JOTTINGS.

H H Johnson spent Sunday and Monday in Houlton.

Paul Munro spent a few days last week visiting friends at Canterbury.

Mrs McKay of Boston is the guest of her parents, Capt and Mrs Duncan.

Clarence Sprague played the nine holes on the golf course on Wednesday in 39, two under bogey.

Miss B K Diblee won the Rankin Cup on the links last week. There were several competitors for the honor.

Mrs W S Saunders of Fredericton and Mrs Edward Beckin of Bloomfield are the guests of Mr and Mrs M S Saunders.

The Misses Gallagher intend having their millinery opening during exhibition week, Sept 27th and the following days.—21p-33.

Flour has taken another jump. The best Manitoba brands are selling for $6.50 wholesale, which means about $6.75 to the consumer.

At Presque Isle on Wednesday Shamrock won in three straight heats, best time 2.23. Princess was second, Doctor Glen third and Utatlan fourth.

Rev G A Ross will preach at the following places on the Hartland circuit on Sunday. In the morning at Argyle, afternoon at Knowlesville, evening at Hartland.

The annual missionary meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at Knowlesville and on Wednesday at Hartland. Rev Geo A Ross, pastor of Woodstock Methodist church, will be the speaker.

The services in the Methodist church on Sunday will be conducted by the pastor of the Hartland circuit, Rev B Oxnard Hartman, who is highly spoken of as a pleasing pulpit orator. Rev G A Ross will be at Hartland.

A recent copy of the Manchester (N H) Union contains a group picture of the Bethlehem baseball team. One of the leading players is Frank L Dickinson of this town, who has been doing great slab work, according to that paper.

Fire broke out in the engine room at the Imperial Packing Company's premises on Wednesday just after one o'clock. The firemen were called out and succeeded in extinguishing the blaze before serious damage could be done.

The many friends of Robert Caldwell are pleased to see him once more here on a visit. He is looking and feeling well and is a guest at the Carlisle. He spent the past year travelling in various sections of the republic.

Robinson, the convicted wife murderer, was hanged at Kentville, N. S., Monday of this week. Radcliffe officiated. The old man went to the scaffold protesting his innocence. The drop fell at 1.35 a.m. and the body was cut down 15 minutes later.

Dr. J W Daniel, M P for St. John, was seriously injured on Saturday. While driving in the park with Mrs Daniel he was thrown from his carriage and dragged some distance. He sustained severe bruises and a bad shaking up. Mrs Daniel was uninjured.

The Woodstock Carriage Co have American Cornings with and without top, two Concord and Road-wagons, two seated beach wagons. Also ordinary styles. Great bargains at this time of year. Some second hand goods at great bargains. Pungs in endless variety. Call early and get good bargains.—21n-38.

A rumor is circulating to the effect that Attorney General Pugsley will be the federal candidate for the city of St. John, and that Hon H A McKeown will re-enter the local government in succession to Dr. Pugsley. Mr McKeown would probably oppose Mr Agar for the vacant county seat.

C J Tabor of the Carlisle seems determined to make his hotel second to none. This week he has laid a new hardwood floor in the dining room, and is rushing the annex to a completion. This part of his establishment fronting on Emerald Street is two and one half stories high and will be used on the ground floor as a kitchen and store room. The second flat will contain four large bedrooms and the third floor will be utilized as sleeping quarters for the help.

Mrs Wm Loane will have her grand fall millinery opening during exhibition week. She will have in stock the finest goods ever shown in Woodstock. Beautiful hats, feathers and flowers. Splendid ospreys, aigrettes and imitation fruits; the latest chenille creations and ornaments galore. Ladies should call and inspect the assortment.

Mrs Charles Harback of Bangor is the guest of Mrs Harry Brawn.

Mrs Pearl Palmer of Maplewood, York County, is visiting friends in town.

Miss Alexa Corbett left for Detroit, Michigan, on Wednesday to visit friends.

Mrs John McLauchlan and daughter, Marguerite, returned on Monday from St Andrews.

O M Lancaster of the Union Bank of Halifax, North Sydney, Cape Breton, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs J S Eagles and children have returned from Dorchester N B, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Lillie Smiley, Bangor, arrived in town Monday to spend her vacation with friends in Woodstock and vicinity.

Mrs Charles Culbert of Newburg was in town on Wednesday to meet some friends who were returning from the States.

Herbert M Atherton, wife and daughter of Providence, R I, are visiting Mr Atherton's brother, Frank L Atherton.

The lady members of the golf club are requested to meet this (Friday) evening at Mrs W B Belyea's. Business of importance.

Judge and Mrs Carleton arrived at the Carlisle on Wednesday. They will soon take up their residence in the handsome Grant building.

Rev J A Cahill has been engaged for a month as special temperance lecturer and organizer in Queens Co. The people there are urging the appointment of a Scott Act inspector, but the Council so far has been afraid of the expense.

Wm Sheehan the, obliging head waiter at the Carlisle, was the recipient of a handsome silk umbrella on Wednesday, the gift of the staff of that hotel. The occasion was the first anniversary of Mr Sheehan's arrival.

The engagement is announced of Miss Dora Diblee of Woodstock and Mr Arthur A. Shute of this city. Miss Diblee, who is a sister of Mrs. Dr. Weaver and of Mrs. Lewis Bliss, both of this city, is one of Woodstock's most charming young ladies. She is very well known in society circles here, where she has a host of friends, all of whom wish her every happiness. Mr. Shute, of the well known firm of Shute & Crowe of this city, is one of Fredericton's most promising and enterprising business men, besides being one of the city's most popular young men in every way. He is an active member of the Bicycle and Boating Club and is an expert yachtsman. All his numerous friends congratulate him most heartily.—Gleaner.
