

Sunlight Soap will not injure your blankets or harden them. It will make them soft, white and fleecy.

Policeman—Look here, my man, what are you doing? You've been hanging around and peeping into that shop for the last hour, and it looks very suspicious.

Shy Paterfamilias (who has within the last few days experienced the first joys of fatherhood)—That's easily explained. My wife asked me to go out and get a feeding-bottle, and I'm just waiting till there's no one in the shop before I go in to get the thing.

Dear Sirs,—This is to certify that I have been troubled with a lame back for fifteen years. I have used three bottles of your MINARD'S LINIMENT and am completely cured. It gives me great pleasure to recommend it and you are at liberty to use this in any way to further the use of your valuable medicine.

Two Rivers.

He (somewhat suspiciously)—You say you never loved anybody but me? Ha, is that true, Maud?

She—Harry, your looks terrify me! Have—have I been too bold in letting you kiss me?

He—No, Maud, but you kiss like an old hand.

Catarrh is Certainly Curable.

In fact it is one of the most curable diseases if fragrant healing Catarrh-ozone is used. No matter how long you have suffered with catarrh you can be perfectly cured by inhaling the antiseptic vapor of Catarrh-ozone, which strikes at the foundation of the trouble and establishes such a healthy condition in the system that catarrhal germs simply can't exist. "I suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat for years," writes S. H. Downie of Plattsburgh, "My nostrils were always stuffed up and I had a most disagreeable hacking cough. Catarrh-ozone cured me completely." Catarrh-ozone never fails. Two months treatment $1.00; trial size 25 cents.

Atitudinising Spinster—Really, Tom, it's a very serious thing to marry. Have you counted the cost? Tom—The cost! The cost! Why, I've a cousin who's a minister down in Ayrshire, and who'll marry us for nothing.

Man's Most Critical Age.

Very often the vital resources are small at forty-two, but if not then, between fifty-seven and sixty-two years of age there is a strange slowing down and loss of vitality. It is important that this transient period of decay should be checked; strength must be imparted to the brain, the weakened nerves must be fortified. The wise man will use Ferrozone whose potency is particularly applicable to these critical periods. Ferrozone quickens the whole being, imparts vigor and power, pushes back the onset of senility in a very manifest way. It's because Ferrozone gives strength, vitality and vigor that it is useful to old men. Try it. Price 50c.

The Kidneys and the Skin.

In the spring, the kidneys have much to do. If they are weak or torpid, they will not do it well, and the skin will be pimply or blotchy. That is telling the story in a few words.

Hood's Sarsaparilla strengthens and stimulates the kidneys, cures and prevents pimples, blotches and all cutaneous eruptions.

Another Chapter in the Northampton Warfare.

To the Editor of Carleton Sentinel:

In your issue of the 18th ult., appears a reply to Ratepayer. We are sorry to have so stirred the feelings of the writer that he almost lost sight of the main point and indulged in abuse or calling hard names. If the writer reads the communication over carefully he will find that we do not find fault with the surplus but that he on October last laid claim to having redeemed the parish and freed it from debt. A good many ratepayers have called my attention to the fact that the writer did make such a claim but as he admits in his reply that he makes no such claim we will accept it as an apology and will drop the matter by giving the financial condition of the parish as it appears in the auditor's report from 1903 up to the present time:—

Jan. 8, 1900, Northampton was indebted to county, $92.06.
Jan. 14, 1901, Northampton indebted to county, $55.28.
Jan. 14, 1902, Northampton indebted to county, $3.83.
Jan. 12, 1903, county was indebted to Northampton, $3.85.
Jan. 11, 1904, county indebted to Northampton, $15.64.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Strain Caused by Heavy Lifting.

William Sharam Tells of His Precarious Condition, and His Happy Release from It.

MURRAY HARBOR SOUTH, P. E. I., March 28.—(Special.)—Wm Sharam, who keeps a general store here, is one of many hundreds in Prince Edward Island who have been rescued from chronic sickness and made sound and well by Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr Sharam, who is always glad to say a word for the remedy that did so much for him, relates his experience as follows:—

"I sprained my back with heavy lifting, and the result was urinary and kidney trouble that left me in a very weak state, and at times I got so weak that I almost fainted, and could scarcely hold up.

"After trying several other medicines without relief, I concluded that it was a Kidney Disease I had, and would find the cure in a Kidney remedy and decided to try Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"The result was all that could be asked. I used ten boxes all told and can now enjoy sweet sleep without being disturbed as heretofore, and my old troubles were banished."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all Kidney ills from Backache to Bright's Disease.

He Fooled Them.

It was the morning of the first of April, and Harold, the minister's son, a little lad of five years, had been told that he might ask the blessing at the table. The family bowed their heads and waited for the expected blessing. The boy bowed his head reverently, clasped his hands, was solemnly silent for a moment, and then called out jubilantly,—"April fool!"—April Lippincott's.

Whoa haw, Buck,

Bound for Kansas,

Dern my luck.

Hed three fortunes

In my grip,

But I had ter

Take a trip;

G'lang there, Jerry,

Whoa haw, Buck,

Bound for Kansas,

Dern my luck.

Owened a farm there

Long ago,

Hundred feet of

Set below,

Couldn't rest, though,

Scarce a minute,

Though there was a

Fortune in it.

Pulled up stakes for

Farther West,

Well, I 'spose ye

Know the rest.

G'lang there, Jerry,

Whoa haw, Buck,

Bound for Kansas,

Dern my luck.

Then got weary

And went back,

Bought again

Another tract,

Down where they have

Gas 'n' oil

And the richest

Kind o' soil.

Stayed three years 'n'

Bought away;

Gushin' gas well

Found next day.

G'lang there, Jerry,

Whoa haw, Buck,

Bound for Kansas,

Dern my luck.

Then my luck

Then moved down to

Pleasanton.

Swore this move wuz

My last one.

Bought a quarter

Where there's lead,

Raised two crops 'n'

Got ahead.

Didn't know that

Lead was there,

Lead and zinc now

Everywhere.

Left that farm for

Arkansas.

Now I'm goin'

Back—whoa haw,

G'lang there, Jerry,

Whoa haw, Buck,

Bound for Kansas,

Dern my luck.

Ed I git in—

Side that State

(And I'll git there

Soon or late).

Bet your life I'll

Take my stand

Somewhere on a

Piece o' land,

An' I'll not be

Moved from inch.

'Ness a cyclone

Gits a clinch,

Fer if I should

Loose my hold

They'd begin to

'He says his wife is largely responsible for his business success.'

'Well, she has certainly made it absolutely necessary for him to earn more money.'

Broken Peace, or the Opening Scenes of the Russo-Japanese War.

By Harry Havens, Jacksonville.

In days gone by the Russian bear Did o'er his glory ponder, And arm in secret to prepare To fight the Japs o'er yonder.

He thought, 'on all the deeds he'd done On battlefield so bloody, And wondered how the allies won 'Gainst such a compact body.

Once more he stood on Alma's height And watched the Frenchmen charge, And saw that England's armies might For him was far too large.

Sabastopol now rends the air; Then Balacava sounds; And Inkerman, with fields so fair, With Tchernaya doth resound.

But all those glorious days are gone; He thinks on them no more; And swiftly does he march along To answer calls of war.

His country's made a sad mistake And now the days of sunny peace For him are gone, and he must take His departure for the East.

Sad will always be that glorious day When Russia to the foreign counsel swore Korea must the Russian rod obey, And never to expect the open door.

But never did the Russian monster dream That he was rousing such a deadly foe As now to us the little Jap would seem, Well armed, prepared to deal the Russian woe.

At first the Japs had all victorious been, Eleven vessels answering for her guns; Port Arthur then did see the curling steam Of several of Japs master ironsons.

Again the Japs were all victorious And many more were added to the list. The loyal Russian navy now to us Seems but a skill emerging from the mist.

But when the Japs prepare their troops to land, The Russians do such deadly show-ers send, That everything is beaten to the sand, A loss the little Jap cannot amend.

Another body tried to do the same, But met the mighty Cossack face to face; No line or front could they show once again— That charge would near exterminate the race.

O! try fiery Jap, be calm and fight with care, And fortune will repay thee doubly soon, But never once forsake your Emperor dear, While plows the ocean broad beneath the moon.

Depend on England for an ally strong; United States will surely give thee aid. We soon shall see who's weak and who is strong, But fight on till the debt is truly paid.
