

WHILE IN TOWN

During the Grand Midsummer Carnival

on 12th and 13th of July, don't forget to call at Nicholson's and see the large assortment of Suits, Overcoats and Trousers. They are all that fad and fancy and style could demand. Something to suit the taste of all.

Remember that we are sole agent for the Dr. Deimel (linen mesh) Underwear, which, on account of its absorbing and drying properties, is a boon to all who perspire freely.—Once worn, always worn.

Booklets telling all about it free on request.

W. B. NICHOLSON,
Merchant Tailor,
COR. KING AND MAIN STREETS.

Examination for advance of class and entrance to the Normal School will be held in the Grammar School building on Tuesday, before Inspector Meagher.

Dr E H Freeze of Bristol intends soon to leave this province and practise his profession in another country, perhaps in the west. He has been very popular here.

F Burnett Cluff and Mrs Clara Watson were married on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride, King Street, by Rev G A Ross, in the presence of a large number of friends.

The 67th Regt and the Brighton Engineers went into Camp at Sussex this week, in full strength. St John papers claim that our contingent acted badly in the St John depot, and four were locked up for intoxication.

Colonel G Hunter Ogilvie inspected the 10th Field Battery yesterday. He found everything in first class shape and highly complimented officers and men on their good showing. In his opinion the 10th is the best battery he has inspected this year.

A F Fawcett has made immense improvements in his dwelling house and outbuildings. The painting was done by John Sanderson, in his usual artistic manner. The colors were chosen with taste, and now Mr Fawcett has one of the prettiest buildings in town.

Mayor John A Lindsay and J M Frapp are expected to attend the N B High Court of Foresters which meets on Tuesday in Edmundston. Frank Fales of St John and L R Hetherington of Albert Co are mentioned as rival candidates for the position as High Chief Ranger.

Farmers wishing me to grind their wheat during this July should bring it in at once, as the old flume will probably be removed sometime between the 8th and 20th inst. The new mill being of large capacity and a good many very fine working machines being introduced, which are not ordinarily used in this part of the province, and will require some two or three more months to complete. O M Sherwood, Centreville.

The town schools closed on Saturday. The commencement exercises were held on Friday evening in the Opera House. A fine musical and literary program was carried out. Prizes, medals and diplomas were presented. A number of the teachers went to St John to attend the institute. Mr Aaron Perry will take a two years' course at Yale in order to obtain the Ph D degree. He has been offered a fellowship. From that university he already holds the M. A. degree. Mr H B Logie will spend a few weeks in Montreal, and may take a medical course in the future.

Mr John Grant, Debec, who has been visiting different parts of the States for six months, has returned home and his friends are pleased to see him looking well.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Georgina Harrison, daughter of Rev George Harrison, to Rev Hammond Johnson. The ceremony takes place July 13th.

The ladies of the Y. P. A. of St. Luke's church gave a successful garden party yesterday afternoon on the beautiful grounds of B. Harry Smith, Esq., Connell street. Supper was served from 5 to 7. The patronage was very liberal.

The Colts went to Fredericton yesterday to play two games with the Tartars. Dickinson, who pitched this year for Tufts College, went along with the crowd, and will endeavor to mystify the Tartars in the second contest. Milmore will act as backstop. The boys expect at least an even break.

Williamstown.

June 27th.

To-day is cool and clear after the heavy shower last night, which was accompanied by heavy thunder and sharp lightning.

Everything is growing well, potatoes are looking extra well, but the new ones for Dominion Day will be scarce around here.

Picking strawberries is the order of the day now. They are quite plentiful in some places where there are old meadows. The prospect is good for a good crop of apples.

There has been an unusual number of teams on our road for some days past going to and returning from the Baptist Association which was held at Centreville four miles above here.

Quite a number of teams are hauling lumber from Carvell Bros' mill at Lakeville to Centreville, a distance of six miles, for O M Sherwood, who is erecting a large roller mill there.

Thomas Corbett is making alterations in his dwelling and raising the roof of his kitchen. He has a carpenter and painter from Woodstock.

Ward Barker has moved into his house at Lakeville, which he purchased from W W Wilson. He has a new blacksmith shop nearly completed. This makes three blacksmiths in the village of Lakeville.

W W Wilson has his house commenced, also a barn. It will be a very fine residence.

Wm Armstrong is also putting some repairs on his residence, mostly inside. He is putting a metallic ceiling in his hall, beside some other improvements.

Charlie Cross is hauling his hay to Florenceville.

Quietness prevails at night on our road, as most all the boys have gone to drill, some to Woodstock and some to Sussex.

Mrs Howells Corbett spent Sunday at the Baptist Association at Centreville.

June 25.

The ladies of the Glassville Episcopal church gave a very successful tea meeting and concert on the 23rd ult. Much credit is due to the ladies of the church for their work. A very large number attended and an enjoyable afternoon and evening were spent. The program of concert follows:—

Opening chorus—Good Old Summer Time.

Trio, Poor Old Joe—Mrs Hannington, Walter Wood, Frank Nixon.

Dialogue—A Matrimonial Advertisement.

Solo, Juanita—Gertrude Lee.

Duet, 'I don't care if you never come back'—Mrs S Owens, Leonard Wood.

Dialogue—A False Accusation.

Solo, Oh Dem Golden Slippers—Walter Wood.

Song, Meet Me in St Louis—Mrs Hannington, Miss Banks.

Duet, 'Oh, Ebenezer, how I love you'—Mrs S Owens, Walter Wood.

Dialogue, The Letter—Walter and Leonard Wood.

Solo, 'The church across the way.'—Mrs Hannington.

Dialogue—Mocha Hunt's Remedy.

Chorus—'Baby, come kiss me, do! God Save the King.'

Music was rendered by F Nixon. The proceeds, $230, went towards the building fund of above church.
