The Carleton Sentinel.

FRIDAY, APRIL 3, 1903.

Published by THE CARLETON SENTINEL PUBLISHING CO., at their Office, in VANWART'S BRICK BUILDING, King Street, Woodstock, upstairs.

It appears that Mr. Gamey has got his back up, on account of his charges, against Hon. Mr. Stratton, having been submitted to an impartial tribunal for investigation, and may refuse to recognize the Commission or appear before it.

Our worthy representative, W. P. Jones, M. P. F., did himself and the county infinite credit in his able speech in moving the address in reply to the speech from the throne. It was manly, logical, and evidenced broadness of thought, and general information.

Mr. Tweeddale, of Victoria county, who was Mr. Jones' seconder, was brief, but happy and forceful, in his remarks, and well sustained his reputation for being an apt and ready speaker.

MR. CARVELL REPLIES.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:

I am sorry to be again compelled to trespass upon your space in further reply to the statements of the Dispatch regarding the late Liberal Convention held in this town, and may say at the outset that I have no intention of continuing this correspondence any further as I have no ambition to have any correspondence or business with a man whose mental calibre is so small that he will publish misleading statements regarding any person in his paper, and not allow them the privilege of replying through the same source, thus giving his readers both sides of the question.

In my first letter I positively denied having done anything toward 'packing' the convention as was contended by Mr. Appleby in the first article referred to, and challenged him to name a gentleman by whom his statements could be proved. This he has not done but now contends that the list of the nominating committee was made up by me before the convention opened. This I deny and challenge him to prove the same by any gentleman who nominated anyone or more of the nominating committee. I showed the means taken by Mr. Appleby to "pack" the convention in his own interests, which he has not denied. I stated that he could only muster 13 votes out of 200, which he of course has not denied. I stated that he could not name one out of the whole nominating committee who would say that I had ever asked him directly or indirectly to vote for or against anybody and this he has not denied. I stated the insult offered to the whole Liberal party of the town in his own office and this again has not been denied. I asked him to name the colleagues who would go on a ticket with him, and he has been unable to name them. I stated that Messrs McCain and Shaw would not run with him and this also has not been denied but, on the contrary, he has entered into a harangue about my doings in the past, without producing a particle of evidence in support of his statements, none of which I shall refer to in any manner or form whatever, excepting his attempt to show that he made no distinction in the distribution of bye-road money and that Liberals were always treated as well as Conservatives. It would be too much of a trespass upon your space to give the numerous instances which could be named, but I will give you one as a sample of a great many others.

During the last summer Mr. Ziba Gray, who was the bye-road commissioner for the parish of Northampton and an upright and consistent Liberal, asked Mr. Appleby to allow him to spend money on a number of roads and particularly on one known as the "Hourihan Road," on which all the residents are strong Liberals, and which was sadly in need of repairs. Mr. Appleby refused him, but, on the contrary directed Mr. Gray to spend $50 on a lumber road leading to James Carr's mill on which there is not a single settler and which would not be used by any person excepting Mr. James Carr who, I don't think even Mr. Appleby would contend, has ever been a very strong Liberal.

Mr. Appleby's action in opposing the Liberal ticket when he could not have his own way shows very plainly that his political interests are centered in himself entirely rather than in the Liberal party, and had he worked as hard for the election of the ticket as he did for its defeat, possibly the result might have been different although the vote shows that where he was best known his defection was a benefit rather than an injury, and now that the public have a few of the facts before them,

I am satisfied that his influence against the party in any part of the county, will be even less in the future than it was in the late contest.

Had Mr. Appleby used the Liberal party of this county as he should have done, it would be impossible for me or anybody else to so pack a convention called in the manner in which this one referred to was called, that he could only muster 13 supporters.

I am sorry to have been compelled to trespass upon your space to such an extent, and so far as I am concerned, I am done with the controversy. I am willing to leave the decision as to the truth or falsity of the many statements made against me by the Dispatch to the Liberal electors of the county, many of whom have a personal knowledge of both Mr. Appleby and myself and many of the statements referred to.

I sincerely trust that Mr. Appleby may enjoy the new position, politically, which he has chosen to adopt, but think that when his wrath has had time to subside, he will feel that he has made a great mistake in slandering the leaders of the Liberal party in the manner in which he has done, and especially the 20 gentlemen who formed the nominating committee at the late Liberal Convention.

Sincerely yours,
F. B. CARVELL.

OBITUARIES.

CHARLES BAILEY.

Charles Bailey, who for many years was associated with his brother the late Robert Bailey, in the boot and shoe business, in the town, and intimately connected with its business interests, passed away on Monday evening at his residence, Elm street, in the 76th year of his age. Mr. Bailey has been a great sufferer, being confined to his house and room for three years. The deceased was three times married, the widow was Miss Jane Chalmers, daughter of the late Wm Chalmers of this town. The funeral took place on Wednesday, in charge of Undertakers Vanwart and Kelly, relatives of deceased acting as pall bearers. Services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev Mr. Ross, and the interment was made in the Methodist cemetery.

MISS BRIDGET MCCARTIN.

Miss Bridget McCartin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McCartin, died at her home, Wednesday night, from consumption, contracted from a severe cold, in the 24th year of her age. The deceased had been failing in health for a year, and her death, though deeply lamented, was not unexpected. She was a valued member of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H. The parents, brother and sister, have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

HERBY BARNETT.

At Millville, York County, February 27th, the home of Mr. Barnett was visited by the death angel, who conveyed to the spirit world Herby Barnett. A young man, in the prime of life, his death caused sincere mourning throughout the community. He leaves an aged father, mother, four sisters and one brother, with a large circle of sorrowing relatives to mourn their loss. Funeral services were held at the Ridge, Rev H M Brown officiating. Using as his text James 4:14, he gave an eloquent discourse, admonishing people how to live so as to be ready for death.

Woodstock's Greatest Musical Event.

It is five years since Madam Clary the contralto has been heard in the provinces, and since that time she has made rapid advances in her art, and occupies a higher place in the regard of the musical world. During this period no important musical event in the large centres has been complete unless Clary was heard in the contralto roles. Hardly a reference to her singing is to be found anywhere, which does not point to her as America's greatest contralto. Where so many opinions are unanimous regarding this wonderful voice there can be no question as to the quality of the musical treat which we are to have April 29th. The interest already aroused safely indicates a record attendance for Woodstock. Clary will be accompanied by a splendid soprano, tenor, and pianist. Don't forget the date and keep it clear of engagements.

LOCAL LEGISLATURE.

(Special to SENTINEL.)

Fredericton, April 2. The debate on the address was continued to-day, the speakers being Hon Mr. Hill in support of the government and Mr. Loggie contra. Hon Mr. Pugsley, in reply to Mr. Hazen, stated that he did not think Premier Laurier had New Brunswick in mind when speaking on redistribution. Assurances existed that the Dominion government would co-operate with the local in presentation of a case to the Supreme Court. The resolution opposing the building of a dam at Winding Ledges was reported favorably by the committee and passed by the house.

JOTTINGS.

The weather remains cold, and the water in river and streams is falling. Easter millinery, Tuesday and Wednesday, 7th and 8th, at Mrs. W. D Cumber's.

An old and highly respected resident of Richmond, Patrick Carlin, is dangerously ill, at his home, from a cancer.

The choir of St Paul's Presbyterian church rendered a very beautiful anthem at the evening service last Sunday.

When you want the best superphosphate go to Carr's, Hartland. Don't let a dollar or two induce you to buy an inferior article—"It don't pay."

Revds Frs Coughlan of Johnville, and Murphy of Debec, assisted Rev Fr. Chapman, this week, with the Lenten work, in connection with St. Gertrude's church.

Miss Gallagher has returned from St John having personally selected her stock and will be prepared to have her Easter Opening April 7th, 8th.

Mrs Wm Chalmers, for many years a resident of this town, but, of late years, residing in Boston, lies dangerously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs Chas Bailey, in this town.

Attention is directed to the handsome line of Easter neckwear advertised by John McLauchlan. His stock is large, fine, nobby, and well worth an examination. Call and see them.

The front of Garden Bros new store, Main street, has been painted in a delicate shade of green; this with the attractive sign placed over the door renders the store one of the most notable in the town.

Remember Tuesday evening next, 7th inst., in the Methodist School Room, the ladies give an Easter Supper and have a sale of handkerchiefs, to which they respectfully ask a liberal patronage. See advt.

Mrs L P Farris has been visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs Hugh Hay. She left for Fredericton on Monday, accompanied by Mr Farris and son Wendell, who were in Woodstock attending the seed fair and C. P. R. stock sale.

Rev H M Brown has been holding special meetings at Hawkinsville and the Ridge, with blessed results, the Lord blessing his labors; quite a large number have given their hearts to God and decided to live a Christian life.

The Saint John Business College is being more largely attended now than ever before; nearly one hundred students in the shorthand department alone. The graduates from this excellent college easily find situations.

Gideon Phillips and family leave the first of the week to take up their residence at Cedar Cove, Vancouver, B. C., where Mr. P. has a son located. We regret having such valuable citizens leave us, but follow them with best wishes for their success.

Noble & Trafton have a full line of choice groceries, embracing a full and complete line of canned meats, vegetables, fruits and all other goods to be found in a first-class, full stocked grocery store.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week, a special service was held in the F B church, when the rite of baptism was administered by the pastor, Rev F A Currier, to a candidate who had come from Perth for the purpose of receiving the holy rite.

This week brings another batch of valued subscribers to the SENTINEL. The arms of the paper is far reaching and is able to and will gladly embrace many more. Of course we feel a natural pride in this practical evidence of appreciation of this "freedom journal."

Rev J C Bleakney is, his friends will be glad to learn, so far recovered from his late serious accident as to be able to be out. He expects to be on his Tobique circuit, Easter Sunday, 12th inst., at North View at 10.30 a. m.; Sisson Corner at 2.30 p. m., and Plaster Rock at 7 p. m.

C M Sherwood has just received another extensive shipment of British and Foreign dry goods, his own importation direct. These beautiful and serviceable goods are opening up more than satisfactory. The variety is too great to enumerate here, and he invites all interested in dry goods of any kind, to inspect his stock which covers all lines.

The first base ball match of the season was played on the College grounds, Saturday afternoon last, between two junior clubs, and resulted in a victory for the Little Giants of Wellington ward, the score being 12-11. The umpires were Harry Cox and Ralph Murphy. Neither team had its complement of players. The victors were Charles Dickinson, catcher; Frank Embleton, pitcher; Ed Kennedy, Frank Reardon, Fred Embleton; Johnny Braydon, mascot. The vanquished were Clarence Brewer, catcher; Gordon Bailey, pitcher; Jack Hipwell, Fred Stephenson, John Brewer.

Dr Brown, of the firm of Brown & Ross, made a canvass of the town, last week, in the interests of the Union Telephone Co., and succeeded in getting between 60 and 70 subscribers to the proposed system. The advantages claimed for the system are that it will be an all-day, all-night and Sunday service.

Mr Andrew Myles entertained the members of his Sunday School Bible class, and a few other friends, at Mrs Alterton's, on Tuesday evening. There was a programme of vocal music, a number of brief addresses, and refreshments. J R Murphy, K C, acted as master of ceremonies and a most pleasant and profitable function was heartily enjoyed by those present.

A splendid house greeted the Jubilee Singers, in Graham's Opera House, on Thursday evening of last week. The programme was a lengthy and interesting one, and the several numbers were excellently executed calling out hearty encores. Madam Dorsa has a voice of great power and sweetness. All the members sustained their parts well, and the performance of the orchestra was of special merit.

The Rev Z L Fash is preaching on Sunday evenings a series of sermons to young men. The subjects thus far treated are "The Young Man in the Home," "In His First Troubles," "Thrown Upon His Own Resources," "In Business," "In Success." The subjects for the next four Sunday evenings will be "In Severe Temptation," "Losing All for Principle," "Rising to Eminence," "The Transient Character of Human Fame."

Miss Lizzie Melly, who has been in the employ of the Aberdeen hotel for five years, was, on Tuesday, at the hotel, presented by Wibur & Stevenson, the boarders and the present proprietor, J H Harvey, with a substantial cash present, as a slight token in appreciation of Miss Melly's valued services. Miss Melly has severed her connection with the hotel, and in June will leave Woodstock to make her future home with her sister at Chicago.

The ladies of St Paul's Presbyterian church will give an entertainment in the basement of the church on Monday evening, April 6th, at 7.30 o'clock. An up-to-date phonograph will render about twenty-five selections and the other numbers of the program are being carefully prepared. Sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served free after the entertainment. Home made candy will be on sale. Admission only 15c. You come and bring your friends.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

On Tuesday, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in a clear and able speech introduced the redistribution bill, explaining its scope and nature. He reminded the house that the government was not acting on its own motive in introducing the bill, but was performing an imperative constitutional duty. The bill, first, enacts that there shall be 214 members, of whom 86 shall be elected for Ontario; 65, Quebec; 18, Nova Scotia; 13, New Brunswick; 10, Manitoba; seven, British Columbia; four, P E Island; 10 from the Northwest and one from the Yukon.

A Favorite at Ottawa

No where in all Canada is Clary a greater favorite than at Ottawa. In a recent concert given in that musical city Clary made probably a greater success than in the dozen or more previous appearances at the Capital. The daily Citizen in referring to her singing upon this occasion occupied almost a column, and concluded with the positive declaration that in the opinion of the writer "Clary's voice was far and away better and grander than any contralto of the age." This is a fact which all our readers will probably admit after the appearance of the great contralto here April 29th.

At the Aberdeen Hotel, Woodstock, on the 1st inst., by the same Rev. J. Irving to Lauretta Stewart, both of Coldstream.

Deaths.

At Hartford, on the 17th March, Mrs. Caroline Green, aged 77 years, 5 months. And can it be dear mother has gone, The one we did so love? Has she changed the scenes of earth For greater joys above? And shall we see her face no more, For hear her gentle voice? How gladly would we've kept her here, Could we have had our choice. We are very sad and lonely now, And have been since that day, When to the cold and silent grave We follow her away.

We are thinking of that solemn hour, When standing round her bed, We watched the ebbing of life As from earth her spirit fled. Once she has left a world of toil, And free from every care, Why would we wish her bark again To earthly troubles share? Help us, O Lord, to do Thy will, While we are here below, That when our work on earth is done We may with pleasure go.

At Greenfield, March 26th, of pneumonia, Earle Stanley, infant son of Robert and Laura Hamilton, aged 7 months.

There's a crown for little children, Above the bright blue sky, And all who look for Jesus, Shall wear it by and by—A crown of everlasting glory. Which he will there bestow On all who've found his favor, And loved His name below.
