Letter from the West.

Chicago, July 12th, 1905.

DEAR BROTHER:—

We started a game of poker and used the blind man for the lookout. The armless man touched me for a dollar, then he dealt the cards. I opened the pot with a jackknife and bet two dollars. The blind man saw my two dollars and raised me two more, the deaf and dumb man called him, the fishman stood Pat. The armless man finally won the pot because he had the best hand.

The next day we were all brought up in front of the judge, except the deaf and dumb man. He got his hearing the day after. The judge sent the armless man to the rockpile; he told the blind man to go out and look for a job, and gave me thirty minutes to get out of town. I did it in fifteen. I still have fifteen minutes coming to me in that town.

I landed here to-day and the first man I met on the street was an old friend of mine by the name of Frank Moon. Moon used to be in the same business I am in now, but he saved enough out of it to retire. He used to carry a Harvard diploma around with him, I don't think he stole it. I think he must have graduated from Harvard and got it honestly, for he wasn't bright enough to get it any other way.

I used to call Moon "Rainbow" on account of having gray hair, red nose, white teeth, black character and a yellow streak. He could never see that joke, he was color blind. Moon was a nice fellow until he drank. I never saw Moon full, but I have seen him half full. He only weighs about 100 pounds. Isn't Moon light?

The way I happened to meet him, I was looking for some one to borrow money from, and I knew I was going to have luck, because I saw Moon over my right shoulder. I said, "Lend me a half, Moon." He said, "I am in my last quarter." And when I took it Moon's face clouded; when I gave him the quarter back you should have seen Moon beam on me.

I guess this is all I can say now.
Yours truly JACK.

GOT THE HORSE HERE.

City Treasurer Golding returned last evening from Carleton County. He brought with him a new horse, which he purchased while there, for the Fire Department and the animal is now in his stall at the Central Fire Station getting accustomed to hustling into the harness of the Hook and Ladder truck.

The new horse was purchased from David Wilson of Carleton County. He is a good looking bay, with black points, stands about 16 hands high and weighs about 1,250 pounds. He is a 4 year old gelding and a half brother of the horse used by the Woodstock Fire Department. The cost of the horse to the city was $225.—Saturday's Gleaner.

News from the Country

Pembroke.

The weather for the past few days is just what is needed for the growing crops. Grain and root crops are looking fine in this locality but the general opinion is that the hay crop will not be an average.

Fred Gray of Lowell, Mass, spent a few days last week with relatives and friends in this place.

Mrs. Kendrick of Cornish, N. H., who has been absent from this place for thirty years is now the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Sharpe.

On Friday evening last the young folk of this place gathered at the residence of C. W. Betts to bid farewell to Miss Mabel Betts who after a year's stay here leaves for her home in Hampton, Kings Co. After spending a very pleasant evening in which ice cream and fruit were served as lunch, the party dispersed to their homes. Our sympathies are with the young man who is left behind.

Miss Lucretia Phillips is visiting her brothers and friends in Boston. Miss Beulah Shaw, who for the past term has been teaching school at Bath, is spending her holidays at home.

Miss Ada Phillips our local music teacher has purchased a new piano and is busy giving music lessons.

George Sharpe has under construction a large barn which when completed will rank among the finest in the county.

This place seems to have a special attraction for one of Victoria Corner's young men.

Doris Sharpe is visiting friends in New Hampshire.

A great number from Bristol and vicinity are attending the 12th July celebration at East Florenceville today.

Glasseville.

Our esteemed school teacher, Miss Somerville, held her annual school picnic recently in Kenneth McIntosh's woods where there were a goodly assortment of children with their parents but better still—a goodly assortment of nice cake and other refreshment for the boys and also for the nice little girls. There were swings and other amusements where they got swinging and playing to their hearts content.

A story is going round about a young man and a moose. Now this young man was a great Braggart—he is not so now—for while putting up a fence a good way back in the woods a great bull moose stopped on his rambles to reconnoitre and being possessed at the time with a great deal of curiosity he wondered what Mr. Braggart was doing. A challenge was given by Mr. B. throwing a stick of wood at the moose's head, which insult the moose resented by a furious rush at his assailant who had barely time to skin up a tree where he was kept until relief came. The moose ran away and threatens to fight him some other day.

Mrs. R. Brewster from Windsor is on a visit to her father, Mr. H. Dougherty, who is laid up with heart disease.

Miss Maggie Jane Elliott is home on a visit from Bangor on the occasion of the death of one of her little brothers. GREPHERWAR.

Newburg.

Crops and hay are looking fine in this section. The occasional showers and hot sunny days account for this.

Frank Ryan had 154 cords of 16 inch wood sawed by James and Murray McGuire in eleven hours. Beat this somebody if you can.

Quite a number took in the carnival in town and they expressed themselves well pleased with the acting on the square and the horse trotting was something grand. Frank L. Ryan while engaged in some of the amusements at the park dropped a five dollar bill and when he came to realize his loss some half hour later was relieved of his anxiety by a young man named Arthur Fisher who had picked it up shortly after Frank had dropped it and kindly returned it to him.

Rev. Father Bradley celebrated Mass here on Sunday 16th inst. While here he was the guest of Frank Ryan.

Mrs. John Howard and children, Bangor Me, are spending a six weeks vacation with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bull, Millinocket, and also Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell have come home for a visit. DOLLY.

When Nerves Play Out.

MIND AS WELL AS BODY IS IN DANGER—HELP FOUND IN

DR CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

Suicide, insanity, falling sickness, paralysis. These are some of the results of worn-out nerves.

The vitality of the body cannot stand the strain, and, overcome by worry, failing health, anaemia, menstrual derangements, overwork or exhausting disease, mind and body have been wrecked.

No one would neglect a disease so dreadful in its results as nervous exhaustion if the danger were only realized with the first symptoms.

The time to begin the restoration of the nerves by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is when you find yourself unable to sleep at night, suffering from headaches or neuralgic pains, indigestion or weak heart action.

Loss of flesh and weight, growing weakness and debility, a tendency to neglect the duties of the day, gloomy forebodings for the future, are other indications of depleted nerves.

You cannot liken Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to any medicine you ever used. It is a nerve vitalizer and tissue-builder of exceptional power.

Naturally and gradually it rekindles life in the nerve cells and turns new red corpuscles in the blood—the only way to thoroughly cure nervous disorders.

Miss Vitaline Tulip, Lower Negue, N. B., writes:—"Since the age of twelve I have been subject to spells of weakness which would come on me two or three times a week. I would be obliged to go to bed and was almost unconscious. I had pains in my stomach and back and no medicines seemed to be of much benefit to me.

"My sister Eva was also in very poor health so we began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and continued the treatment for seven months. During that time I gained about thirty pounds in weight and am now strong and well and am entirely freed of those dizzy spells. My sister gained nearly as much as I did and we believe there is no treatment for pale, weak girls so good as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box.

OBITUARY.

At Upper Wicklow, on March 8th, there passed away, after a short illness, an old resident, Mrs. Ann Jane Craig. She was 83 years, 2 months and 8 days old; she leaves one granddaughter, Miss Mary Smith, and four sisters, Mrs. Amos Larley of Perth, Mrs. George Craig of the same place, Mrs. Dan Bishop of River de Chute and Mrs. James Coughy of McAdam and two brothers, George Craig of Bath and Dan Craig of Houlton, Maine, also a number of friends to mourn the loss. Her funeral was preached by Rev. G. A. Giberson of Bath. Her funeral was largely attended.

"Blessed are they who die in the Lord."

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Mrs. Emma Sawyer.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a brick-dust sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case." Mrs. Emma Sawyer, Conyers, Ga.
