News from the Country.

Benton. Mrs Effie Mills, wife of Geo Mills, died of consumption on Wednesday, March 2nd, leaving a husband and one child. Deceased was the second daughter of Mr and Mrs Daniel McMillan of this place, by whom she is also survived with two sisters and four brothers. The funeral was held Friday afternoon from the Baptist church, of which she was a member. The pastor Rev C N Barton preached a very appropriate sermon to a large congregation. The pall bearers were Enos Dow, Alfred McPherson, Maurice Austin and Arnold Boyd. The burial was at the Benton cemetery. The bereaved husband and family have the deepest sympathy of their many friends. James Scott has finished his lumber.

NOTICE. NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made at the next Session of the Legislature of the Province of New Brunswick for the purpose of amending Chapter 84 of the Acts of Assembly, A. D. 1902, intituled "An Act to incorporate Bath Villages for Water and Fire Purposes", in order to enable the Commissioners to issue Debentures for an amount sufficient to complete the water works system already begun. Dated at Bath, in the County of Carleton, this Fourth day of February, A. D. 1904. PATRICK CORBETT, Chairman Commissioners.

bering operations for this season, and the village seems rather quiet without his teams hustling to and fro. Percy Grosvenor has a number of teams still busy hauling logs into his mill where a good supply is already piled for summer sawing.

Arthurette. Hauling spruce logs is about over for this season, both here and further up river. Henry Hilyard of St John has been up this way for a few weeks, looking after his lumber interests. The people of this section are paying stumpage on the wood they burn, and some of them are kicking like steers about it.

Dr J D Coffin returned from P E I a short time ago, and resumed his practice here. It is said that the doctor has given up the idea of moving to Andover. The mail service for two months past, has been the most unsatisfactory that we have had in twenty years.

J F Tweeddale M P P, left for the scene of his legislative labors on the 2nd inst. Manzer Giberson is ill at present, with congestion of the liver. There are several other cases of sickness. Charles and Tyler Giberson are preparing to build a 40x50 barn as soon as the snow goes off.

The Red Rapids bridge is now a covered bridge. This, in the opinion of a great many is an improvement that does not improve. "A."

I. W. N. BAKER, M. D., SPECIALIST IN DISEASES OF THE Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. Office hours from 9 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 5 p. m., or by appointment. OFFICE—Main Street, near Orange Hall Woodstock, N. B.

Andover. The circuit court met at Andover on Tuesday last, Judge Landry presiding. There were several cases of importance tried, the first was the King vs McCarthy. The Grand Jury found a "true bill," J A Perley was foreman of the Grand Jury. The case was then taken before the Court, the plaintiff LaClair charges McCarthy with interference in the discharge of his duty. After the whole evidence was in and left to the petit jury, he latter disagreed standing six for the acquittal of McCarthy and six for conviction. Perhaps one of the most important cases that has been tried here for some years was that between John McDonald of Tobique River and the Tobique Salmon Club in dispute of title of a certain piece of land, which was decided in favor of McDonald. W P Jones of Woodstock and Thos Lawson of Andover were for the defendant McDonald, and A B Connell of Woodstock was for plaintiff Salmon Club represented by T F Allan of Bangor Maine. Great interest was centered in the case. An appeal to a higher court is said to be in view. John Scribner and Frank Bixby spent Sunday at Perley's Hotel.

Mr Thurrott traveller for the provincial Chemical Fertilizer Co of St John was here last week soliciting orders for the firm. Quite a thaw came on Thursday last but did not last long, a cold wave came next day and on Monday of this week we had a heavy snow storm turning to rain.

Sheriff Tibbits is again laid up with a heavy cold. Neil McQuarrie our police magistrate has been suffering with rheumatism, but is feeling better now. The new barber shop opened by W H Kelly is well patronized and is quite a convenience to the people of Andover.

The Electric Light meeting on Monday night decided not to proceed with the electric light. Another meeting will be called in June. It is rumored that J E Porter is about to sell his grist mill to D E Edwards of Fort Fairfield, who has bought the old water power mill site at Four Falls, and will put new machinery out of Porter mill in the old Four Falls mill.

Rev Mr Ireland of Woodstock exchanged pulpits with the Rev James Ross of Andover a week ago last Sunday. Miss Hoyt has been visiting Miss Barker at Four Falls.

RAMBLER. COLDS ARE DANGEROUS. How often you hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and in a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

THE WAR. PORT ARTHUR, March 10.—The Japanese fleet appeared off this city at midnight and bombarded it intermittently until 8 o'clock this morning. Nagasaki, March 10.—The crews of the merchant vessels captured by Japanese warships since the war began have just been released and in all four hundred Russians, Chinese and Germans have been turned over to various consuls to be sent back to their own countries. Forty of the officers taken at the same time still remain at Sasebo. The coal cargo of the Norwegian steamer Hermes has been released.

St Petersburg, March 10.—An imperial ukase has been issued prohibiting the exportation of horses from Russia until further notice. Even for the exportation of single horses with pedigree permission from the head of the remount department must be obtained. The commanders of the Russian warships Variag and Koreitz have had conferred upon them the decoration of the military order of St George, of the fourth class, on account of their heroic conduct in the engagement with the Japanese at Chemulpo. The other officers and crews of the vessels have been given minor decorations, including crosses of the order of St George.

TOKIO, March 10.—Vice Admiral Kamimura, reporting the bombardment of Vladivostock on March 6, says the attack commenced at ten minutes of two in the afternoon and the firing was kept up about forty minutes. He believes the bombardment was effective and demoralizing to the enemy. The Russian forts did not reply to the Japanese fire. Japanese cruisers subsequently reconnoitered several adjacent places on the coast, but found no trace of the enemy. The full report of Vice Admiral Kamimura, who commanded the second Japanese squadron, says: As pre-arranged, we reached the east entrance to Vladivostock on the morning of March 6 through a frozen sea. The enemy's ships were not seen outside the harbor. We approached the batteries on the northeast coast from a point beyond the range of the batteries on the Balzan promontory, on Bosphorus Strait. After bombarding the inner harbor forty minutes, from 1.30 o'clock in the afternoon, we retired. I believe the bombardment did considerable damage. Soldiers were seen, but the land batteries did not reply to our fire.

"Black smoke was observed at the east entrance to the harbour about five o'clock p. m. and was thought to be Russian ships, but this smoke gradually disappeared. On the morning of March 7 we reconnoitered America Bay and Stelok Bay, but saw nothing unusual. We re-approached the east entrance to Vladivostock at noon. The enemy's ships were invisible and the batteries did not fire. We turned toward Possiet Bay, but not seeing the enemy retired."
