Severe Cold in the Chest.

"My fourteen-year old boy had a very severe cold in the chest last winter and I really thought he was going to die. He coughed nearly all the time and sometimes would spit up blood. I can positively say that he was completely cured by two bottles of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and he has not been troubled since."—Mrs. J. Provost, Renfrew, Ont.

Reasons Why You Should Carry A Sickness and Accident Policy.

1. Because you cannot count on your health, you may be stricken down to-morrow.
2. Because it protects you against all kinds of accidents as well as sickness.
3. Because you get honest treatment. This Company has no unpaid claims.
4. Because the Ry. Passengers Assurance Co. of London, Eng., is the oldest and strongest accident Company in the world.
5. Because the Company pays you from the very moment you are laid up and the claim is settled immediately on recovery.
6. Because it gives more for less money, than any other Company doing business.

News from the Country.

Newburg.

The weather has been very cold for some time but we hope it will get a little warmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hourihan are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a young daughter; also Mr. and Mrs. Dave McLaughlin on a young son.

Our school closed here on Tuesday. The Christmas tree was covered with presents for each and every one of the scholars presented by the teacher, Mrs. F. L. Ryan. A number of visitors were present and after a short program a delicious treat was served.

We wish the Editor of this paper a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. ONLY ME.

Kirkland.

Our December weather though cold has been pleasant, and the roads are excellent.

Hazel Dickison, daughter of Geo. Dickison, is recovering from her illness.

A teacher, we hear, will be needed for the Kirkland school after the Christmas holidays.

The monthly meeting of the Auxiliary of the W. F. M. Society, Kirkland, was held at the manse last Tuesday afternoon.

The Thank-offering Service of the Auxiliary of the W. F. M. Society, Kirkland, is announced for Sunday evening, Dec. 25th, at 7.30 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Edwards' Grist Mill gives good satisfaction to the patrons.

Mr. Geo. Wiggins, the miller, is the right man in the right place.

We have hopes that the G. T. P. may come this way. As by doing so a large amount of patronage would accrue to the road from the borders via St. John, as this is the cheapest route to ship lumber, potatoes and other heavy products.

J. K. Flemming's wagons and sleds appear to give good satisfaction in this section.

Potatoes have taken a slump over the border, and they are worth as much here.

Fine weather and beautiful moonlight nights; some of the lads and lassies are taken advantage of them.

George Faulkner and son came from their camp on the 19th inst, to visit their home in Windsor and to witness the marriage of Mr. Faulkner's daughter, which took place on the 21st inst.

B. Doohan had his opening on the 19th inst. He has a fine stock of goods which arrived yesterday and to-day (18th and 19th inst). Any one wanting to get a handsome Xmas present for some friend, why just call at B. Doohan's, who is ready and willing to wait on customers.

The long threatened snow storm has arrived, and if it continues long as it has commenced the fine travelling will be spoilt for a while.

Wonder who shifted the shafts on a young man's sleigh the other night at the rehearsal.

Miss Grace Grant is visiting at the Hayden Hotel a few days.

There was, on the eve of the 20th, a concert and Xmas tree in the school house in this place; all anticipated a grand time.

Bedford N. Ross, who has been attending High School at Fort Fairfield is home for 2 weeks in this place.

Our day school here closed on the 20th.

Mr. G. Clark of Plaster Rock has opened up a Xmas store at Mr. S. R. Hayden's for a few days; he has some very pretty and useful goods. The window looks quite pretty from the other side.

Times are quite dull here this winter to what they formerly were. Xmas is drawing near. Old Santa will be busy paying his annual visits as he only comes once a year.

ONE INTERESTED.

Houlton, Me.

Thomas Bell has sold his farm in Houlton for a good figure and bought the Gould stand situated in a very central place on Military St., some 8 or 10 rods from the C. P. R. station. The premises consist of one acre of land with good buildings, large barn, dwelling house and store well filled with groceries of all kinds, meat and fish. The stock is estimated at $2000. Mr. Bell intends to give his customers satisfaction both in price and quality.

W. H. Hangan has a restaurant on Bangor street; it is first class, well arranged and planned for the benefit of customers. Mr. Hangan takes great pains waiting on the public, and his place of business is open from seven a. m. until 12 p. m. Any person or persons would do well to call and get refreshed as he is well supplied with the best the market can afford. CALVIN GREEN.

Thirty Years of Pile Torture

Doctors failed and Mrs. Rowdon never expected to be well again—Dr. Chase's Ointment cured.

Mrs. W. Rowdon, North St., St. Catharines, Ont., states:—"For thirty years I was severely afflicted with piles which gave me such prolonged torture that I did not expect to ever be well again. I have been treated by physicians who have grown gray in the practice of medicine without obtaining relief. I don't suppose there ever was a more discouraged sufferer than I was."

Finally I was fortunate enough to come across Dr. Chase's Ointment and after using a few boxes my long-standing complaint departed and I am free from every symptom. I may say that if this Ointment could not be got for less than ten dollars a box I would not be without it."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only guaranteed cure for piles. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or EDMONDSON, BATES & CO., Toronto. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, on every box.

MRS. ROWDON

Union Corner.

B. F. Chase is very poorly at present, not being able to do hardly any work. He has one of the best farms in Richmond, consisting of 150 acres of land with good buildings, comprising two barns 3'x40 and 26'x30 feet with shed 22'x40, a good hen house, hog pen, dwelling house, and wood shed, a good well and never failing spring of excellent water. This farm is situated in a good neighborhood, one mile from church and school house, any person wishing to purchase would do well to look this property over.

Ernest Potter came home from where he had been working during the fall on his seventeenth birthday, and after four or five weeks intense suffering with acute diabetes passed away on Wednesday morning, Nov. 23rd, and was buried on the following Sunday in the Union Corner burying ground beside his father, the late Richard Potter, who died with the same disease, April 27th, 1892. He leaves a mother and step father, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Nevers, a sister, Mrs. Ernest McFarlane, Houlton, and a large number of friends to mourn. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. N. Barton assisted by Rev. J. O. Bleakney.

Rev. F. N. Atkinson is laid up with pleurisy and pneumonia, but we are glad to report that he is convalescent.

Herbert Crane, who was very low during the fall is quite strong and hearty again.

Mrs. J. A. Sullivan has sold her farm, including stock, farming utensils and household furniture to Mrs. George McArthur.

Frank Clark, Houlton, is shipping a quantity of hay from Greenville; he has bought all the hay that has been sold in this vicinity.

The semi annual examination of our school taught by Miss Clara Carson was held on the 2nd inst. We are pleased with her as a teacher, and regret very much that she does not feel disposed to teach the remainder of the term.

The very latest curfew idea comes from Waycross, Ga., where a demand is made that the bell shall ring for the coming home of married men rather than of the children.

MEN OF 30 LOOK LIKE 60

We meet in daily life men and women who look twice their age through nervous diseases. The stomach, liver and kidneys, when affected in the least way call on the nerves for support and in consequence we see men and women with wrinkled faces, distracting look and nervous movements of the eyes, mouth and hands. To effect a cure and build up the nervous system use the great

South American Nervine Tonic

It restores the affected organs to their usual vigor and strength and makes the nerves steady and strong. It is an admirable remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Neuralgia, Nervousness, and Sleeplessness.

Mrs. Hutchinson, of Vandelee, P. O., Ont., says:—"South American Nervine is a wonderful medicine. I suffered greatly from nervous prostration. The first dose relieved me and three bottles completely cured me."

South American Kidney Cure will relieve distressing kidney and bladder diseases in six hours and will permanently cure the severest cases.
