonial Railway as representative of the largest and finest of the game animals in Canada, and one which is of itself 'inter-colonial' in being common to Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. No railway in America passes for so long a distance through a country which is recognized everywhere as the 'Home of the Moose.' Apart from this geographical application, the moose is held by the Intercolonial Railway as representing the government line in its position among railways. As the moose is king of the forests. In the size, symmetry of form, strength, endurance and speed of the moose are found the points of excellence for which the Intercolonial Railway seeks to commend itself to the public."

FEBRUARY NUMBER.

New Idea Woman's Magazine.

The principal features of the New Idea Woman's Magazine for February are, as always the utilitarian, and in patterns, descriptions of costume, fancy work, and domestic affairs there is nothing more helpful to the home-maker now published; but the literary features are equally as valuable. The stories are charmingly told and well illustrated. Mrs. E. A. Osborne's paper upon Lincoln, entitled "A Nation's Patron Saint," is especially appropriate, and Ernest Neal Lyon's poem on Washington emphasizes the patriotic element of the contents. Mrs. Wilson Woodrow's article upon Mrs. Fiske as "Mary of Magdala" continues the series upon the prominent women of the stage.

SOMETHING MARVELLOUS.

Councillor James Faulkner on his return home on the 15th inst from his duties at the council board, some fifty of the residents of this place assembled at his house on the same evening and presented him with a fine willow rocking chair and an address as follows:—

To Mr James Faulkner:—

We the members of the Windsor Union Sabbath School, desire to express to you our appreciation of your services as Superintendent of our school for the past six years. We remember with gratitude your labor of love and self sacrifice, and your devotion to a cause, which we believe you have been spiritually benefited by this work, for all work for God brings with it its sure reward. As you have been elected as teacher of one of our primary classes, your influence in the furtherance of the cause of Christ will not be limited, but will have an opportunity to become more practical and concrete; after all the work of teacher is vastly more important than that of Superintendent in as much as the teacher has the destiny of souls in his power. It is also a well recognized fact that primary classes should have the most efficient, devoted and consecrated teachers in the school, for in the primary classes is laid the foundation of christian character. We trust that you may feel the importance of the sacred duty resting upon you and that you may be blessed in the work of Teacher, as you have been in the work of Superintendent. We ask you to accept this Chair, not as a measurement of your regard, but as a reminder of our respect and appreciation and fraternal love.

May you always engage actively in the work of the church, may God's richest spiritual and temporal blessing be yours to enjoy, and when done with this life, may you be gathered with the redeemed of the Lord to enjoy the bliss of life eternal, is the sincere wish of the Windsor Union Sunday School.

Mr Faulkner in return thanked them for their kindness and generosity in a five minutes address.

On the 18th the same crowd gathered at the home of Robert Henderson esquire, and presented his daughter Eunice, with a ladies dressing case and an address as follows:—

To Miss Eunice Henderson:—

We the members of the Windsor Union Sabbath School desire to express to you some token of our esteem and indebtedness to you as our organist for past three years. Well do we remember when we requested you to take upon you the duties of organist and your reply to the same; with many fears you took upon you the task and to-night we appreciate your labour of the past and we hope through a kind providence you may be permitted for many years yet to preside at the organ in our church, and to-night, as we meet at this your home, with your parents and other of your household, we feel to thank them through you for their kindness this evening and favors of the past. And now Miss Eunice, in behalf of those present this evening and the members of the Windsor Union church and Sabbath school, please allow us to present to you this Ladies Dressing Case as a small token of our appreciation of your labour of love and self-sacrifice among us, and now Miss Henderson, wherever your lot may be cast and whatever station in life you may fill, we pray that the hand of an all wise providence may guide and direct you and that you may still continue your labour of love and kindness among us, and that we may at last when done with this life, all meet at Jesus feet, and there sing the song of the redeemed, is the sincere wish of the Union church and Sabbath school of Windsor.

After the address, Miss Henderson thanked all those present and others who appreciated her labour in a pleasant address.

Gillespie.

The heaviest storm of the season visited this section on Saturday and Sunday.

Preparing and hauling pulp wood is quite a profitable business here; also spool wood, which sells readily at $3.50 per cord in Limestone. Fire wood is also in good demand of late.

The news of several cases of small pox at Presque Isle caused no little excitement in this and adjacent settlements, but as no deaths have occurred from the disease the scare has somewhat subsided; yet every precaution is being taken to ward off the approach of that much dreaded disease. Vaccination is the order of the day.

Mr and Mrs Bradley called on Mr and Mrs Gee on Sunday.

Mr Bradley keeps a watchful eye on Miss Canada's herds that no poachers may steal in their forest home and carry off her moose, caribou or deer unpunished.

Mrs Stokoe and daughter expect to start for home to-morrow. H.

St. Andrews.

Very cold indeed. The temperature has been lower on several mornings this winter than it has been for many years.

Fuel is quite dear in this town, but thanks to a kind Providence there is an abundance of it, and as times are prosperous there is plenty of money to purchase wood and coal and all other necessities. There is no need of any one suffering in this place who is willing to work and will use their earnings for the necessities and comforts of life.

There is but little snow on the roads, yet the sleighing is about as near perfect as it can be.

It might be a mild surprise for some of the SENTINEL's Carleton Co. readers to be told that building operations are going right along in St. Andrews through all kinds of weather.

Foreman Pratt of St John, has a crew of men erecting an ice house for the C P R, near the station, with capacity for storing 5,000 tons of ice.

It is the general impression that this place is on the eve of the greatest boom in its history.

The movements of the C P R company, though somewhat mysterious at present, have greatly increased the hopes of all that St Andrews will in a few years be one of the most famous resorts on the continent.

It is understood that the railway company will have charge of the Algonquin Hotel next season, and there are rumors that they intend putting up another large hotel before long. We will keep informed as matters develop.

SHELLFISH.
