A GOOD RING gives out no uncertain sound. It's the same way with Patent Medicines. Those of merit had a long pull before people freely used them. Those that have stood the test of time we keep; we won't handle the experimental ones. Meritorious Patent Medicines can always be had of us. E. W. MAIR The Prescription Druggist.

'Quincy Adams Sawyer'' this season is the appearance of the amorous old country swan, Abner Stiles, who is courting the volatile Mrs Crowley, in the last act. He is seen far up the stage as he comes plodding through the blindnig snowstorm to call on his "Irish Angel." Arriving at the back door of the farmhouse he knocks off the snow and raps. Mrs Crowley puts up the curtain at the kitchen window to see who is rapping, and Abner Stiles at once rushes to open the door. As the door is closed behind him, the audience sees them through the window rush to each other's arms but just then the curtain is pulled down with a slam.

What is home without a mother? Truer words were never said. Shall we never know her value 'Till she's numbered with the dead?

Shall we never know how precious Mother's life has been to us Till we hear in solemn accents. Earth to earth and dust to dust ?

Shall we never know how lovely Was our mother's form and face 'Fill sh¢ goes from earth to heaven-Goes forever from her place?

Shall we never know how tender Were the gentle words she gave "Till she sleeps in solemn stillness In the cold and silent grave?

Shall we never know how noble Are the deeds our mothers do, 'Till their doing all is over At d they've passed from mortal view

And we miss their loving presence Midst earth's trouble, toll and strife, And we long for mother's counsel And for mother's kind advice.

The annual picnic of St Gertrude's acquisition. Church was held Tuesday. Good weather favored the event which from every standpoint was a complete success. Financially the result was quite up to expectations, in the vicinity of $750 being realized. Large numbers were present from Debec, Houlton and other near by places. Fathers Murphy, McCarthy Dollard and Bradley were on the grounds during the day, in addition of course to Father McMurray the energetic and popular priest in charge of the Woodstock congregation. The ladies outdid all previous efforts in catering and the unanimous opinion expressed on all sides was that the epicures of old might well have satisfied their utmost longings with such a feast. Sports of all kinds were liberally patronized and handsome prizes carried off by the fortunate ones. On the whole the picnic may be described as a perfect success. Much of the enjoyment of the day's proceed. ings was due to the presence of the leave for the Pacific Coast, was pre-67th Regt Band which rendered a delightful programme throughout Jewel by Woodstock Lodge F & A M, the afternoon and evening.
