

THIS AND THAT.

The Press talks glibly about an expenditure of $10,000 in the county. We never dreamed the Tories had that much money to burn in the late campaign.

We note with regret that Editor Correll of the Victoria County News was not allowed to exercise his right to vote on account of a challenge respecting his citizenship. It appears that the first few months of the editor's life were spent on foreign soil.

Who is the federal Tory leader in this province? We suppose Mr Fowler may consider himself in the running, although Mr Ganong might claim seniority. If ability were to cut any figure in the race Dr Stockton would win in a canter. Messrs Crockett, Wilnot and Daniel are of course merely members of the rank and file.

"The invincible Mr Hale" may well exclaim "save me from my friends." A great many strong conservatives claim that the Press did valiant service against its own party in the recent struggle. Then, again, we know the little Tory group who thought they were running the whole show are not considered world beaters by even their own friends.

Reference is made in this week's Press to a gentleman who does not mind certain omissions since he has won a hat. We presume the party is none other than the one who took charge of the Tory operations in Northampton and was successful (?) in turning an opposition majority of 21 into a government lead of 64, representing a change of 44 votes. May his labors continue.

The Press has been called "the cheapest, meanest and dirtiest campaign sheet in the province." We would scarcely go that far in condemning our good contemporary, but when it prints an untruthful and low down insinuation which it dare not openly charge for fear of a libel suit, most people will agree that its measure was pretty accurately taken by the journal that described it as above quoted.

The Chatham Advance has ceased publication. The reason given is lack of support, and pressure of other business on the part of the proprietor. Year by year the country weeklies are being crowded to the wall. Competition by cheap Upper Province dailies is the main cause of the great mortality among weekly journals all over the country. Although comparatively few have succumbed, many are anemic and tottering.

St John city occupies a most uncomfortable position. With a government strongly entrenched and having in its power the future making or unmaking in a large degree of a great Canadian winter port, St John finds itself deliberately placed in opposition. Its strongest rival, Halifax, on the contrary, is in the fullest accord with the administration. If ever a sane people chose wrongly, it was the election of Messrs Daniel and Stockton. Halifax has powerful friends at court. What has St John?

Our readers and friends will be pleased to learn of the SENTINEL'S continued growth. Our circulation is steadily climbing upwards, and today is higher than it has ever been during the sixty seven years this paper has been making its weekly visits to the homes of the people. Owing to pressure of advertising matter in spite of a gradual stiffening of rates, we find it desirable in the near future to enlarge our paper. Commencing with an early issue the SENTINEL will become a seven column paper. In the future as in the past it will be our aim to furnish as good a weekly as any in the province.

The Press, not satisfied with its malicious attack on Mr. W. B. Nicholson in its issue of the 7th inst., continues its meanness and unfairness by insinuating that Mr. Nicholson assumed the Press that Mr. Fisher was the guilty party and not he, when, as a matter of fact, Mr. Nicholson was only speaking for and protecting himself against the untruthful attacks of the Press. Mayor Lindsay, as President of the Press Printing Co., waited upon Mr. Nicholson, and under the guise of friendship accepted from him an article exonerating him from wrong doing, but his friendship did not prove to be sufficiently strong to cause him to insist upon justice being done Mr. Nicholson. Nice board of directors!

Notice to Our Subscribers.

It has come to our knowledge that certain of our readers who should regularly receive THE WEEKLY HERALD in addition to the SENTINEL, complain of the non-arrival of the "Herald" on several occasions. This is to notify all parties that in the event of failure to receive the "Herald" promptly each week, complaint should be made to the office of that paper in Montreal, and also notify this office as well.—tf-47.

THE RECENT STORM.

Sunday night about ten o'clock a rainstorm set in. In an hour or two snow began to fall. The wind was blowing quite a gale, and the elements did great damage to telephone and telegraph wires all over the province. Gangs of workmen were hurriedly sent out on Monday to replace the wires. In some sections the destruction was almost complete, even poles being down as well as wires. Here in town many wires were crossed, and there were some cross subscribers as well, but things were straightened out as quickly as possible. Sleighing, such as it was, became in order owing to the five or six inches, more or less, of "the beautiful" with which we were blessed.

The Man Who Defeated Hale.

Mr. F. B. Carvell, barrister of Woodstock, N. B., the new member for Carleton, succeeds Mr. Fred Hale, the popular but quiet gentleman who has represented Carleton the last two parliaments, and who was also the member in the Parliament elected in 1887. Mr. Carvell had his apprenticeship in Provincial politics. He resigned from the Legislature four years ago to contest Carleton against Mr. Hale in the Federal election. Failing then, he has kept up a canvass ever since, and especially during the last year, when Mr. Hale resided in British Columbia. The common impression in Conservative circles was that Mr. Hale would be elected, but the Government party professed to be confident all through, and their faith is justified in Mr. Carvell's election by a snug majority. The new member is clever, aggressive and decidedly ambitious. He is probably dreaming of a seat in the Cabinet, and having an eye to larger things. He is said to have already refused a seat on the Bench.—Toronto News.

BASE BALL.

The season of 1904 was a disastrous one to the Colts compared with the splendid work of 1903, which stands unparalleled in the history of Woodstock so far as baseball is concerned. Having no permanent players and lack of interest were the main reasons why our team was not as successful as it might have been. It seemed quite a task when a game was arranged to get enough players to fill out the team. Now that should not be and can only be attributed to the fact that there was not enough interest taken in the welfare of the team, as there should be plenty of good players around the town. It should be seen to that in the season of 1905 Woodstock is well represented on the diamond, and with proper support our team will stand second to none in this province. The record of 1904 was as follows:—

May 24th, at Woodstock—Myrtles, 4; Colts, 3; Batteries, Pickel and McKinley; R McLauchlan and Milmore.
June 30th, at Fredericton—Tartars, 19; Colts, 4; Batteries, Boone and Finnmore; Dickinson and Milmore.
June 30th, at Fredericton—Tartars, 5; Colts, 0; Batteries, Malloy and Finnmore; Long and Milmore.
July 1st, at Fredericton (exhibition game)—Tartars, 26; Colts, 1; Batteries, Hughes and Burden; Long and Milmore.
July 13th, at Woodstock—Colts, 4; Fort Fairfield 3; Batteries, Milmore and McKinley; Bridges and Mercer.
Aug 5th, at Woodstock—Colts, 7; Katherine Rober Co, 5; Batteries, Long and Milmore; Philbrook and Connell.
Aug 13th, at Grand Falls—Colts, 7; Grand Falls, 5; Batteries, Milmore and Mercer; Nesbitt and Kelly.

There was a heavy fall of snow through the Catekill Mountain region on the 6th inst, the first general snowfall of the season.

A PARTING SHOT.

Commodore Stewart, of the World, pays his respects to the dead in the following breezy fashion:—

"The poor old Advance, that had been dying on its feet for years, has been finally laid in the grave. 'Starved to death' is on its coffin. It long ago lost all the character it ever had, its political character, by jumping the fence and turning Conservative for Government advertising and printing, and jumping back again when the Conservatives were defeated, and was despised by both parties ever after. Very few people would admit it into their homes or offices even as a gift. It had no influence except to injure any candidate it supported. Its fate is a warning to publishers who sacrifice their principles or change their professions for money. Such mercenary changes bring in some ready cash, but cost the respect and confidence of the public. Young men, be warned by the fate of the poor old sinner that has just fallen by the way. Be honest."

The passing of the Advance will probably clear the atmosphere on the North Shore, so long disturbed by the warring journalists. We must, however, protest against the unnecessary venom in the funeral oration by the World editor.

News from the Country.

Newburg.

Winter seems to be setting in already, judging by the cold days and frequent snow falls.

Albert Sparrow has added to the looks of his residence by the addition of a new ell; also William and Aratus Cummins are putting great repairs on their dwellings.

Mr Alvin Lawrence, Queens Co, is spending awhile at the home of his son George, here.

Gamesters are quite plentiful in our forests of late tracking the deer family; and one party early Thursday morning 10th inst succeeded in sighting and felling to the earth on a hardwood ridge below Frank Ryan's lower farm a good sized bull moose with horns having a spread of 28 inches. The boys Johnnie L Gallagher and George Giddis had their prize in from the woods and dressed before noon time. This is an important item in the annals of this place as it is the first lordly monarch that has been delivered from these medieval forests.

DOLLY.

Meductic.

The largest pig of its age that was ever raised in this section of the province was killed by T Edwards last week. It was seven months old and when dressed weighed 342 pounds.

Geo Porter has severed his connection with the J W Marsten estate and has gone to Cabano.

Dr Turner recently assisted in a domestic event at the residence of Isaac Dickinson. Mrs Robt Riley is being congratulated on the arrival of a girl.

Rumor says that the village will have a dressmaking establishment. J Gerrow and family spent Sunday at the Barony.

Miss Helen Marston who has been ill for more than a week is convalescent.

A pen picture of the dilapidated bridge spanning Bel River would hardly do justice to its present dangerous condition. It speaks for itself.

While driving to Dow Settlement last Saturday afternoon, D J Dow shot a very large buck. It measured 38 inches around the neck, head 14 inches, 52 inches around inside antlers, and 68 inches in length.

Hodgdon, Me.

Death visited our town on Wednesday and took from us Mrs Wm Mills. She leaves a husband, one son and two daughters to mourn their loss.

Rev Mr Bishop preached the funeral sermon in the Baptist church.

Robt Betts had the misfortune to have three fingers blown off. While out hunting he stood his gun against a tree to pick gum and when he reached for the gun it became entangled in the bushes and was discharged.

J B Hand has taken the agency for the Victor talking machines and has already sold quite a number.

Warner Perrigo shot a moose recently.

C H Rockwell, until recently clerk at the Fashion store, Houlton, has accepted a similar position with J B Hand.

CALVIN GREEN.
