Carleton & Victoria Baptist Quarterly.

The above named quarterly met with the Baptist church at Peel, Carleton county, Tuesday, Dec 8, at 3 p. m. The opening session was begun by devotional exercises led by the secretary, in which service the important truth, 'The Spirit's In-filling,' was made our meditation. Possibly nothing needs special mention of the church and home mission reports which filled the remaining part of the session.

At 7.30 we again met in a session held in the interests of missions. Pastor Fash gave a map exercise on the Lelegn mission field. The outlining of the seven divisions of the field and a word respecting the twenty one missionaries was made the more interesting and instructive by introductory remarks on the historic development of the Maritime Baptist foreign missionary interests which led to the choosing of the Lelegn field.

Rev O N Barton then pleased his hearers with an address on the 'Northwest as a Mission Field.' In clear terms he presented the vastness of the field and its work and the obligation upon Baptists to take a part in such work.

On Wednesday morning, after devotional exercises, a paper was read by Pastor Fash on the subject of 'Christian Benevolence.' The paper which was a clear and concise presentation of the subject, evoked a helpful discussion which was made the more lively by Pastor Cahill asking the reader if the principle of giving a tenth is taught in the New Testament.

At 3 p. m. we again met and were inspired by a sermon preached by Rev Charles Stirling from the words, 'What think ye of Christ?' Such was followed by a conference on Sunday School work, conducted by the secretary which was closed by the quarterly passing a resolution expressing its desire to fall in line with the New Brunswick Sunday School convention.

At 7.30 the house was filled and the hearers much interested as Rev Joseph A Cahill delivered a stirring address on the subject, 'Lord's Day Observance.' May it suffice to say the address was one that only such as 'Cahill' can give.

All the nine pastors with a fair delegation of the lay brethren were present. This fact together with the carefully prepared papers and addresses, made this quarterly occasion one of blessing.

The next session of quarterly meets at Woodstock.
