NOT CONSISTENT.

The Ontario fanatics who are opposing the Autonomy Bill have enlisted the support of several protestant conservative clergymen who from their pulpits and the public platform are hurling denunciations at the government. And yet these eminently pious people would be tempted to almost raise a rebellion if some Roman Catholic priest were to publicly advise his parishioners how to vote on the question. Truly this is a narrow world in which we are living.

Deputy Sheriff Foster a Peacemaker.

L. W. Pond, the now celebrated gentleman from Port Fairfield, spent Sunday here awaiting the return of Deputy Sheriff Foster from a mission to an outlying part of the county. On Monday Mr. Pond started up river taking with him Photographer Julius Neilson and at Hartland they were joined by the Deputy Sheriff. Everything seemed quiet at St. Leonards, at which place Mr. Foster had an interview with Allen Hammond. The latter was in a conciliatory mood and offered terms of peace to the representative of the law. The deputy was not long in bringing Pond and Hammond together and secured the consent of each to an arrangement that was mutually satisfactory. Mr. Hammond agreed to facilitate in every possible manner the driving of Pond's logs and the passage of his fleet of cruisers or raft boats. Mr. Pond agreed to desist from dynamiting and other warlike measures.

After this stroke of business the party came to a place called Sagas, where a landing was made. Here trouble was anticipated as a body of Hammond's men were there and had not been informed of the settlement. When Mr. Pond was recognized hot words and bad language began to flow, but Sheriff Foster quickly terminated all hostilities. As the object of his journey was accomplished, the deputy returned Tuesday night. Mr. Foster deserves great credit for clearing up the trouble. Photographer Neilson has some fine views of the scene of operations to be had at his studio on Queen Street.

CARNIVAL NOTES.

The monster carnival to take place here July 14 and 15th will be the grandest in the history of the town.

Many former Woodstock residents have written expressing their intention to return during carnival week.

Those who have rooms to let at a fair price during carnival are requested to notify the Billeting Committee. See advt. in the town papers.

JOTTINGS.

Wanted.—A good smart girl to do restaurant work. Apply at the Royal Cafe; T. V. Monahan prop.

Winslow C. Watt has on hand a large supply of flower bedding and vegetable plants for sale at reasonable rates.

Grand Chancellor W. S. Peel and Sir Knight H. C. McKay, two prominent Pythians from Truro, N. S., were in town this week.

In a great game of ball played at the park Monday afternoon the Clippers tanned the Alerts, league leaders, to the tune of 14 to 10.

During the rest of the summer the 67th Regt Band will play each Monday evening on the Record Grounds. Thursday will be the regular band night in place of Tuesday.

Lost.—Between the bridge and Wetmore's place a purse containing about $8.50 in cash two keys and a return R. R. ticket to Newburg. Finder will please leave at G. F. Smith's store, Woodstock.

The first construction work on the G. T. P. will begin near Kababeka station on a branch which will connect the National Transcontinental line with Port Arthur, Fort William and the great lakes. Kababeka is 19 miles west of Fort William.

A year or two ago the papers were full of the deeds of daring performed by Harry Tracy the outlaw, who was finally killed by a posse. The play to be put on here to-morrow night in Graham's Opera house will give a fine portrayal of the stirring scenes in the life of the western desperado.

At the cathedral, Fredericton, on Sunday afternoon, Rev. H. Goring Alder was confirmed by Bishop Kingdon. On Trinity Sunday he will be ordained a deacon, after which he will be raised to the priesthood. The Methodist orders already conferred upon Mr. Alder are not recognized.

Sells & Downs' advertising car arrived here Wednesday. Without receiving permission of the owners, the hustling circus men put up huge signs on nearly every electric light pole in town. Yesterday morning an employee of the Woodstock Electric Light Co. knocked down all the bills on the poles of that concern.

Rev. George A. Ross, pastor of the Methodist Church, for some time back has had it in mind to take a post graduate course at the University of Chicago. It is understood that the reverend gentleman may leave for the western seat of learning in a short while and be absent most of the summer, after which he will return and continue his pastorate here until June 1906, which is the limit allowed under the Methodist itinerant system. Rev. Mr. Ross by his scholarly preaching, affable manner and noble character has won a warm place in the hearts of not only his own congregation, but of the whole town as well. Woodstock residents are beginning to keenly regret the approach of the comparatively early date upon which his services must be given to some other community.

The case of Phillips vs. O'Donnell occupied the attention of the police court all day yesterday, in which the plaintiff, as executor of estate Jas Phillips deceased, sued defendant on a renewal of an outlawed note. Judgment was given for plaintiff. A. C. Calder appeared for plaintiff, D. B. Gallagher for defendant.

Rev. Dr. Milligan of Toronto, Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, one of the most brilliant of Canadian preachers, who has recently returned from an extended visit to the West, says that "the Western people are thinking about dollar bills, not Autonomy Bills." He heard nothing about "coercion" and found no "excitement" from the time he left Toronto until he returned. Dr. Milligan knows whereof he speaks.

Rev. J. H. Coy, a Reformed Baptist clergyman who formerly lived here started to drive from St. Stephen to St. John by way of St. George and Pennfield. At Seely's Cove he stopped over night at the home of a farmer. In the morning he found that a horse belonging to his host had broken loose and kicked his roadster, breaking its leg. Rev. Mr. Coy's animal was shot. The loss is heavy, as the horse was a fine one recently purchased at a high price.

District Meeting of Methodist Church.

The Ministerial session of the Woodstock District opened its session this morning (Thursday) in the Methodist Church. Rev. J. O. Berrie in the chair. Devotional exercises were conducted by the chairman; after which the Rev. G. A. Ross was appointed secretary of session.

The roll was called, the following answering to their names:—Revs G. A. Ross, A. E. LePage, C. K. Hudson, J. C. Berrie, B. O. Hartman, E. C. Turner, J. B. Young, T. S. Crisp (supply).

The usual questions regarding the moral and religious condition of the members of the district were answered satisfactorily; after which a discussion took place concerning the work of God in the district. Session adjourned at 5.30.

At 8 o'clock a public service was held, Chairman Berrie presiding. Rev. J. K. King gave a short address in connection with the sacramental service.

The annual District Meeting opened this morning at 9 a. m. The meeting was opened with Rev. J. O. Berrie in the chair. Hymn 343 was sung, Hebrews 12 chapter was read, and Revs. J. K. King and J. B. Young led in prayer.

On ballot the Rev. J. B. Young was elected Journal Secretary and the Rev. B. O. Hartman was appointed Statistical Secretary.

The following are the names of the Laymen of the District:—R. B. Jones, Henry Carr, W. O. Cluff, A. Plummer, W. V. Benn, John Waters, H. P. Gillespie, Percy Cunningham, James Stewart.

The morning session was taken up with the financial affairs of the District. It is a matter for congratulation that the finances of the District are in a most healthy condition.

The Missionary givings for the District are in advance of last year and all the ministers without exception have raised their various assessments.

The following were appointed to visit the various circuits in conjunction with the chairman; Rev. J. K. King and C. L. Smith, Esq.

The Rev. E. C. Turner was appointed a member of the stationing committee and Rev. J. K. King as alternate.

The following Laymen are elected as members of Conference:—John M. Frapp, R. B. Jones, Robt. Briggs, J. T. G. Carr, Andrew Myles, Harry W. Rogers, Wilbur Taylor, Benjamin Kilburn, Ernest Plummer.

Sunday School Committee.—Rev. C. K. Hudson, J. T. G. Carr, Esq.

Nominating Committee.—Rev. C. K. Hudson, Benjamin Kilburn, Esq., Missionary Committee.—J. K. King, H. W. Rogers, Esq., Children Fund Committee.—Rev. J. B. Young, A. Myles, Esq.

A Good Circus Coming.

The advent of the Sells & Downs' greatest shows on Saturday June 24th will, it is said, mark an epoch in the matter of tented amusements in Woodstock, that this show will present the largest and finest street pageant Woodstock has yet witnessed is asserted without any doubt. That the circus company numbers more circus performers and of a better order of merit than have heretofore been gathered together under any one management, is also stated positively. Thousands of dollars in cash were expended last winter in accumulating new features to add to the glories of the Sells & Downs' Greatest Shows.

The reputation of Sells & Downs for faithfully carrying out all their advance promises and for dealing fairly with the public in all things affords positive assurance that their show will eclipse anything of a like nature seen here before. The Pontiac Zouaves, the finest drilled soldiers in the world, and the Marvelous Trained Seals and Sea Lions are features of this great show, and they alone are worth the price of admission.

Woodstock, Saturday, June 24th.

While public attention to the war in the east is now riveted on the forces which are likely to meet at any moment, Vladivostok is always a theatre of important pending events. It is believed that the great fortress will be isolated and besieged by the Japs as soon as their ships recover sufficiently from the effects of the recent naval fight. Already the Russians have passed an order notifying all non-combatants to leave Vladivostok.—Herald.
