Good's Corner.
We are having fine weather and good roads at present.

Death has again visited our neighborhood and taken a good friend and neighbor, Mrs. O'Rideout. After several weeks of severe suffering, she will be sadly missed by all.

The threshers and pressers are very busy.

We are glad to say Miss Alma Gray is out again after being confined to the house for some time with the mumps. There are no new cases yet.

The Sunday school here is ever green.

The hunting season is about over. Gideon Merrithew was the lucky slayer of two deer and John Carmichael one.

News from the Country.

Williamstown.

Cold weather, but not so cold today as it has been. Some are using wheels, others are trying runners, but there is not snow enough on the road for runners but lots along the fences; some are hauling wood on it, others are getting it sawed in the woods.

W. W. Wilson and Wm. Armstrong went to Bangor with fowl for Thanksgiving, for which they received a good price considering the time of year. They received as high as sixteen and a half cents for turkeys that were extra large and well fattened.

Mrs. James Bradley's turkeys brought her nearly $50.00. She had thirty.

Frank Armstrong took a drove of fat sheep to Florenceville Saturday. They were shipped to Montreal.

The dogs have made havoc among Joseph and Thomas Emery's sheep.

Mrs. Frank Emery has gone to her father's to spend the winter. Her husband is in the woods.

Stanley and Kilburn Annett started today for Jersey City, where their brother Fred has held a lucrative position for some time past, and has a job for his youngest brother at a good salary. We are sorry to see them go as they are among our most respectable young men. We wish them success.

Howells Corbett has finished his cistern. It is a very large one.

The wells are most all dry in this section, so we are all wishing for rain.

Handford Tracy and Wm. Page have gone to the Tobique on a hunting trip.

Miss Helen Scholey is making a lengthy visit at Howells Corbett's.

Thomas Emery, sr., has returned from Plaster Rock Mills.

Miss Maggie Travis, St. Thomas, and Miss Nellie White, Charlestown, were guests at James Bradley's last week.

Mrs. John A. Porter and daughter Lena were guests at Andrew Jamieson's on Thursday.

Miss Lettie Fowler gave her Sabbath school class a party Saturday afternoon.

Miss Nettie Bradley, Pioneer, has returned from Holyoke, Mass., where she has been visiting relatives for the last two months.

Mrs. E. Churchill has been visiting her sister, Mrs. M. I. Smith, Lakeville.

Newburg.

The occupation of the farmers in this section is quite varied at present: some threshing, while others are yarding logs.

Hog killing is about over; some fine spring pigs being among the number killed.

The sporting season was quite briskly engaged in especially by Hugh Johnston who felled to earth some fine deer and caribou, and is now after the moose.

Thursday, being the twentieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston, a number of friends gathered at their home in honour of the event and an enjoyable evening was spent.

James Brown and Leonard McCarson have returned from Tobique.

DOLLY.

Bristol.

The Sock Social held last Wednesday evening was a decided success. About one hundred and seventy-five were in attendance and over eighty-five dollars was raised for the Presbyterian Church Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gaines spent Sunday in the village.

Miss MacLennan of Peel, made a short visit at D. V. Boyer's, recently.

M. Welch is busy extending his line of telephone, new boxes are to be put in, in the village.

The ladies of the Presbyterian congregation have organized a sewing guild, with Mrs. Welch as President-Treasurer, and Miss Annie McLean as Secretary. All the ladies of the place are cordially invited to join.

Our school will remain in charge of the same teachers next term. Mr. Cronkhitte in the Advanced Department, Miss Hartley in the Primary.

Notes from Undine.

Mrs. Ed. McLay has moved here from New England for the winter.

Mrs. Randolph Watson and children spent a few days this week visiting Mrs. Amos and Cash Watson.

Mrs. A. D. Allen, Teacher, at Blue Bell, New Denmark, was the guest of Miss M. McLaughlin of this place.

Miss A. Watson of Fort Fairfield is visiting her parents this week.

Miss Maud Hitchcock of Ortonville was the guest of her sisters Mrs. Cash and Amos Watson last week.

Messrs. Edward and Charlie Watson spent a few days in Andover this week.

Mrs. Wm. Watson and family have moved to the woods in New Denmark for the winter.

Misses Hilda Larson and Jensen of New Denmark were in this place recently.

ITCHING BURNING SKIN. Disfiguring Humors and Eruptions Permanently Cured.

Dr. Agnew's Ointment.

Diseases of the skin inflict intense pain, suffering and disfigurement. If not cured in time, they end in the decay of the bones, a pallid complexion, loss of strength, and a gradual wasting away of the body. Dr. Agnew's Ointment is an absolute specific in Scrofula, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Ring Worm, Barbers' Itch, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Liver Spots, Prurigo, Psoriasis, and all sores and disfiguring eruptions of the skin. An old Soldier, S. E. Buckman, residing at the National Soldiers' Home, Grant Co., Ind., writes: "I was a constant sufferer from skin complaints. Last summer a disfiguring eruption appeared on my face, and I decided to try Dr. Agnew's Ointment. I was relieved after the first application, and in a remarkably short time absolutely cured." 35 cents.

Few Escape Dyspepsia and Indigestion. If you suffer their agonizing pains, it is because you do not know that Dr. Voss' Stomach Pills relieve at once and cure when all other remedies have failed to benefit. 60 tablets, 55 cents. No. 34
