The County Court.

Tuesday morning the December meeting of the County Court will convene. There are two criminal cases, the King vs Dross, for conspiracy; and the King vs H. A. are tunnel, an action for shooting at the Chapman. Civil cases are not numerous.

Agricultural Society.

The above society held its annual meeting on Wednesday. Officers were elected as follows:—
Pres. Judson Briggs (re-elected.)
1st Vice, G. W. Shaw.
2nd Vice, J. T. Allan Dibblee.
Sec. Treas. C. L. Smith.
It was resolved that an exhibition be held next year if a government grant can be secured.

Give the Children a Show.

There is no risk this year, and the only sport the boys and girls may indulge in is sliding. Would it not be a good idea to allow them to use some street, say Elm, on certain evenings each week? The young people would be immensely pleased and nobody would suffer. Who will keep up this agitation?

OBITUARY.

Members of the Booklovers' Library holding books are requested to leave same at Library not later than Dec. 17th, as the service will be discontinued in Woodstock after that date.
