Governor Odell, of New York, was discussing the woes of the gas consumer with a caller a few days ago, and told this little story:

"I was sitting in a train next a couple who were devising ways and means of getting out of debt. The man took a roll of papers from his pocket and said irritably:—'I'm all in the dark about how these bills are to be paid.'"

"Well, Jim," said his wife, as she pointed to a colored one in the bundle, 'you will be more completely in the dark than ever if you don't pay this one, for it's the gas bill.'"

C. C. RICHARDS & CO. Dear Sirs,—MINARD'S LINIMENT is my remedy for colds, etc. It is the best liniment I have ever used. MRS. JOSIAH HART.

Judge E. H. Gary, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Steel Trust, used to live in the Illinois town of Wheaton. 'One day in Wheaton,' Judge Gary said recently, 'I took dinner with a clergyman and his family. The clergyman had an eight year old son called Joe, and Joe was a very bright boy.'

'Look here, Joe,' I said, during the course of the dinner, 'I have a question to ask you about your father.' Joe looked gravely at me. 'All right,' I'll answer your question,' he said.

'Well,' said I, 'I want to know if your father doesn't preach the same sermon twice sometimes.'

'Yes, I think he does,' said Joe, 'but the second time he always holds it in different places from what he did the first time.'

Don't Trust to Luck.

Even if there is such a thing as luck you cannot afford to trust to it in case of sickness. You know by the experience of others that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food actually forms new blood and tissue and revitalizes the nerves and by using it regularly you can be certain that your system is being built up and that weakness and disease are being overcome.

Millville, N. B.

Courtship is a drawn game, and marriage is a tie; but some folks have theirs in a love not.

Lever's Y-Z (Wise Head) Disinfectant Soap Powder is a boon to any home. It disinfects and cleans at the same time.

Never marry for money, but always for love. Though if the girl has money, try to love her!

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc.

A boy was driving a team with a load of hay, and managed to upset in front of the doctor's house, and, it being dinner time, the doctor came out and invited the boy to put his team in the stable and have some dinner before tackling the contract of righting the load.

'Oh, thanks,' said the lad, 'but I don't think father would like me to do that.'

'Why, not? I have often had a meal in your father's house,' said the doctor. 'Come right in and we can see to the load afterwards.'

The boy reluctantly complied and seemed restless and uncomfortable during the whole meal.

'Well,' said the doctor, when dinner was finished, 'now you'll feel better able to build up the load again.'

'Yes,' answered the boy, 'but I guess father will never forgive me for this.'

'Hang it all, where is your father?' 'Under the load of hay.'

Keep the Balance Up.

It has been truthfully said that any disturbance of the even balance of health causes serious trouble. Nobody can be too careful to keep this balance up. When people begin to lose appetite, or to get tired easily, the least imprudence brings on sickness, weakness, or debility. The system craves it and craves it, and should not be denied it; and the best tonic of which we have and any knowledge is Hood's Sarsaparilla. What this medicine has done in keeping healthy, in keeping up the even balance of health, gives it the same distinction as a preventive that it enjoys as a cure. Its early use has illustrated the wisdom of the old saying that a stitch in time saves nine. Take Hood's for appetite, strength, and endurance.

'Could you love me if I lost all my money?'

'How much have you to lose?'

Assist Nature.

You have been told to "hitch your wagon to a star"—that Nature will assist you. That's all right. There are times, however, when you should assist nature, and the spring is one of these times.

Nature is now undertaking to cleanse your system—if you take Hood's Sarsaparilla the undertaking will be successful, and your complexion bright and clear.

The price of popularity has made bankrupt many a man's nature.

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia.

A Good Complexion

Is a joy to every woman's heart and man is vain enough not to do so. Beautiful complexion means pure blood, or in other words a healthy body. Tens of thousands of women take Ferrozone because it is a splendid blood builder, keeps the system in perfect order and helps the complexion wonderfully. 'I consider Ferrozone the best remedy to give you a clear ruddy complexion I know of,' writes Miss Ada E. Brandon of Pembroke. 'My skin used to be sallow but after taking a few boxes of Ferrozone a rosy tint was noticeable on my cheeks. I can recommend Ferrozone as a tonic also.' For good health and beauty use only Ferrozone. Price 50c. at druggists.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular correspondent.) Washington, D. C., May 9, 1904.

In the Congress that has just adjourned its second session are a score who will be famous among the statesmen of the next generation. It is customary to bewail the greatness of the past and imagine that they will never have successors. Like boys playing on the shore we are fond of inventing our field glass and belittling the objects that are near.

I heard a surly cynic say "The eagles all are dying; The kings that rule the mountain thrones are vanishing away." But from a thousand cloudy nests the answer fell, replying, "The eagles of to-morrow are the fledglings of to-day."

Not since I can remember, not since before the war—have there been so many young men of high promise in Congress as there are today. Most of the youth are, of course, commonplace, but a few have attracted the attention of the country and displayed qualities certain to keep them at the front. Of the former it is not necessary to speak further, for they will vanish next March into the obscurity whence they came or linger in Congress wrapped in the same twilight of illac mist; but the latter will be heard from.

In the Senate, among the very ablest men on the floor, are Beveridge, Dolliver, Carmack and Bailey, all in the early forties, and the last named, though the youngest, perhaps the most conspicuous of all.

In the House the three youngest men are Burton Lee French of Idaho, Morris Sheppard of Texas, and Asbury Lever of South Carolina, all twenty eight and all good talkers and excellent scholars. Burton Harrison of New York is a year older. He acquired his first fame by being the son of his mother, one of the best known of our women novelists. She set up an establishment here which became quite a social rendezvous, before her husband's recent death. Burton has made a good impression on the floor of the House. There are several men who are two or three years older, born in 1872—Bell, Cal.; Robinson, Ark.; Hardwick, Ga.; Frederick Landis, Ind.; Hughes, N. J.; Fitzgerald, N. Y., and Webb, N. C. Among these, Landis, Fitzgerald and Hardwick have made a reputation for themselves this session by their efficiency in committee and their readiness on the floor. Of the men who are a little older, Claude Kitchen of North Carolina, at thirty five (in his first session), has made a national sensation by his fearless satirical attack on the president; and Clarence Van Duzer, of Nevada, has made himself solid with millions of people by an eloquent eulogy of the west. No less than thirty five members of the House were born since the Civil war closed. Of these, Cushman of Washington has made a great hit.

In the Senate Alabama has the oldest couple—Morgan, eighty, and Pettus, eighty three. Have wig makers gone out of business? There is not a wig in the bald headed Senate.

Sixty years ago at least a dozen men in the Senate and three times as many in the House wore wigs, covering their entire craniums. Perhaps the most celebrated was Barksdale's sandy thatch, for in a first flight on the floor of the House it was torn off by John P. Hale and flung into a sawdust receptacle. Thad. Stevens wore a wig after that—the last wig I believe that was worn in either House. Senators Clapp and Fairbanks compromise in that matter as they do in a good many others by carefully drawing about six hairs from each side of the head and crossing them upon the crown, apparently under the delusion that the absurd device gives them a very hirsute and shaggy appearance.

Theodore Thomas wears a wig to keep from catching cold in the orchestra. Byron looked forward with terror to the time when he would have to wear a wig. He says, in a footnote, 'Suetonius informs us that Julius Caesar was particularly gratified by that decree of the Senate which enabled him to wear a wreath of laurel on all occasions.' He was anxious not to show that he was the conqueror of the world but to hide that he was bald.' The thought recurs to him when he speaks in Childe Harold of 'the bald first Caesar's head.'

Reginald Vanderbilt sat in the Newport reading-room.

'These Socialists,' he said, are like the rest of us when a thing comes home to them.

'Why?' said a gentleman present. 'Well, for instance, I will tell a story.'

'An old Rhode Island farmer having lost all his money, turned Socialist. He set out to convert a neighbor of his.

'Now, Ezra,' said the neighbor, 'let me understand ye. Do ye mean everything should be shared?'

'That there's precisely what I mean,' said Ezra.

'Well, if ye had two heifers, would ye give me one?'

'I would.'

'If ye had two horses, would ye give me one?'

'Certainly, sir; certainly.'

'If ye had two pigs, would ye give me one?'

'Ah,' said the old Socialist, reproachfully, 'there ye're gettin' too near home. Ye know I've got two pigs.'

June Number New Idea Woman's Magazine.

A number of new features characterize the June issue of the New Idea Woman's Magazine. Among them may be mentioned especially "Perdita's Problems," the first of a series of papers by Alice Chittenden, telling how a small family may live comfortably on a moderate income. "Summer Comfort" is another interesting paper by Maud Murray Miller. "A Glimpse of Capri," by Jean B. Stearns, is a charming tale of travel. "A German Bride's Outfit," by Mabel A. Potter, is both instructive and entertaining. In fiction, fashion, theatrical news, domestic science and interior decoration, the number fairly teems with good things, and the illustrations fitly supplement the text.

THE MISERY OF CATARRH

It makes a man ridiculous, it makes him an offensive nuisance and it makes him dangerously sick.

Catarrh is not a luxury or a necessity.

It is pretty sure to bring on consumption, pneumonia, or at least, bronchitis. You cannot afford either.

You can afford the cure for it. A cheap cure that has never failed. It is Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. It relieves a cold or catarrh, or cures a headache in ten minutes, it entirely heals up the catarrh-wasted surfaces.

No other remedy can count noses with us—cured noses.

C. E. ZIMMERMAN, of the staff of the Roanoke World, states:

"Dr. Agnew's Catarrh Cure is the only remedy that has ever given me any permanent relief, after suffering more than fifteen years from Catarrh."

Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure first looks to the main spring of life and health, sets up the heart in new strength, feeds the nerves and fills every other organ with life. Cured thousands; will cure you.

'No, I won't give you a piece of my apple?' snapped his sister.

'You mean thing!' said the boy. 'Wasn't it me that spoiled the piano, so that you didn't have to practice for a week?'

30 Yrs. of Eczema Cured at Last

Another illustration of the remarkable power of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema.

On account of many vain efforts to cure eczema and driven almost crazy with the itching, stinging sensations which accompany it many declare this disease incurable. Not so with those who have used Dr. Chase's Ointment, for this preparation soon brings relief from the itching and thoroughly cures the disease itself, leaving the skin soft, smooth and natural in appearance.

Once you learn the merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment you will find it indispensable in the home as a cure for every form of skin trouble.

Mr. JOHN PRATER, Byde, Huron Co., Ont., writes:—'I cannot give Dr. Chase's Ointment too much praise for I was troubled with eczema for over twenty years and had been treated by three doctors, though they all failed to cure me. Dr. Chase's Ointment has cured me completely and I have not had the slightest sign of the return of this disease for several months. I am quite satisfied that I have found a permanent cure at last.'

Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

For pains and aches use Dr. Chase's Backache Plasters.

Sunshine Furnace

DOUBLE FEED-DOORS

Just about the meanest thing a furnace can have is a dinky little door. Ever have one? Hit the edge as often as the hole? One has to be an expert stoker to shovel coal into some furnaces. If you're not an expert you'll get as much on the floor as in the furnace.

The Sunshine furnace is equipped with a good, big door. You can put your shovel in and drop the coal just where it is wanted—no trouble, no taking aim, no missing, no scattering, or annoyance.

Everything about the Sunshine furnace is on the same scale of thoughtfulness.
