Little Tommie had been put to bed alone. It was upstairs, and the thunder rolled and lightning flashed unmercifully. He lay quietly until he could no longer stand it, and then his little night-gowned figure appeared at the head of the stairs.

'Ma!' he cried.

'Yes, my son,' came the calm rejoinder.

'I'm afraid, ma. It thunders so, and I'm all alone.'

'Go back to bed, Tommie,' came his mother's voice. 'Don't you know nothing can hurt you?'

Tommie when back to bed, but not to stay.

'Ma! he cried again, and this time the little figure was half-way downstairs.

'Tommie,' called his mother, 'don't you know I have told you nothing can hurt you, God is always with you?'

'Then, ma,' and this time there came an audible sniff from the weeping Tommie, 'you come up and sleep with God and let me sleep with pa.'

Little Jack—What did papa, mean by saying that he was captain of this ship?

Ma—Oh, that is only his way of saying that he is the head of the house.

Little Jack—Then if pa is the captain, what are you?

Ma—Well, I suppose I am the pilot.

Little Jack—Oh, yes; and then I must be the compass.

Ma—The compass! Why the compass?

Little Jack—Why, the captain and pilot are always boxing the compass, you know.

'An ideal match,' they say, indicating the newly couple.

He was a man of somewhat unfortunate connubial experiences, and he said to his partner in the interval of a waltz, with rather more heat than politeness, 'Well, I think men are fools to marry.'

'Perhaps so,' retorted his partner, 'but then you must remember that, unfortunately for us girls, there is nothing else we can marry.'

MORMONISM IN CANADA.

ANOTHER UTAH IN THE TERRITORIES
STATEMENTS OF A LONDON JOURNAL.

The rumor that the grandson of Brigham Young, now under arrest for a most brutal murder in New York, was married some time ago to a young Mormon woman in the Canadian Northwest, has attracted renewed attention to the followers of the Mormon faith in Canada, says The London Morning Leader. Every now and then one of the Canadian newspapers will publish an alarmist article about the astonishing influx of United States settlers into the Northwest Territory, and the danger there is of these settlers gradually obtaining the balance of political, power, and some day or other using their influence in favor of annexation to the United States. In all these articles, however, the fact that the Mormons are gradually establishing a new Utah in the Territories is entirely missed. And yet that is what they are doing, and that is what is their avowed intention.

Headed by a visionary but a visionary who, like a true prophet, sees his visions materialize, they have started to settle in the district around Lettbridge, and have founded a town called Raymond, which is destined, says a Canadian correspondent, to have a population of at least thirty thousand souls. They have selected a most fertile neighborhood and a country which will be immensely benefited shortly by the great irrigation ditch, which is now being constructed. The man who is at the head of the Mormon movement is Mr. Jessie Knight, a Mormon capitalist from Utah, who claims that in a vision he saw the possibilities of the Northwest country, and who founded a town named Raymond, after his son, which he says will be the modern Salt Lake City of the Canadian West. This vision, which he announced publicly, showed him his son Raymond leading the ten lost tribes into the colony. The banners they carried were sheaves of wheat, and their way lay towards a stately
