News from the Country.

East Newbridge.

The weather is fine and the farmers look happy; they expect a fine crop from present appearances.

Our roads need some one to take an interest in repairing them.

At the residence of Rev. George A. Ross of Woodstock, June 8th, at ten o'clock, Stephen Clark of this place was married to Ethel Turner of Woodstock. The happy couple drove to O. McCarty's, where a number of invited guests were waiting to welcome them at six o'clock. All passed into the dining room where loaded tables invited good appetites and hearty jokes. The bride was neatly gowned and received a number of pretty and useful presents, as follows:—

Mrs. Wallace Hay, Woodstock, linen table cloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen McCarty, bedspread.

John Clark, cash.

George Lawson, cash.

Mrs. N. J. Clark, pair towels.

Mrs. James Martin, pair towels.

John and Victor Martin, berry dishes.

Nina L. Martin, picture, "Simply to Thy Cross I Cling."

Mr. and Mrs. George Fredericks, water set.

Ernest and Nellie Lawson, water set.

Arthur McDonald, glass fruit dish.

David McFadden, half dozen tumblers.

Clara McCarty, souvenir pin tray.

Harold McCarty, fancy plate.

Burnie McDonald, cup and saucer.

Joseph McDonald, china pitcher.

Charles McDade, cash.

Annie and Edward McDade, parlor lamp.

Mrs. Lizzie McDonald, mixing bowl.

ONLY ME.

THE BEST LINIMENT.

"I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Palm Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelgans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merits are wonderful." For sale by all druggists.

Oakville.

The corner stone of the new Church of England was laid recently by the rector Rev. A. W. Teed. Rev. J. C. Koon, of Houlton, assisted in the services and made a most favorable impression on the large congregation present. The body of the church was raised in the afternoon, the ladies bringing baskets and picnicking on the grounds, entertaining the large gathering in a most sumptuous manner. The work is to be carried on as rapidly as possible, something over $1500 having been already raised toward the building fund. The energetic rector and his congregation are deserving of much praise for the spirit shown in the work.

Rev. J. C. Berrie preached in the Methodist church on a recent Sunday evening, Rev. Mr. Ives being unable to meet the appointment owing to some throat trouble. His many friends hope he may soon be able to resume his work and will be glad to see him out again.

Some of the people from this locality drove to Littleton on Sunday afternoon to hear Bishop Codman of Maine, who preached there at 2.30.

A number of our young men are to go into camp with the Woodstock Field Battery. Our neighbors across the line need have no hope of annexing us after the boys come home.

Judging from the number of new carriages purchased in these parts, some of the young men have 'serious intentions.'

Miss Williams our popular teacher has decided to take the school another term, much to the delight of the pupils.

Mrs. Thomas T. Bell has been on a visit to her old home at Debec.
