POLITICAL POINTERS.

Premier Parent of Quebec is likely to give up office. His successor will be either Attorney General Archambault or Hon Mr Turgeon.

The by-election in one of the electoral districts of Kings Co, P. E. I., for the local house on Monday resulted in the seat being retained by the opposition by a small majority.

Premier Ross of Ontario has in view a more stringent license act than the one now in force in that province.

Hon George E Foster is now mentioned as likely to receive the Conservative nomination for Thunder Bay, a new constituency in the wilds of Western Ontario. The Hon George is politically and otherwise moving steadily in the direction of the setting sun.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

We would like to call the attention of the proper parties to the fact that the Woodstock papers have not been in receipt of any telegraphic reports of the doings in the legislature. The province pays a good round sum for having the debates published. We do not think justice has been done the weeklies in this town, and we must enter a protest against such unfair treatment. Last year there was little cause for complaint.

The Local House.

Considerable private legislation has been under consideration this week. Premier Tweedie will act as Surveyor General until such time as a successor to Hon A T Dunn is appointed. A bill has been introduced to change the name of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum to the Provincial Hospital for the Relief of Nervous Diseases. A Woodstock bill relating to the assessment was advanced a few stages in committee. The house has adjourned until after Easter.

Pleased with the Trip.

Mayor Lindsay and Finance Chairman Stevens returned yesterday from Fredericton. During their visit to the Capital they were the recipients of many courtesies on the part of the members of the house and others. Not the least enjoyable feature was the banquet at the Queen on Wednesday evening, attended by nearly all the members, the city council of Fredericton, and prominent delegations from St John and elsewhere. The speech of Mayor Lindsay was regarded as very able, according to Fredericton papers. Coun Stevens proved himself no mean orator as well. The object of their journey, to help along the passage of the town legislation, was successfully accomplished.

MR. HALE'S EXIT.

The Ottawa correspondent of the St. John Sun, who should know what he is talking about, writes that Mr. Fred H. Hale has left the house of commons, possibly forever, except perhaps as a British Columbia member. Mr. Hale has large lumber tracts in the west, and his business there requires his attention. According to this story, Carleton County will be practically unrepresented during the remainder of the present parliament's existence.

The Press.

The Press Publishing Co. is being re-organized. The present heaviest stockholder is disposing of a large portion of his holdings to a number of party men in town and county. The Press is bright and newsy, and should pay a good dividend. It is not thought there will be any change in the personnel of the staff for some time at least, although the name of a gentleman formerly connected with the paper is freely mentioned as likely to take charge.

To Entertain Students.

Messrs Flemming, Jones and Smith, M. P. P.'s for Carleton, will entertain the students of the Normal school, University and Business college from that county at the residence of Mrs Hatt, King street, to-morrow evening.—Herald.

SPEAK OUT.

If any person fails to receive regularly the copy of the Montreal Herald to which he is entitled, we would be much obliged if the omission were reported to this office.

The Wellingtons Are Champions.

WON THE RUBBER IN A CLOSE FINISH. A small but enthusiastic crowd saw the Wellingtons win the deciding game of the series at the rink on Wednesday night. The ice was in poor condition, but the players were so intent upon victory that they worked like beavers, and put up a remarkably fast and closely contested struggle. The line up was as follows:—

Wellingtons—McKendrick, goal; Dalling, point; McLean, cover; F Drysdale, H Drysdale, A Smith and Hall, forwards.

Orioles—Munro, goal; D Connell, point; Corkery, cover; G Connell, W Lister, G Lister and Hull, forwards. The first half was fast and furious and although both sides had to fight desperately to prevent their opponents from scoring, there was nothing doing in the nature of tallying. The second half saw some really splendid play. Shortly after hostilities began, H Drysdale put the puck neatly in the Orioles' net. After quite a long period G Connell shot for the Wellingtons' net. The puck seemed to get slightly behind McKendrick, and the goal judge put up his hand. Pandemonium broke loose. The Iron Dukes disputed the score and their goal and point left the ice. After considerable persuasion the strikers returned, and are now probably not sorry they did so, for the game had not been resumed more than a minute when F Drysdale found opportunity to score. During the short remaining space of time nothing further occurred to disturb the statistics. Jack Dibblee refereed in a satisfactory manner. The result of the contest is that the championship is won by the Wellingtons for the first time in their career. A great deal of good legal tender changed hands on the game, and as odds were not on the winners, many sad hearts and downcast countenances were in evidence when the struggle ended.

TODD—ESTEY.

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, when Rev Z L Fash, assisted by Rev J A Cahill, united in marriage Rev F S Todd and Miss Ida Estey. Only a few immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. Numerous costly presents were received. The best wishes of the community are extended to the happy couple.

A Pernicious Practice.

One of the worst forms of selling liquor to be met by the temperance people now is through the express offices. It is sent generally in a fictitious name, C O D, and it seems that any person answering to that name and paying the bill gets the poison, and it is frequently taken just outside of the express office and the box broken open and the bottles distributed, and in half an hour pandemonium is turned loose. It seems too bad that this useful means of transport should be turned into a curse, especially to the villages along the railroads.—King's Highway.

DEATH OF INFANTS.

On Friday last, the bright child of Bamford Niles died of spinal meningitis, aged three years and six months. The burial took place on Sunday in the Methodist cemetery, Rev. Z. L. Fash officiating.

The following day, the two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wells died from consumption of the brain. The burial in charge of Undertaker Kelly took place on Monday in the Methodist cemetery, Revs. Messrs. Chapman and Ross officiating at the services.

AUSTRALIAN WHEAT.

It should not be forgotten that Australia produces wheat. The estimates of this year's crop, which is marketed in December and January, gives a total yield of 73 million bushels, of which 50 million will be available for export. This is greater than the Canadian surplus for export, although Australia is a smaller colony. Canada is doing very well, and might do somewhat better if colonial wheat had a preference in the British market; but it must not be forgotten that Australia is and will always be a strong competitor in that market. Africa is producing wheat, but not enough for her own purposes. India produces over 200 million bushels a year, and exports a great deal. Even under preferential trade, Canada must expect keen competition in the British market. This emphasizes the importance of cheap transportation.

If Canada is to compete successfully with India and Australia, she must have cheap railway rates to the seaboard and cheap steamship rates to Liverpool. The latter can be obtained by encouraging the importation of British goods, so as to create large cargoes for the return trips from Liverpool to Canada.—April Canadian Magazine.

OBITUARY.

At Biggar Ridge, Carleton county, Archie LeRoy, youngest son of Harvey and Minnie Biggar, died of pneumonia on March 25th, aged 8 months and 15 days. The funeral service was conducted by Pastor C F Rideout on Sunday afternoon.

When we have a precious blossom That we tend with such a care, Rudely from our bosom taken, Now our aching hearts despair.

Round his little grave we'll linger Till the setting sun is low, Feeling all our hopes have perished With the flower we cherished so.

On Monday the 21st of March, the community was greatly shocked when word went out that Mrs George Hardy had passed away. She was in her usual health, attending to her household duties till about eight o'clock when she suddenly fell, and instantly expired. The deceased lady will be greatly missed in the community as she was an earnest worker in the Master's vineyard, ever ready with loving heart and willing hand to help those in need, and by her many Christian qualities and loving and gentle disposition she endeared herself to the hearts, and won the esteem of all who knew her. In the home circle and among her neighbors she will be missed indeed, for those who knew her best loved her most. On Wednesday 23rd she was laid to rest in Monticello cemetery. Elder Russell on the occasion spoke words of comfort from Luke 12, 40 and Proverbs 31 chapter.

The Real Question.

Is it not nobler for a man to sacrifice a little for those he loves, by taking arms against a sea of dangers and not leave his family the heartache and the want that follow death, where no provision is made. Allow J W Astle to show you his newest policy in the "Canada Life", it gives everything one would ask.

Deaths.

Suddenly of heart failure, March 21st, at her home in Monticello, Mary Matilda, beloved wife of George Hardy, aged 53 years and 8 months. The deceased was a consistent Christian and will be greatly missed in her home and in the community in which she lived. (Woodstock, Houlton and Bangor papers please copy.)

One precious to our hearts has gone; The voice we loved is stilled; The place made vacant in our home Can never more be filled.

Our Father in His wisdom called The boon His love had given, And though on earth the body lies, The soul is safe in Heaven.
