The Carleton Sentinel.

FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1903. Published by THE CARLETON SENTINEL PUBLISHING CO. at their Office, in VANWART'S BRICK BUILDING, King Street, Woodstock, upstairs.

THE "New Liberal Guard" seemed to have everything their own way in the town on Saturday.

THE Press will have to enlarge its next issue in order to publish the personnel of that "New Liberal Guard."

WHAT would some of our Tory friends give for a few of that "New Liberal Guard" in the town of Woodstock just to show them how to run an election.

WANTED—A new Tory ward heeler in the town of Woodstock, good references required, and the reward will be a Senatorship if he lives for 25 years, and keeps the town in line for that period.

THE Dispatch claims that the Government would have elected three men in this County if S B Appleby had been on the ticket. Many leading conservatives have expressed themselves as extremely sorry that Mr Appleby was not one of the Government Candidates. Is this because they wanted to see the Government win? or had they a different opinion of Mr Appleby's strength?

ONE of Woodstock's oldest residents Mrs Lucy Anne Williams, widow of the late Geo F Williams, peacefully passed to her long rest on Monday evening. She was in the 90th year of her age, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs E J Cupples and Mrs James Watts. Deceased was a good woman and faithful mother. Rev Geo A Ross conducted the funeral services, which took place Wednesday afternoon, interment being at the Methodist cemetery.

Financial Statement Promised.

Coun. Dibblee said at the Town Council board Monday night, very truly, that the Council should be prepared to give a correct answer "when called upon by any newspaper." Just so, and now the question asked by the SENTINEL with regard to the town indebtedness is likely to be answered.

Coun Garden made some good suggestions on the question, and should be acted upon.

GRATIFYING.

The result of the election on Saturday last was very gratifying to the Liberal Party of this County when looked at from any standpoint whatever, although every member must feel very deeply personally for the loss of Messrs Shaw and Good, both of whom, if elected would have made excellent members, however they will still have, as defeated candidates, equal chances with Mr Jones to work for the best interests of every part of the County, and it is to be hoped that the people will look to these gentlemen, quite as much as to Mr Jones, for the guidance of the party affairs during the next Legislative time, as they fought just as hard and loyally in the contest as did Mr Jones.

In Mr Jones the party has a young man of more than ordinary ability, who will make his mark in the near future, and one who will be a tower of strength to the party in the future.

The SENTINEL feels that it is the duty of every Liberal in this County to demand that Mr Jones be given the seat in the Government lately vacated by Hon Mr Hill. It is ours by right and we have the right man for the position.

We feel that the party should feel elated on account of the prestige which we have acquired for the next Dominion contest, which may be upon us sooner than we think. Perhaps the most gratifying feature of the whole contest was the magnificent vote polled by the Liberal Candidates over the whole lower portion of the county.

The parish of Northampton gave a Liberal majority for the first time in 10 years; the Town was made even, something which has not happened for a like period; the parish of Woodstock almost wiped out a Tory majority of 100. Had it not been for the rain which prevented our voters in the upper portions of the County from getting to the polls, we would have carried the whole ticket by a sweeping majority.

It is now the duty of every true Liberal to commence organizing for the next Dominion contest, and with a united party, such as we now have, there cannot be any question but that victory will be ours whenever the opportunity offers.

The Dispatch's Insulting Reference.

The Dispatch this week contains a reference to the Liberal party of Carleton, which is at once unjust as well as insulting. As to any difference between Mr Appleby and Mr Carvell the SENTINEL has nothing to say.—Mr Carvell is well able to take his own part. The Liberal Convention of February 12th, was called by Messrs Appleby and McCain; the attendance was large and representative; a nominating committee was formed by open vote, and comprised some of the oldest and most respected liberals of the county; the committee after several times voting on a number of names of gentlemen who would not accept, after some difficulty persuaded Messrs W. P. Jones, F. R. Shaw and W. C. Good to accept the nomination. The convention endorsed the ticket, and the united Liberal Party of Carleton gave it a glorious endorsement at the polls. There was no cramming, or attempt at cramming, that we are aware of, and Mr Carvell only did, what thousands of other good and true Liberals did,—was to work might and main for a successful issue. In the contest, the Dispatch was a silent observer. As the organ of the Liberal party in the county, we feel it our duty to say that the reference to the party is a slander, and to hurl back upon the Dispatch the insulting intimation that that great reform party, in this county, can be "led by the nose by any one man."

A GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION.

On Tuesday, the 24th February, Mr and Mrs Charles Vanwart, highly respected residents of this town, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding. About fifty guests were present including near relatives and the friends belonging to the F B church. On the entrance of the guests they were met by Mrs G A White and Mrs B F Clarke and escorted to the parlor where they were received by Mr and Mrs Vanwart. Addresses were made by Rev Joseph Noble, Rev T S Vanwart and Major Vince. The address of Rev Mr Noble, though brief, was well-conceived, eloquent and appropriate for the happy occasion. Lunch followed, the guests being served by Mrs C R Watson, Miss Vince, and the Misses Clarke, nieces of Mrs Vanwart. Among the handsome presents received were a valuable clock and sterling silver spoons from the members of the F B church; over $60 in gold and many delightful presents in silver and gold from relatives and friends in Ontario, Calgary, St. John, Boston and Hampstead, Queens Co. B F Clarke, a brother, assisted Mrs Vanwart in receiving the guests. Music was furnished during the evening, "God be with you till we meet again" was sweetly sung, and the guests departed, the married ones among them wishing to be so blessed as to be able to celebrate their own golden wedding.

Mr and Mrs Vanwart were happily married in Hampstead, Queens county, by the Rev Benjamin Merritt, since deceased, but removed to this county 42 years ago this month, and have been citizens of Woodstock 29 years. The SENTINEL joins with the hosts of friends in wishing that such worthy citizens as are Mr and Mrs Vanwart may have the pleasure of celebrating a diamond wedding.

HYMENEAL.

A very interesting social event took place on last Tuesday evening at the residence of Robert Lindsay esq, Chapel street when Mr Augustus W. Hand of Plymouth was united in marriage to Miss Amy M. Tedlie of Lower Brighton.

Miss Tedlie is very well and favorably known in this town as she has resided here for a number of years. The many and valuable presents she received proved the esteem with which she was held. Rev W. B. Wiggins, A. B., officiated.

Mr and Mrs Hand will reside a short distance from town on the Connell Road.

Their many friends wish them a happy voyage through life.

SOCIAL NOTES.

Mrs Augustus Hand was "at home" to her friends on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of this week.

Miss Louise Townsend gave a very nice party to about 40 of her boy and girl friends last Tuesday evening. The girls looked very charming in dainty evening dresses of light muslin and silk. Supper was served at 11 o'clock. Dancing and games were the chief amusements.

It looks as if that "Carvell Ring" had expanded in the town of Woodstock to such an extent that it is becoming dangerous both to Mugwumps and Tories.

Japan has nearly trebled the strength of its army within the past ten years and now has a total of 609,960 officers and men.

An old house in East Florenceville, belonging to Amos Tompkins, caught fire on Wednesday evening about 7.30. As the house was old and no one living in it the loss was not great. It made quite an election bonfire.

The little daughter of Mr and Mrs T A Lindsay has been quite sick with measles, and also Mrs Lindsay's sister, Miss Alexander. There have been a great many cases of measles lately in town, but none have terminated fatally.

Dr Prescott has leased the house on Chapel street, recently occupied by J. H. Harvey. This house is situated alongside of the Methodist church, being the fourth door west from his former stand. He will occupy it after March 4th 1903.

Albert Smith had an experience Tuesday, that he has no desire to have repeated. He was hauling logs at the foot of Queen Street, when by some mischance his team went over the steep bank turning over and over until the bottom was reached. Strange to say the horses were unhurt, save a few scratches.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society in connection with St Paul's Presbyterian church of this town met in the vestry of that church on Tuesday afternoon, March 3rd. Mrs Dr Sunder who has been a missionary in India for some years gave a very nice address which was much enjoyed by all present.

McManus Bros have been making several improvements in their up-to-date dry goods store. Four new shelves, nicely painted, have been built around the walls of the store, by Alden McKinney, which will be of great convenience for reserved stock; the ceiling has been whitened with alabaster by Peter McGirr, and the water works installed in the store by Fewer Bros.

Farmers will gain 2 cts a pound on smoked hams, by bringing them to O M Sherwood, while the price is high.

The quarterly meeting of the N. B. Advent Christian Conference will begin on the evening of Thursday, March 12th (full moon) and hold over Sunday. The place is Peel, in the new church—make plans to come—you will be welcome.

Don't forget the place, No. 4 Main street. C. B. Snow.

Communications.

Thanks The Dispatch.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:

I desire, through your columns, to thank the Dispatch for acknowledging to be one of us. It has improved this week. It contains two articles of more than ordinary import: One showing how valiant a man may become among his fellows by his powers; the other how an individual can defeat his own good.

Thanking you for space, I remain, OBSERVER.

In our new location we will not only have a larger and finer store, handsomer furnishings and better equipment, but we will be much nearer the centre of trade. In this connection we want to extend our sincerest thanks to our many patrons who for the past nine months have gone considerably out of their way to make our store their trading place. In the new store they will find every element that made the old one such a favorite trading place, only better, because of the increased facilities that the new store will afford.
