Honors for C. F. Rogers' Stock.

At the Amherst Winter Fair, C. F. Rogers, the well known farmer who owns the "Island", carried off the honors in Yorkshire pigs. His exhibit was pronounced the finest ever seen in the maritime provinces. Mr. Rogers is a progressive agriculturist, and manages to keep well to the front in everything relating to farming.

Race at Ashland.

There was a fine contest on the ice at Ashland on Tuesday for a prize of $75 and 100 bushels of oats. The horses entering were King D, Barbadoes (2.13), Dr. Glen and others. The Doctor showed his heels to the bunch and carried off the oats and the dough. Dr. Glen is one of the progeny of Red Glen, the horse which A. W. Brown is disposing of by ticket.

JOTTINGS.

John Y Flemming of Debec was in town on Wednesday.

R B Jones has in one of his store windows a first rate imitation of a logging scene.

Miss Rose Dibblee has returned from Chicago, where she has spent several weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Randolph Britton of Upper Woodstock disposed of his Red Glen filly to parties at Lakeville for a good figure.

Willie Brown came home on Wednesday from St Mary's College, Van Buren, Me, to spend the Christmas holidays.

Herbert Peterson, a prominent young liberal of Tracy's Mills, made a pleasant call at the SENTINEL office on Wednesday.

The Teachers' Institute met on Thursday. About seventy five are in attendance. Full report of proceedings given next week.

Dr ES Kirkpatrick is recovering, and soon expects to be able to resume his practice, which is being carefully attended to in the meantime.

Major John J Troy, the popular restaurant proprietor, has had the paperhangers and decorators busy in his establishment. Great improvement is noticed.

Carleton County produces some fine beef. John J Rogers of Northampton sold W H Scovil a fine carcass that weighed 840 lbs dressed, and of very superior quality.

On Tuesday evening Miss Christina Arnold and Mr Bruce VanWart were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, at the residence of Mr and Mrs Chas Griffith. Rev F Allison Currier tied the knot.

There has been very little news of importance this week concerning town politics. Mayor Lindsay is in the field, quietly conducting his canvass. No new aspirants for the council are yet announced.

Prof Horace Brittain, who spent the summer here the guest of his father, Prof John Brittain, has been appointed assistant in the science department at the U N B. He will begin lectures early in the New Year.

Country produce is selling well. Turkeys bring 20cts and ever higher per lb. Chickens find ready sale at 10 and 11 cents. Pork is coming up, about six cents being quoted. Oats are strong at 37 cents. Hay brings about $7 per ton.

Jane Harding, widow of the late Robert Stephenson, died on Friday morning, aged 65 years. The funeral took place on Sunday conducted by Rev G D Ireland. One daughter, Miss Lou, and a step daughter, Mrs Frank Currie, are the surviving members of the family.

Prof Fred Clarke, the wonderful young hypnotist, visited Debec last Friday evening and put on a fine performance. The Professor expects to visit other places early in the year. Some night near the close of the month he will entertain Woodstock people in Graham's Opera.

Patrons of the Century Rink will be pleased to learn that it is the intention of the band to have the rink open on Monday, December 26th, afternoon and evening. Season tickets are now on sale at all drug stores and at the stores of Messrs Carr & Gibson, Wallace Gibson and H V Dalling. Price same as last year.

People complain that fowl of all kinds are scarce and high in price. Several acute minded parties foresaw this judging by what happened at the recent Carlisle Hotel fire. The proprietor had laid in his winter supply of turkeys, chickens and geese but the temptation was so strong to the light fingered that the toothsome morsels, destined for the guests of that popular hotel, found different channels. Such is life.

Wm Hamilton has sold his Red Glen filly to Winslow Dyer of Bath.

Word has just been received from the West of the marriage of Harold Bruce Dibblee to Miss Ethel Lawson. The ceremony took place at Brooks, Alberta, on Nov 12th. The groom is the youngest son of C F K Dibblee.

AN EXCEEDINGLY POPULAR FLOUR.

The most talked of flour on the Canadian market to-day is "Royal Household." Its sales extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific and many people pronounce it the finest flour they have ever used.

The Fredericton Herald recently interviewed a number of merchants in that city as to their success in selling this flour and the reports obtained show "Royal Household" to be a favorite flour in that section of the province. The firms interviewed were:—

Messrs A F Randolph & Son; Mr James Hodge; Mr G T Whelpley; Mr A A Stirling; Mr John McKnight; and they all testified favorably as to its general excellence and popularity among Fredericton consumers.

In Woodstock, the sale of "Royal Household" is increasing and buyers can now obtain it from the following merchants:—

H G Noble; W S Skillen; Holyoke & Brown; H N Payson; C B Snow; J C Milmore; J W Dalling; John Graham; and A F Randolph & Son.

It may not be known to our readers that the process by which "Royal Household" is made is different from that in use by any Canadian Mills. It is a process worth seeing and Woodstock people who visit Montreal should make it a point to go and see the flour being made. Any person of average intelligence who examines this process will easily see why "Royal Household" must be purer and better than any other flour.

Worth Trying For.

The student in the shorthand department of S. Kerr & Son's Business College obtaining the highest marks next year will be awarded a valuable gold watch, a prize offered by the United Typewriter Co., Montreal. The student getting this watch will also get what will be of much greater value—a thorough drill in the best systems in use.
