Tilley, dairy superintendent of Woodstock, accompanied him from that city and enjoyed the trip very much. Mr. Queen spent Sunday with friends at Marysville and returned home this morning. —Gleaner.

A WARNING NOTE.

We are very glad to learn that a sufficient amount has been collected on this year's assessment to bring the bank debit balance somewhere within hailing distance of the limit allowed by statute. Chapter LVIII. of the Acts of the Assembly, 58 Victoria, section six, provides as follows:—"Should the receipts from taxes and other sources of revenue of said Town (Woodstock) be temporarily insufficient to meet the current expenses in the different departments at any time during any year, the Town Council shall have the power, and are hereby authorized, to borrow from any incorporated or chartered bank doing business in this Province, or overdraw their account at the bank in which the same is kept, upon such terms as may be determined upon such loan or overdraft as may be determined upon by such banks and the said Council, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid; provided however, that such loans or overdrafts shall not at any time during the year exceed the sum of five thousand dollars. Such loans or overdrafts at any time effected or made, and interest thereon, shall be annually paid out of the moneys assessed and collected for Town purposes."

It is not our purpose to harp unnecessarily upon the shortcomings of the council in the past. The fact remains absolutely true that the section above quoted was violated in both letter and spirit. We earnestly hope that in the future our civic rulers will avoid breaking the law in this respect. It is their duty to keep within the requirements of the statutes governing the town, and if they fail to do so, some steps must be taken to restrain them.

SHOULD BE STOPPED.

There is a splendid opportunity for someone to distinguish himself by rounding to some of the smart gentlemen from outside who periodically canvass the town for job work. These representatives of firms in St. John, London, Toronto and Montreal, scoop up the best of the business in letter heads, envelopes, statements, receipt forms, etc. The SENTINEL pledges itself to put a stop to the practice of allowing this game to go on unmolested.

If there is any law that will put a stop to it, we guarantee to head off the first offender we can catch dealing directly with the consumer.

FORMERLY OF THIS TOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. George Raymond, of Obrien, Wash., are guests at New Brunswick House. They are the parents of Mrs. Jones, and grand-children of Mrs. Fisher. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond have ten children, forty-five grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren, all living, and they are both well and hearty.—Snohomish County Tribune.

(Mr. and Mrs. Raymond formerly lived in Woodstock, and are grand-children of Wendell P. Jones M. P., and Thane M. Jones.—Ed. Sen.)

MR. BLAIR'S POSITION.

Mr. Blair meanwhile bears himself with dignity. If comparisons were not odious, it might be said that he carries himself more gracefully in a difficult situation than does another cabinet minister who retired some time ago. Mr. Blair is not peevish. He does not deal in reproaches or veiled allusions. He knows the value of an honorable silence, and he was respect for his self-restraint. When he made his statement in the house he had a magnificent opportunity to destroy himself. That he did not do so shows not only his sagacity but his good taste. He grew in esteem for his personal character. Old members said that his performance reminded them of nothing so much as D'Alton McCarthy addressing a hostile house on the Jesuit estates bill. His words were received with the same respectful attention and his conclusions with the same polite but unequivocal dissent. Whatever humiliation Mr. Blair may have thought he suffered he is too big a man and too discreet to be venomous. He has foreborne to threaten, or to say inferentially, "what I could divulge if I wanted to." Consequently, he has lost no friends. His relations with the Liberal party in everything but the point of difference are most amicable.—Toronto Star.

VANCOUVER LETTER.

The friends of Mrs. S. T. Baker and Mr. Ben. Chase will be pleased to know that they arrived safe and sound in Vancouver on Wednesday, the 15th inst. Mr. Samuel Jones' health has greatly improved since he came here. There was quite a gathering of the clans of Burpee here on Dominion day. Will Burpee and wife, Howard and wife, Charlie and wife and Mrs. G. W. Brown of Fairhaven, Washington, came over on an excursion train, and there were as many more picked up around town. After they had been escorted round the park and other places of interest, viewing the magnificent landscapes and water-scapes, they took the train at 6 o'clock and made their escape back to the "land of the free and the home of the brave," so free and so brave that lynchings are of frequent occurrence in that glorious Republic. But before returning they gathered at the home of F. W. Burpee in the west end, and sat down to a repast on his lawn, 14 of them, where they did ample justice to the good things provided, for which business they were well qualified.

There has recently been organized here a Maritime Province Association with the following staff of officers: Honorary president, The Venerable Archdeacon Pentreath of Kings Co., N. B.; president, Hon. ex-Governor T. R. McInnis, of Inverness Co., N. S.; 1st vice-president, S. H. Brown, Queens Co., P. E. I.; 2nd vice president, John Johnston, Northumberland Co., N. B.; secretary, T. B. Crosby, Yarmouth Co., N. S.; treasurer, A. C. Brydon-Jack, Fredericton; membership committee, J. M. K. Letson, Chatham, N. B.; S. McPherson, Kings Co., P. E. I.; James F. Stewart, Antigonish, N. S., and Miss Kate Burpee, Carleton Co., N. B., organizer. We have 128 male members and nearly as many lady honorary members. When the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of Canada was held here, the delegates from the Maritime Provinces were invited by the Association to a conversation in O'Brien's Hall. Red badges were provided for the members and white badges for free distribution to the guests, of which there were about one hundred. The president gave the address of welcome, to which the Hon. D. Laird, formerly of P. E. I., Rev. Andrew Rogers of New Glasgow, N. S., and Judge Forbes of St. John, N. B., responded; all eloquent and able speeches, but the Judge took the cake, although he did not stop to get any, of which there was an ample supply. After the ice cream and cake were passed around, and every one had all they wished, we had a free and easy time, some swapping stories about things that happened years ago way back east, and others making enquiries of what had happened since they came away. The meeting broke up about 11 o'clock p. m., by singing Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King, everyone well pleased with the entertainment. The fragments that remained after the entertainment we gathered up that nothing be lost, which was about 12 baskets, and by a vote donated them to the Alexandra orphanage of this city.

There is no railroad that is absolutely free from accidents, but the C. P. R. certainly enjoys a unique reputation on this continent for freedom from fatalities. Although the transcontinental service has now been in operation for over a quarter of a century, there has been no loss of life of any passenger on this great stretch of its system in that long period. The excellence of the road and splendid management of the service and the reliability of the men in charge of the lives of the passengers is what makes this line preferable to any other. It is certainly a matter of gratification to every Canadian that our great national road should possess such an enviable history when we have so many instances of awful catastrophes on the roads across the line.

RAMBLER.

A LARGE TURTLE.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:

Mr. George Goodhue and Calvin Green went on a fishing trip, up Eel River, from Benton some ten miles, and captured one of the largest tortoises on the earth; it is expected it will be on exhibition at the great carnival in Woodstock. If you do not believe it is the largest on earth, come and see; he will carry two men on his back or draw a carriage loaded with what you might put on, except a locomotive.

THE INDIAN AGAIN.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:

A week or so ago I was telling you how Mister Burt didn't get his money because he was green. Now do you no a feller can really make it pay to be a Counsellor when he aint green. You no Mister Garden, well he aint no green garden. You remember he sed Mister Burt orter have his pay because he did a hole lot of work for the town. Well you no well as I do that a feller what he thinks another feller hadn't orter work for nothin aint very much likely to work for nothin 'himself. Then there is Mister Shazey Green, he aint green you needn't think so.

Praps you think it dont pay these fellows to be Counsellors because they dont sell no suer pipes nor soft black stuff for the sidewocks, but I guess there is other stuff sold besides suer pipes and sidewocks. Now you just guess how it is that it pays them, and if you can't guess it rite, why then the next time I write you I'll tell you all about it.

Theres Mister Beleya, his job cost him a hole lot so every buddy says, and all he gits out of it is the onner, you know he has the onner of brakin the law neerly almost every time he sines one of them town checks.

Sum of the other fellers has the onner of brakin some of the other laws but they make money by doin it, you see that makes quite a difference.

They tell me that heavy dew we had the other afternoon, week or to ago started some of Bob Cannedys new sidewock down river twords Saint John.

Yours truly,
PAUL JIM.

THE STORY OF THE GOOD PEOPLE WHO RALLIED TO THE SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH.

BY GEORGE ADE.

A congregation needed money for the church so the women got together and decided to hold a Festival. Sister Virtue invited them to come and carouse on her front lawn. Some fifty members of the flock flew out and bought a few things to wear. The Outlay ran up to about $8 per head. Mr. Virtue got $9 worth of Chinese Lanterns and hung them round. He wanted to do the thing up Brown, so as to get a puff in the Local Papers. The papers said that Virtue's Front Yard looked like Fairy Land. That kind of Notice was worth $9 of anyone's money. Mr. Virtue and three other pillars of the Church wasted $7.50 worth of Valuable Time unloading tables and camp stools. The women ruined $14 worth of Complexion in the Hot Kitchen making Angel Food and Fig Cake.

On the night of the Festival the Public tramped down $45 worth of Shrubbery. When the time came to check up $17 worth of Silver had been lost in the shuffle. The drop from the candles had ruined $30 worth of Summer Suits and Dress Waists. Four children gorged themselves, and each was tied in a true lovers knot with Cholera Morbus before another sunrise, and the Doctor's bills footed up $20.

After clearing the wreck, paying the truckman, and settling for Ice Cream and Berries, it was found that the church was $6.50 to the good, so everybody said it was a grand success.

MORAL.—Anything to avoid dropping it in the basket.

THE REDISTRIBUTION BILL.

Parliament has been engaged with the terms of the Redistribution Act. As finally brought down it provides for the union of Kings and Albert counties, to return one member. This is a decrease of one for this province. In Nova Scotia two members are taken away. Pictou is to return only one, while Victoria and Cape Breton counties are divided into two ridings. In Prince Edward Island the county of Queens will return two members, and each of the other two counties will send only one. The government has shown remarkable judgment in the terms of the bill, and the most bitter opposition critics cannot show any evidence of unfair treatment in the government proposals. All of these changes have been rendered necessary by the census of 1901.

It was in 1776 that the London Clearing House was established by private bankers.

India has 324,000 acres of tea plantation, producing about 181,000,000 lbs of tea a year.

THE TRADE IN EGGS.

Some advice regarding the marketing of fresh eggs, and the preservation of eggs for future use or shipment, is given by the poultry division, Ottawa, concerning fresh eggs, Mr. Hare says,—Eggs to be palatable should be eaten in a strictly fresh condition; therefore they should reach the consumer without unnecessary delay. This requires (1) that the eggs be collected regularly every day and stored in a cool room (temp. 40 to 50 deg. F.) until a sufficient number are on hand to deliver to a dealer; (2) that the dealer forward the eggs to the merchant at least once a week; and (3) that the merchant should protect the eggs from deterioration while in his possession.

Some farmers are so situated that they can establish a city trade in fresh eggs throughout the year. Strictly fresh eggs shipped from the farm to the city merchant weekly, are usually bought at a premium of several cents a dozen. For all farmers a most profitable branch of the business is the trade in fresh winter eggs. Every winter there is a great demand for new-laid eggs; the supply is limited and high prices are paid. Exporting firms buy great quantities of eggs during the Spring and Summer months.

There is a growing preference on the home markets for brown-shelled eggs. The shells of the eggs should be wiped clean, if necessary, and the eggs graded in size. For shipment to the merchant the eggs should be packed in cases holding twelve dozens or thirty dozens each.

Egg Preservation.—While no process of preservation will retain the fine flavor of a newly laid egg, so that later it can honestly be sold as such, yet for culinary purposes when the supply of new laid eggs is limited, preserved eggs meet the demand.

The eggs are placed in the preservative during the spring and summer. None but fresh eggs should be packed; stale or cracked eggs are not only bad in themselves, but they will affect those packed with them. The eggs should be fairly clean, as those that require washing are poor packers.

Eggs can be preserved in lime water, or placed in cold storage.

The lime water is prepared by adding one pound of new lime to four gallons of water. The mixture should be well stirred and the liquid portion, which is "saturated lime water," poured into a crock or water tight barrel; the vessel containing the lime water should be placed in a cool room. As exposure to the air tends to weaken the preservative, the vessel should be covered with a piece of Burlap upon which a paste of lime is spread. The eggs can be placed in the preservative every day; they should be packed closely in the vessel, but no part of any egg should be above the surface of the liquid. Afterwards the eggs should be examined occasionally and if necessary fresh lime water added to keep the eggs always covered.

CASH PRIZES FOR THE PARADE.

The parade on the morning of August 12th is expected to be the best display of the kind ever witnessed in our town. In order that the opening feature of the great mid-summer carnival may be worthy of the occasion, the committee in charge have had placed at their disposal a large sum of money, which they offer in prizes as follows:—

For the most Original Float, $15.
For the most Comical Float, $10.
For the most Fancy Float, $15.
For the best Trades and Manufacturers' Float, $10.

They have also provided a five dollar prize for the best fancy turn out, decorated and driven by a lady. There is a similar prize for the best fancy and most original bicycle, ridden by either lady or gentleman. In order that a class may be set apart particularly for outsiders, there is a five dollar prize which will be given to the owner of the best decorated Farmer's Wagon carrying the largest family.

The committee wish it clearly understood that anyone may compete for the cash prizes, but in order to receive an award there must be at least three competitors for each.

The prizes are certainly generous, and there should be a large number of entries from both town and county. There is no entrance fee required. For any further information apply to Guy B. Munzer, chairman of parade committee.

Mr. Teed, of Richmond Corner, and the regular burial service took place at Christ church, where in the adjoining cemetery the little child was laid away. The death of their daughter was a sad loss to the parents; and keenly felt by Mr. Kerrigan who is in poor health.

Forty Years Ago.

Taken from CARLETON SENTINEL, of August 1st, 1863.

During the present week quite a competition has been going on between the steamers Tobique and Gazelle—both boats running on the same days. We should hardly suppose it was profitable business for the owners of these boats; but so long as they continue to carry passengers at 25 cents each way from and to Woodstock and Fredericton, the public will be perfectly satisfied.

Mr. George C. Fowler, of this town, had his right hand quite seriously injured by the circular in one of the mills here a few days since.

A few boarders can be accommodated in Woodstock College at $25 per annum.

As the train was coming up within two miles of Canterbury, on Friday night, the engine came in contact with four oxen belonging to Darius Dickinson. The oxen were killed and the engine derailed.
