Questions about our attitude toward different creeds are often asked me, and I have no answer better than the one you perhaps have noticed this year floating in the great Gulf stream of the daily press: "Our Creed is Jesus Christ. Any belief in Him—the smallest—being assumed better than any belief about Him—the greatest—or, for that matter, about anything else." There are many denominations, but the different branches bear the self-same fruit; they all draw life from the same hidden root, which we seeking it know as life.—Frances E. Willard.

Often God seems to place His children in positions of profound difficulty, leading them into a wedge from which there is no escape; contriving a situation which no human judgment would have permitted, had it been previously consulted. The very cloud conducts them thither. You may thus be involved at this very hour. It does seem perplexing and very serious to the last degree; but, it is perfectly right. The issue will more than justify Him who has brought you hither. It is a platform for the display of His almighty grace and power. He will not only deliver you, but in doing so He will give you a lesson that you will never forget; and to which, in many a psalm and song in after days, you will revert. You will never be able to thank God enough for having done just as He has.

A majestic tree fell at its prime—fell on a calm evening, when there was scarcely a breath of air stirring. It had withstood a century of storms and now was broken off by a zephyr. The secret was disclosed at its falling. A boy's hatchet had been struck into when it was a tender sapling. The wound had been grown over and hidden away under exuberant life, but it had never healed. There at the heart of the tree it stayed, a spot of decay, ever eating a little farther and deeper into the trunk, until at last the tree was rotted through and fell of its own weight when it seemed to be at its best.

So do many lives fall when they seem to be at their strongest, because some sin or fault of youth has left its wounding and consequent weakness at the heart.—Dr. J. R. Miller.

The heavenly life thrives in the midst of trials. This is strange, but true; and often that which crushes the earthly life causes the heavenly to thrive and develop. Do not be surprised, for it is all right. Rest and be still, and don't get out of the faith. There are lots of people who have gone into midnight darkness because they did not keep on believing. Abide in Christ; stand clear of the flesh, the world and the devil, absolutely environed by Christ.

Rather than place a needless stumbling block in any Christian's path, it were well neither to eat meat nor to drink wine, because Christian love is a thing more precious than even Christian liberty.—Dean Farrar.

Recently the Pioneer alluded to what it rightly termed our "very strong ground in opposition to Government Control. On this question there is no analogy between the covert position of the Pioneer and that of Tidings. The Tidings stands for the annihilation of the drink traffic, not its fortification in Government dispensaries. This traffic has no place in the economy of God, and God forbid that the Government of Ontario should father it.

When we apply "that righteousness which exalteth a nation" to the individual, both the nation and the subject are the gainers—and when the nation takes to itself a traffic that degrades the individual, national degradation is the result, and the individual suffers accordingly. South Carolina has tried this experiment with the result that some of the blackest stains on the American republic are bounded by its state lines, condoned by its laws and suffered by its subjects.

Queen Wilhelmina is a total abstainer; she is also a member of the Women's League which has for one of its chief objects the suppression of drunkenness.

BABY'S DANGER.

The summer months are a bad time for babies and an anxious time for mothers. Fermentation and decomposition in the stomach and bowels are the cause of the many summer complaints of babies and young children. This is the reason why the hot weather months are more fatal to little ones than any other season. Baby's Own Tablets should always be found in every home where there are young children and their prompt use during hot weather may save a precious little life. The tablets cure constipation, diarrhea and stomach troubles and are guaranteed to contain no opium or harmful drug.

Mrs. Walter Rollins, Sissons Ridge, N. S., says: "Before using Baby's Own Tablets my little one cried almost continuously with stomach troubles. I can truthfully say I never had any medicine act so promptly and give such satisfaction as the tablets do. I do not think you make any claim for them which their use will not substantiate." The tablets can be had from any medicine dealer or by mail from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont. Price 25 cents a box.

Judge Parker was born on his father's farm near the village of Cortland, N. Y., in 1852. On his father's side he comes of the old English farmer stock. His grandfather, John Parker, was born at Worcester, Mass., in 1751.

Valuable Time Saved.

Slight injuries often disable a man and cause several days' loss of time and when blood poison develops, sometimes results in the loss of a hand or limb. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment; when applied to cuts, bruises and burns it causes them to heal quickly and without maturation, and prevents any danger of blood poison. For sale by all druggists.

HOBBOLED SIX YEARS WITH RHEUMATISM.

The Remarkable Case of Mr. Cullen, a Chronic Sufferer, Who Was Cured in Six Weeks by FERROZONE.

Mr. Cullen, of Sturgeon Bay, writes: "For six years I hobbled about like a cripple, unable to move without crutches and canes. I used quantities of medicines and special baths but they didn't help me very much. On the advice of a Presbyterian minister I used Ferrozone, gave it a good trial at first and when I saw it was helping, I bought six boxes and took one tablet at the close of each meal. I am perfectly cured, and am to-day as spry as a youngster of ten. I am convinced that my recovery is entirely due to the marvellous action of Ferrozone."

Mr. Cullen's case is a fair example of the kind of cures that Ferrozone is effecting every day. In severe cases of Neuralgia, Sciatica, Rheumatism and Lumbago, it acts with surprising alacrity, and no case is recorded where it failed.

Ferrozone cures these diseases because it is a solvent for uric acid in the blood. Then it builds up and invigorates the system and makes weak, sickly people, strong and well enough to resist and ward off disease.

The best Rheumatism remedy is Ferrozone. It relieves quickly and cures so perfectly that the disease never returns. After all other remedies fail, it cures, and that is the sort of medicine you want. Price 50c per box, or six boxes for $2.50. Sent to you address by mail if price is forwarded to the Ferrozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

A headache may be relieved by adding a little lemon juice to your tea instead of milk.
