A colored Virginia preacher announced one Sunday morning: "Bred-dern an' sistern, I shall discourse dis morning 'on de power of de miracle, an' I am gwine ter take as example de chillern of Israel acrossin' of de Red Sea. Der wus Moses on de brink of de sea, and right behin' him was de army of Pharaoh. An' all at once 'at, breddern de sea froze over es solid es a rock, an' de chillern and Moses walked across." In the congregation were some young negroes who had been to college, and whose orthodoxy had been slightly warped. One of them arose, and said: "Why, parson, that can't be possible, 'cause the geographies tells us that water don't freeze at the equator." The old man hesitated a moment, and then replied, scornfully, "I jest knowed one of you young niggers wus gwine ter dispute de work of de Lawd. Young man, when de Red Sea froze der warn't no geography, and der warn't no equator."

Fight to Win Back $68,000 Lost in a Faro Game.

New York, Dec. 31.—Inspector of police McClusky has been notified that two men who lost $38,000 a few nights ago in a gambling house in Forty-sixth street, to which they had been piloted from the Waldorf Astoria by Carl Van Vort, decided the next day that they had been playing against crooked faro bank and roulette. With the assistance of the hotel detective and two central office detectives they got back $44,000 in checks, which they had drawn for part of their losses, but did not succeed in getting back $24,000 in cash. One of the men, Mr. Davis, is from Cleveland, and is a millionaire, and the other is from Pittsburgh.

It was declared last night that the Pittsburgh man was a relative of Andrew Carnegie.

According to the police the play that night was first at faro, where the limit on case cards was fixed at $500. Nothing lower than $20 chips in stacks of $500 were bought at a time. The action was not quick enough at faro to suit Davis, who had $10,000, and his suggestion that they go to the roulette table was seconded by the Cleveland man, who had dropped about $5,000.

At roulette the limit was fixed at $500 on colors or odd and even and $500 on a single number. At roulette Davis lost $6,000 in cash and the Pittsburgher trailed with a loss of $3,000.

When the losers awoke the next day they decided that they had been victimized.

THEY AVOID YOUR COMPANY

not because you lack ability to please and entertain, but for the foul, sickening breath that you discharge in their presence. We never realize what a severe case of Catarrh we really have, until our breath offends and our nostrils become clogged.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER can clear your throat and purify your breath—it relieves in ten minutes and cures permanently after short treatment. No one should force their company upon others and discomfort them with offensive breath and annoying discharges. The sooner you rid yourself of Catarrh the better it will be for you.

"I have been troubled with chronic Catarrh, colds and headache for 15 years and have used most all remedies, but never derived much benefit until I tried Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. This remedy acted like magic, one bottle entirely curing me.—F. E. FORREST, Amherst, N. S. —11
